

Wright to Launch Religious Series Tomorrow Night

The Most Reverend John J. Wright, S.T.D., Bishop of Pittsburgh, will be the first speaker of the series "Religion and the Common Good" at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab.

Bishop Wright will talk on "Religion in Mid-Twentieth Century."

An academic procession at 8:15 p.m. will precede the program. Platform guests will include President Eric A. Walker; the college deans; Chaplain Luther H. Harshbarger; Directors of the Hillel Foundation, University Christian Association and Newman Club; Robert G. Bernreuter, special assistant to the president for student affairs; Howard A. Cutler, assistant to the president for academic affairs; Dean of Women Dorothy J. Lipp; and Dean of Men Frank J. Simes.

The Rev. Samuel N. Gibson, director of UCA, will give the invocation. The benediction will be delivered by Rabbi Norman T. Goldberg, director of the Hillel Foundation. The Chapel Choir, directed by Mrs. Willa C. Taylor, will sing "Psalm 42" by Howells and "Psalm 28" by Hovhaness.

A reception in honor of the bishop will be held by the Newman Club in the Memorial Lounge of the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel following the program.

Bishop Wright has been the eighth bishop of Pittsburgh since 1959. Prior to that, he served as auxiliary Bishop of Boston and as First Bishop of the Diocese of Worcester, Mass. Following his ordination in Rome, he was a professor in the Seminary of the Archdiocese of Boston and secretary of the Archbishop of Boston.

Bishop Wright holds honorary degrees from numerous American and Canadian colleges and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He is the author of books on papal social teaching, Catholic doctrine and many magazine articles.

Too Many Queens

No queen will reign over the Junior Prom to be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday in Rec Hall, the Junior Prom committee announced.

"The committee felt that too many queens are chosen for various events and the contests have lost their significance," Dave Whitsett, committee member, said.

The theme for the prom is "Streets in Paris."

Count Basie and his orchestra will provide the music, tentative plans have been made to broadcast the last hour of the prom on State College radio station WMAJ.

Tickets are $5 per couple and will go on sale Friday morning at the Hetzel Union desk. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Visiting U. of Chicago Prof

Dr. Edward Rosenheim, professor of English at the University of Chicago, has been appointed a distinguished visiting professor of English for the fall term. He is on leave from his position in Chicago.

Warmer Weather Due

Sunny skies and southwesterly winds will bring a return of warmer weather to this area today and tomorrow.

Today's high should be 65 degrees, and a high of near 70 is expected tomorrow.

Tonight will be clear and cool.

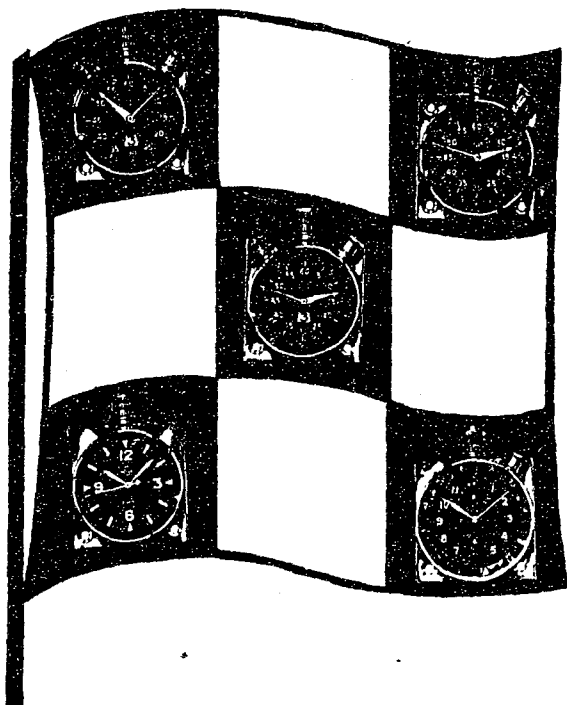

Cunningham Becomes Prof

Dr. Richard G. Cunningham, who served from 1951 to 1954 as associate professor of engineering research, has been named professor of mechanical engineering.

Home-Community Division

Dr. Rose M. Cologne has been named chairman of the division of home-community relationships in the College of Home Economics.
