Off-campus students:
Enjoy telephone service in your room!

One of the comforts of home is the handy telephone. Telephone service can also be yours while you are a student at the university. With a telephone of your own you can . . .

- Quickly contact your friends to make plans for extra-curricular activities
- Easily handle matters concerning your studies—e.g., determine the whereabouts of a hard-to-get-hold-of book
- Keep in touch with folks back home—and they in turn will find it so convenient to reach you direct

So whether you're living in a private home or apartment, you'll find that your personal telephone service will pay off in many ways.

And it's so easy to order. To make arrangements, just call ADAMS 7-4911 or stop in at our Business Office, 116 E. College Ave.
