

Boston U. To Battle Lions For 1st Win

By JIM KARL

So far this year the bark of Boston U.'s Terrier has been worse than its bite, but that doesn't stop Rip Engle from worrying about his gridders getting tattooed with teeth marks.

Boston U. coach Steve Sinko didn't hesitate to tell anyone who would listen that his team would be bigger and better than the average bear this year.

So far he's half right—they're bigger.

But despite BU's size and Sinko's pre-season comments, the Terriers are 0-2 so far, losing 24-12 to Buffalo and 31-7 to Army.

Maybe that's why Engle is worried, for if the New Englanders are half as good as Sinko intimates, BU is due to explode at any time.

Engle hopes it won't be tonight, when his Lions meet the Terriers at 8 p.m. on Boston University Field.

Powell

State will go into the game without first team quarterback Galen Hall, who bruised his right shoulder in the 25-8 loss to Miami last week.

Taking his place will be Pete Liske, a holdover QB who made his varsity debut at quarterback a success last week by completing 8 of 11 passes against the Miamians.

Except for Liske, Engle will start the same team that opened up against the Hurricanes. Jim Schwab and Bob Mitinger will line up at end, Jim Smith and Charlie Sieminski at tackle, Joe Blasenstein and Harrison Rosdahl at guard and Jay Huffman at center.

Liske, Al Gursky, Don Jonas and Dave Hayes comprise the backfield.

But there will be a new face on the Reddie Unit. Junior Powell, a 5-9, 170-pound holdover from Lewistown, will replace Gary Wydman as the Reddie Unit right halfback.

Powell and Frank Sincek, who scored State's lone TD against Miami on a 6-yard pass from Liske, have been battling for a berth on the Reddie Unit all week.

Wydman, a tall 175-pound sophomore from New York, is potentially one of the best pass receivers on the squad, but his hesitancy and indecisiveness when running the ball have reduced his effectiveness.

Powell runs with a smooth, flowing stride and when he gets up a head of steam he's hard to catch.

The rest of the Reddie Unit lineup remains unchanged. Dick Anderson and Cliff Davis will start at end, Ron Tietjens and Gerry Farkas at tackle, Joe Gallardi and Dick Wilson at guard and Bill Saul at center.

Don Caum will be at quarterback with Roger Kochman and Powell at halfback and Buddie Torris at fullback.

BU, like State, has been hit hard with injuries, the most damaging being a broken ankle suffered by halfback Hugh O'Flynn.

"O'Flynn's probably their fastest back and they've really counting on him," end coach J. T. White said yesterday.

White scouted BU in both of its losses this year.

"Boston has two games under their belts now and with that experience they could be tough," White said. "They had a miserable night against Buffalo . . . fumbles in the backfield, penalties at the wrong time . . . everything that could possibly go wrong."
