

Soccermen Threaten Colgate's Win Streak

By CRAIG YERKES

Penn State's hungry booters will test Colgate's 15 game win streak this afternoon at Hamilton, N.Y.

Colgate is 2-0 this year with wins over Clarkson and Hartwick, while State dropped its opener against West Chester last week 4-1. The Lions lead the series with Colgate 18-2, with Colgate's wins coming in the past two years.

State is at full strength for today's encounter. Hosterman reports no major injuries now that Lion captain John Miller has recovered from an infected right leg.

Joining Miller in the defense will be the same men who saw action against West Chester. Sophomore Mickey Mastil, who Hosterman says "played a good first game" against the Rams, will join Miller at fullback.

Two veterans and two sophomores round out the Lion defense. Letterman Dave Grubbs will handle the Lion nets and Jay Stormer will be at his customary left halfback position. The remaining two halfback positions will be manned by sophomores Dieter Heinze and Wentzel Pisch.

On the strength of a fine second half against West Chester,

U.S. Tennis Team Shoots For Upset

ROME (AP) — A second-string American tennis team shocked heavily favored Italy by taking a strong lead in the opening singles matches of the Davis Cup interzone final yesterday.

The Americans weren't expected to have much of a chance against the veteran Italians who beat the United States' best in the interzone final last year. Bernard Bartzen and Chuck McKinley, the two leading American amateurs, couldn't make the trip to Rome.

Pittsburgh Favored Over Mountaineers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Revenge-minded but underdog West Virginia will try and make it two victories in a row today in its 54th football meeting with Pitt.

The favored Panthers will try to frustrate West Virginia's desires and halt their own two-game losing streak. The Mountaineers haven't won two straight since they defeated Richmond and George Washington in the early part of the 1959 season.

Shortly after that, they started on the 18-game losing skid that they finally halted last week with a 28-0 triumph over Virginia Tech. The Mountaineers also would like to gain revenge for the 42-0 shellacking handed them by Pitt last year.

Sports Staff Meeting

There will be a compulsory meeting for all members of the Daily Collegian Sports staff at 7 p.m. Monday in the Daily Collegian office. Anyone failing to attend will be dropped from the staff.

Glenn Ream has captured the starting right wing spot. Hosterman has plenty of strength at center forward where both Ken Link and Ted Jones are available.

Sophomore Tom Flanagan, who scored the Lion's lone goal against West Chester, will alternate at inside right with last week's starter Val Djurdjevic.

Colgate has scored 11 goals in two games while holding the opposition to a single score. Hosterman calls the Red Raiders "a perennial big team". "They are always big boys who play a rough brand of soccer and like to run a lot," Hosterman said.

Today's game is a crucial one for both teams. The Lion's will try and prove that they are better than their 4-1 loss against West Chester shows. The Red Raiders, 9-0 last season, would like to show that they were unjustly left out of last year's NCAA regional playoffs.
