

Tickets Available For Monologue

Extra student tickets for the second performance of "The Importance of Being Oscar," which will be presented by the University Artists' Series at 8:30 tonight in Schwab, will be available for distribution from 9 a.m. to noon today at the Hetzel Union desk.

These tickets were originally designated as general admission tickets at $1.25 each, but because of added demand it was decided to make them available for student distribution, Nina Brown, administrative assistant for the Artists' Series said.

Mrs. Brown also said that matriculation cards "might be" checked at the door to prevent faculty members from using student tickets.
