

Nittany Lions Prepare for Middies

Collegian Photos by John Beauge

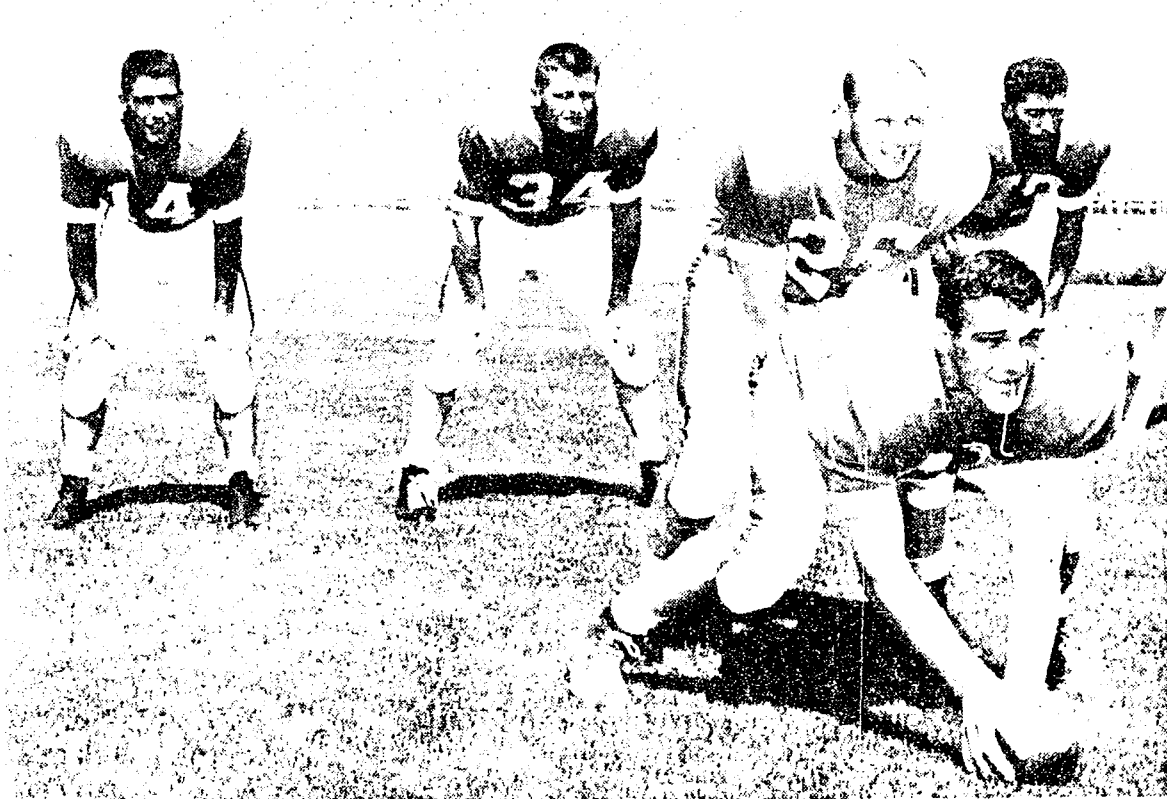

TACKLES WHO WILL SEE ACTION: The Lion's four top tackles prepare to charge against the Navy line Saturday. From the left are Jim Smith, Gerry Farkas, Ron Tietjens and Charles Sieminski. Only Smith is a senior.

LION QUARTERBACKS: Three of the Lion quarterbacks limber up their arms for use against the Middies. Galen Hall (25) will start with Don Caum (23) and Pete Liske (24) fighting for the second string job.

BUDDY TORRIS
... will see action.

Possible Starting Backfield for Saturday's Opener

Galen Hall, first string quarterback, prepares to run a play with what may be the starting backfield for the season's opener Saturday. From the left are Don Jonas (14), Dave Hayes (34) and Al Gursky (43). The center is Bill Saul.

ROGER KOCHMAN
... ready to go.

TALK OVER PLANS: Coach Rip Engle and tackle Jim Smith, team captain, discuss the possible defenses which the Lions will use against Navy in the opener on Saturday.

STARTING CENTER: Jay Huffman, a starting performer for three years will start at center Saturday. Among the awards he has won was the most valuable player honor in the Liberty Bowl game of 1959.

ALL-AMERICAN END? Bob Mitinger who has been mentioned as a possible All-American shows end coach J. T. White his three point stance. Mitinger will begin his final college football season Saturday.