Day Driving Limited On 3 Campus Roads

Student driving on Burrowes, Shortlidge, and Curtin Roads has been banned between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. by the latest University parking regulations.

Students, who have paid the registration fee of $3.50, will be allowed to drive on these roads after 5:30 in the evening.

The fine for illegal operation of an unregistered student car on campus has been lowered from $25 to $10 this year.

Students cited for reckless driving, stop sign violations, driving too fast for conditions, leaving the scene of an accident or turning out lights to avoid detection will be liable to a fine of $25.

Fines for other traffic and parking violations is $1 for the first offense, $3 for the second, $5 for the third and $10 for the fourth.

Student parking permits will cost $10, and may be purchased at registration by students who live on campus.

Two changes were made in the location of student parking lots.

Parking Lot 53, north of the Jordan fertility plots, which had previously been a student lot has been changed to a faculty and staff area.

Parking Lot 80, on the northwest corner of the intersection of Curtin and Bigler Rds., will be reserved as a parking lot for commuting students. Parking on this lot is banned between the hours of 2 a.m. and 7 a.m.

HUB Display to Feature Prof's Art Collections

The School of the Arts has announced its first exhibition of the 1961-62 season.

Entitled "Professors as Art Collectors," the show contains paintings lent by faculty members of the School of the Arts. Each of the School's faculty members will display as many as three works, including paintings, drawings, original prints, ceramics and sculpture. Some of the pieces have never been exhibited before.

The display will run to Oct. 2 in the main galleries of the Hetzel Union Building.
