

ISA Backs Recess

The Independent Students Association Board of Directors voted last night to support the attempts of Dennis Poianini, SGA president, to extend the Thanksgiving vacation, Barry Rein, ISA president said.

In other business, the board decided to set up a committee to look into the suggestion to continue the operation of ISA during the summer term. Mary Jane Kases, senior in journalism from New Holland, gave a report on the need for the organization during the summer term.

Miss Kases said that there were few social activities for students during the summer term.

The board discussed the suggestion that ISA plan several mixers for students who wish to attend "stag" functions. Official action on this suggestion was postponed until the next meeting.

Pat Schaaff, secretary, said that ISA office hours would be set up within the next few days so students could use the organization bluebook file.

SGA Appointment Plan--

"I don't know if, at such a late date, we will be able to completely staff the polling places," she said. Miss Williams added that she hasn't been notified about the details of the elections.
