

Colgate Booters Boast 15 Game Winning Streak

By CRAIG YERKES

Penn State's soccer team will face its second straight tough game when it opposes Colgate's undefeated "Red Raider" eleven tomorrow afternoon at Hamilton, N.Y.

There are several reasons why tomorrow's game will be rough for Ken Hosterman's boosters, but the most significant is the controversial issue involving Colgate's failure to be chosen for the 1960 Eastern NCAA Regional Playoffs.

The upstate New Yorkers have come up fast in eastern soccer circles the past few seasons. In 1959 they compiled a 7-1 state en route to a fourth place NCAA finish and their high-scoring wing, Jim Taylor, was chosen on the coaches' All-American squad.

Last year the Red Raiders made it big. They crashed enemy nets for 53 goals in sweeping nine straight foes.

Their defense, not to be outdone by the front line, limited the opposition to a meager seven goals, tops in the east. State scored one of the seven goals, but went down to a 5-1 defeat.

Being the only major eastern power to go undefeated, and sporting impressive scores, Colgate appeared headed for a playoff spot.

However, the selection board thought differently, ruling that the caliber of opposition the Red Raiders faced was sub-par.

So a fine season went for naught and all Colgate could do was wait for 1961, try to duplicate its excellent record, and hope for a break from the selection board.

So far they have gotten off on the right foot.

With a fine nucleus from last year, coach Mark Randall has led the Red Raiders through two victories, 5-1 over Hartwick, and 6-0 over Clarkson, two upstate New York schools. The wins extended Colgate's streak to 15 straight victories in regular season play.

So Colgate is out to prove itself worthy of selection, while State is out to show that its fine second-half effort against powerful West Chester was no fluke.

State stands ahead in the series, having won 18 of 20 contests. Colgate's two wins came in the last two meetings, in 1959 and 1960.

Hosterman might have a few of his patented strategic switches in mind for Colgate. He has been juggling his front line in practices attempting to assemble the best possible scoring combination.

Glenn Ream has apparently regained his old right-wing spot for his outstanding play in the second half against West Chester.

Inserted in the lineup in the third quarter, Ream provided the spark that the Lions were missing throughout the first half. He set up State's one goal, and barely missed numerous shots deep from his wing spot.

Hosterman has switched Ed Hinojosa from right wing to left, and moved Howie Farrer to inside right, in other changes.

Houk Inks 2 Year Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Houk signed a new two-year contract yesterday to manage the world champion New York Yankees at a reported $45,000 a year and predicted the club should be even better in 1962.

"I got a helluva raise," said the 42-year-old Houk who succeeded Casey Stengel as Yankee skipper just a year ago. "I almost fainted when they showed me the contract."

Roy Hamey, Yankee General Manager, said the raise was "substantial" but didn't give any figures. It was understood Houk got $30,000 in his one-year contract for 1961.

"I am pleased in more ways than one," said Houk. "First, the money is great. Second, this is the first time since I have been in baseball that I know for sure what I would be doing for two years in advance. When a man has a family he has to think about such things."

Houk announced the coaching staff of Frank Crosetti, Johnny Sain, Wally Moses and Jim Heagan would be back.
