

Jay Throws Four-Hitter As Reds Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Hulking Joey Jay, first Little League grad to make the majors, squared the World Series for Cincinnati yesterday with a four-hit 6-2 victory in the second game, while the New York Yankee defense goofed with three errors and costly mental lapses.

Speedy Elio Chacon, subbing for the injured Don Blasingame, scooted home from third with the tie-breaking run in the fifth while a confused Elston Howard hesitated after recovering a passed ball.

Matters speedily worsened for the Yanks when a strategic move by Manager Ralph Houk backfired into a run-scoring single by rookie John Edwards in the sixth.

A wild throw by relief ace Luis Arroyo and a shocking three-base muff of a fly ball by Yogi Berra contributed to two more Cincinnati runs in the eighth.

The teams traded two-run homers in the fourth after Jay and loser Ralph Terry had battled through three scoreless innings. Gordon Coleman slammed a long liner into the bleachers in right center after Frank Robinson's hard shot had bounced off Cleve Boyer's chest for an error.

Berra quickly squared matters with his 12th series home run, following a walk to Roger Maris, the home run hero who struck out twice and ran his series hitless streak to seven at bats. Yogi now trails only Babe Ruth with 15 and Mickey Mantle with 14 in series homers.

But the big man was Jay, a 6-5, 225-pounder who won 21 games for the Reds after Milwaukee traded him last winter. Time after time the big fellow went to 3-2 on a hitter only to dig down deep and come up with that something extra he needed.

Harriers, Booters Open Tomorrow

Penn State's cross country and soccer teams will kick off their season tomorrow with home contests.

Coach Ken Hosterman's soccer team faces a tough test in meeting perennial power West Chester. Last year West Chester beat State and then went on to win honors as the third ranked team by the NCAA.

The Lions cross country team faces Pitt in an attempt to extend its six game winning streak from last year. The harriers copped the IC4A title last season.
