

Irish Picked To Defeat Oklahoma

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Notre Dame vs. Oklahoma and a preponderance of other tossup games this week threaten to blow a hole in our gaudy .840 average.

We tagged the end of Virginia's losing streak and 36 other correct guesses against 7 misses last week.

Again:

Notre Dame 17, Oklahoma 14: Coach Joe Kuharich has the Fighting Irish ready to end a prolonged slump.

Iowa 21, California 7: Like Casey Stengel, Forrest Evashevski won't be missed.

Baylor 14, Pittsburgh 7: The Bears' air game given an edge over Pitt's power.

Missouri 18, Minnesota 12: The Gophers are too slow and heavy-legged.

UCLA 10, Michigan 3: This is a game worthy of the Rose Bowl. Georgia Tech 16, Rice 8: Both teams impressive in their opening victories.

Cornell 21, Colgate 18: It's a long long road that has no turning.

Ohio State 14, Texas Christian 3: Two upsets in a row are too much for the Horned Frogs.

North Carolina 7, North Carolina State 0: The Tarheels have the stuff to contain Roman Gabriel.

Oregon State 18, Stanford 7: Tommy Prothro gets some dividends from his new-style attack.

Hutchinson Says Lefty May Start In First Game

CINCINNATI (AP)—Jim O'Toole, power-throwing southpaw of the National League kings, the Cincinnati Reds, is the best prospect to start the World Series, Manager Fred Hutchinson indicated yesterday.

Hutch didn't pick a series starter against the New York Yankees, because the Reds have three more regular-season games to play at Pittsburgh this weekend.

But he tabbed O'Toole to start tomorrow and said he would continue his regular rotation, with Joey Jay, 21-game winner, pitching Saturday and Bob Purkey wrapping up the season Sunday.

That puts O'Toole squarely on the spot Oct. 4 for the first series game in Yankee Stadium.

Maris Takes Rest After Hitting 60

NEW YORK (AP) — True to a promise he made to himself a week ago, Roger Maris took a much needed rest yesterday to grid himself for a final assault on Babe Ruth's record of 60 homers in a season.

Maris' decision to sit out yesterday's game between New York and Baltimore caught everyone by surprise, particularly since the Yankee bomber had only Tuesday night smashed his 60th home run of the season against Oriole right-hander Jack Fisher. He has only four games left in which to reach the coveted mark of 61.

The left-handed slugger had been contemplating such a move as far back as Sept. 19. He even pin-pointed a specific date, the game in which Steve Barber was on the mound for the Orioles Wednesday.

Injured Umpire Caught In Pirate Batting Practice

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National League Umpire Vinnie Smith, disabled with a knee injury since July 7, caught batting practice for the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday.

"The doctor told me to try it (the knee) out and then he wants to see how it reacts tomorrow," Smith said after the 40-minute workout behind the plate. "It feels real good now and doesn't pain me at all."

Smith stepped in a hole and twisted the knee while running toward centerfield in a game at Milwaukee on July 7. He underwent surgery for removal of cartilage a few days later and has been under treatment since then.

Ithaca Baseball Star Signs With Red Sox

ITHACA N.Y. (AP) — James Russin, Ithaca College baseball star, has signed a contract with the Boston Red Sox for a $24,000 bonus, the college said yesterday.

Russin, a junior from Whippany, N.J., has been assigned to the Johnstown, Pa., club of the Class A Eastern League.

As a sophomore pitcher and outfielder at Ithaca, he batted .413 and won six games on the mound. The Ithacans captured 11 of 12 contests.

The 6-foot-4, 19-year-old, hit 12 home runs in 50 games this summer for Huron, S.D., in the Basin League, a six-team circuit of college players.
