

Engle Pleased With Play Of Reddie Unit Sophs

By JIM KARL

Navy had so many sophomores running in and out of the lineup Saturday that everybody overlooked six first year men who played a lot of football for Penn State.

Navy Coach Wayne Hardin used all 36 of the players comprising his traveling squad in the 20-10 loss to State. Rip Engle didn't go quite that far but three sophomores and three holdovers were included among State's first two units.

Harrison Rosdahl, a holdover guard who moved up to the first unit when Bob Hart tore the ligaments in his knee in pre-season drills, was the only non-letterman to start.

But there was a sharp dip in experience on State's Reddie Unit. Guard Dick Wilson and center Bill Saul were the only linemen who earned a letter last year and fullback Buddie Torris and halfback Roger Kochman the only experienced hands in the backfield.

Sophomore Gary Wydman started at the other halfback slot and although Galen Hall quarterbacked both State's starting and Reddie units most of the afternoon, sophomore Don Caum saw enough action in the final period to direct the Lions to their final TD.

Reddie Unit linemen Dick Anderson (end) and Terry Monaghan (tackle) also saw their initial game action against Navy. Pete Liske, another holdover, played almost the entire game on defense.

Despite their inexperience, Engle was pleased with the play of all the newcomers. "They did a fine job and I think they'll get better," he said. "They made some mistakes Saturday but they are all fine prospects and I think they learned something," Engle said.

"With the experience we gained Saturday we'll be better against Miami than we were against Navy. We'll be better with each game. But don't forget Miami has played two games already. We ran up against the same problem last year when we played Missouri." (State lost to the Tigers, 21-8, after downing Boston University in the opener.)

Engle was especially happy over the play of Anderson in his role as Reddie Unit end and with Liske on defense.

But Caum with his touchdown run and Wydman with a 46-yard pass reception drew most of the notices in the press box.

The little signal-caller from Central Dauphin spent most of the game on the bench until the fourth quarter when Hall was kicked on the ankle.

Caum didn't waste any time getting the Lions a touchdown. After State took over the ball on its own 32, following a Navy punt, he passed 46 yards to Wydman. One running play netted 3 yards, then Caum raced around end 19 yards to paydirt.

Traficant Doubtful Starter Against Baylor Saturday

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pitt football coach Johnny Michelosen said yesterday it appears almost certain No. 1 quarterback, Jim Traficant, will not play in the Baylor game Saturday at Pitt Stadium.

Traficant, considered the team's best passer, is nursing a knee injury suffered in pre-season practice.

At the same time, Michelosen predicted a tough time for Pitt against Baylor.

"We could get beat badly, by a lot of points," the coach said. "You have heard about Baylor's fast backs and willingness to pass from anywhere on the field. But their line isn't to be overlooked either."

Baer Leaves LaX Post For Business

By DEAN BILLICK

Ernie Baer, head lacrosse coach at Penn State since 1957, has resigned his post here to accept a job as general manager of the world's largest distributor of lacrosse equipment.

According to Director of Athletics Ernest B. McCoy, the resignation will become effective Oct. 1. A new coach has not been named.

In an interview yesterday Baer said that he "hated to leave coaching, but the job opportunity was a once in a lifetime offer." Baer said that the Bacharach Rasin Co. in Baltimore, Md., for which he will be working, has been trying to hire him for the past five years. "Each year they made their offer better and this year it came to a point where I just couldn't refuse them," he said.

Baer has been working as a consultant for the company for the past five years. It is the largest sporting goods distributor in the South and one of the largest in the country.

Baer is a graduate of Penn State where he played lacrosse from 1946 to 1949. He led the 1947 team in scoring and started every game from his sophomore to his senior year.

Upon graduation from State, he was appointed assistant lacrosse coach and was named head coach in 1957. His teams have compiled a 22-33-1 record, with his only winning season coming in 1959 when State logged a 5-4-1 chart.

Baer said he expects State to have a "good" team next year. "I hated to leave because we have the nucleus of a good team coming up next year, but I just couldn't resist the business offer," he said. However, he said he was glad to leave State with "some fine players. The new coach, whoever he may be, should be stepping into a fine coaching position," he added.

Baer said that he and his wife have bought a home in Baltimore and are moving today.

McCoy said that no one has been named to fill the post, but that he is working "on two or three possibilities." He would not disclose the names.

First AP Poll Picks Nittany Lions Eighth

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

Three ranking college football teams, including Iowa's No. 1 powerhouse, get their seasonal baptism on the playing field this weekend as just about every team swings into action.

Iowa, Ohio State, and Michigan State of the Big Ten, all ranked in the top-ten before their first kickoffs, now will have to prove their merit.

If the coaches are concerned, they have reason to be. Louisiana State was ranked fifth and Kansas eighth before the first ball was kicked and look what happened! Rice knocked off LSU 16-3 and Texas Christian nipped Kansas 17-16 in the two biggest upsets of the past weekend.

Iowa opens at home against California, whipped 28-3 by Texas. Mississippi, smooth and powerful in a 16-0 triumph over Arkansas, visits Kentucky, 14-7 losers to the U. of Miami (Fla.). Ohio State hosts Texas Christian, hoping to put another giant-killing act.

Alabama, impressive in its 32-6 conquest of Georgia, meets Tulane, 9-7 losers to Stanford. Syracuse, 19-8 victor over Oregon State, entertains twice-beaten West Virginia. Texas is at home to Texas Tech, 6-0 losers to Mississippi State.

Rice, fresh from its blitz of LSU, bumps into trouble at Georgia Tech, 27-7 conquerors of Southern California. Penn State, 20-10 rallying victors over stubborn Navy, runs into trouble at Miami Friday night.

UCLA, which thumped the Air Force, 19-6, journeys to Michigan to give the Wolverines their first test. Michigan State opens at Wisconsin, 7-0 winners over Utah.

The top ten teams—first-place votes in parentheses; points based on 10 for first, 9 for second, etc:

1. Iowa (19) 343
2. Mississippi (12) 332
3. Ohio State (7) 309
4. Alabama (6) 307
5. Syracuse 233
6. Texas (1) 227
7. Rice (2) 220
8. Penn State (2) 192
9. UCLA 98
10. Michigan State 80

Maris HR Ball Sold for $500

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bob Reitz won't make a nickel on the baseball Roger Maris slugged here last week for his 59th home run of the season.

After six days of weighing various offers, Reitz, 32, of Baltimore, has decided to accept $500 offered by the Sports Boosters of Maryland — and turn the money over to Associated Catholic Charities, of Baltimore.

"Although I could use the money," the unemployed machine operator said, "I never had intentions of accepting cash for the ball."

"I realize this ball is not the same as any other. It doesn't belong to me. It belongs in the baseball Hall of Fame—where all the people can see it. After all, it's been 34 years since someone has hit 59 homers, and who can tell when it will be done again."

Player Holds Lead In Golf's Gold Derby

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — The three front runners in professional golf's race for riches remained the same this week, with only Gary Player forging ahead to any degree.

Player remained on top of the heap with total winnings this season of $63,490. Arnold Palmer, who has remained idle the past few weeks, continued in second place with $57,732.

Doug Sanders, the young pro from California, played out of the top money for the past two tournaments, but is running a strong third with $53,513.
