

AFTER SOMETHING?—Jack Donald of Nittany 23 leaps high between two teammates to bat down a pass intended for an unidentified Nittany 43-44 player. Donald intercepted three passes in addition to kicking the two field goals that gave his team a 6-0 victory on the Beaver Stadium IM fields last night.

Terza's Passes Lead NC To 12-0 Win Over Chimps

Banking on the throwing arm of quarterback George Terza, Newman Club rolled to a 12-0 win over the Chimps in a hard fought game on the IM Beaver Stadium field last night. Terza connected on two TD aeriels, both within the 10 yard line, and set up the scores with a series of short passes.

In other games last night the Untouchables defeated Ennyl, 6-0; Grim Reapers beat Sleepers, 7-0; 409'ers downed Beethoven's Nine, 6-0; Nittany 21 beat Forestry Society on downs, 4-0; and Nittany 29 defeated Nittany 36 on downs, 2-1.

Newman Club got its first score shortly after the kickoff. A Chimp pass went awry and NC intercepted it on the Chimp 20 yard line. From there it took Terza three passes to cover the distance to the goal line. The extra point attempt was blocked and the remainder of the half was played between the 20-yard lines.

With nine minutes remaining in the game, Terza again found the range, hitting Don Gregg on a 40-yard pass play that carried to the Chimp five yard line. From there the NC quarterback fired a short, sharp pass to Glenn Thompson in the end zone. Again the extra point attempt failed.

In a game dominated by defense, Jack Donald booted two field goals to lead Nittany 23 to a 6-0 win over Nittany 43-44.

Donald's boots came inside the 20-yard line.

The Misfits made two first half touchdowns stand up downing the Duc's, 14-0. A 40-yard pass play from Sam Romberger to Chuck Bednarik got the Misfits their first score early in the game, and an interception pass that was run back for a touchdown completed the winner's scoring.

Bednarik kicked both extra points.

Freshman Basketball

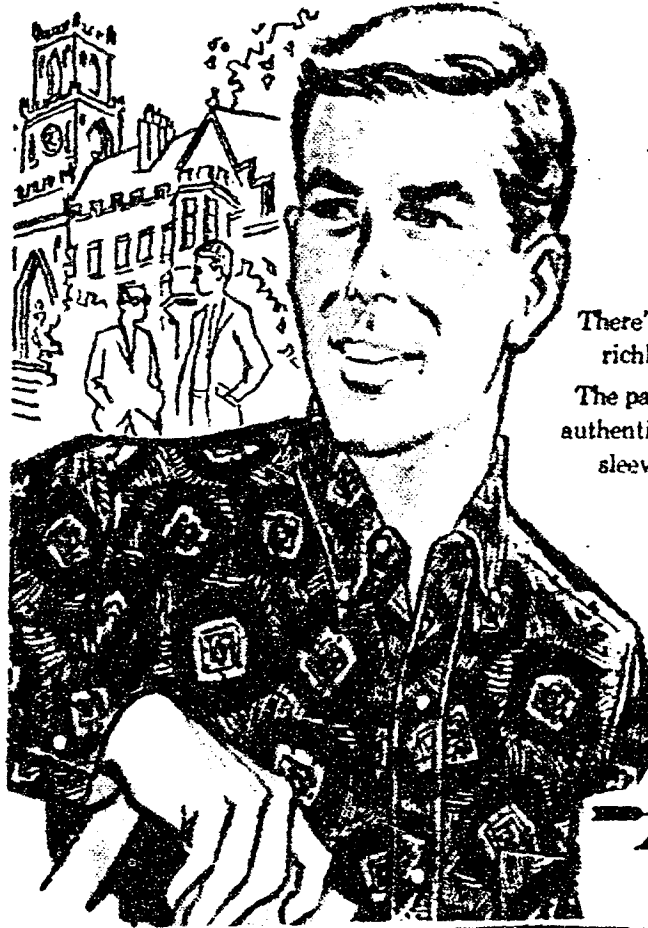

All freshman basketball candidates should report to either Coach John Egli or Assistant Coach Snowy Simpson at 4 p.m. Monday at Rec Hall. Candidates should bring their own equipment.

Wilson Outstanding

Dick Wilson, right guard on Penn State's "Reddie Unit," is also an outstanding student. A graduate of Peekskill (N.Y.) High School, he compiled averages of 3.68 and 3.75 for the fall and spring semesters in 1960-61.
