

Moyer Announces Oct. 24 Deadline For Homecoming Display Competition

The deadline for fraternities entering the annual Homecoming Weekend display contest is Tuesday, Oct. 24, Richard Moyer, vice president of the Inter-Fraternity Council, said last night.

The theme this year will be the California game on Homecoming Day, Oct. 28. All displays must be completed by 6 p.m. the night before since they will be judged that evening, Moyer said.

The displays must have no mechanical parts, they must cost under $50 and be in good taste to be eligible, Moyer said. A fraternity may enter by signing a sheet at the Hetzel Union desk, he said.

The fraternity with the winning display will receive the Alumni Association trophy and the president will be guest at the Alumni Luncheon on Homecoming Day.

Moyer said the contest is planned to illustrate to alumnae the Penn State spirit and fraternity support for the Nittany Lions.
