Eight Syracuse Gridders Sidelined With Injuries

DAVE SARETTE

... doubtful starter tomorrow

🧽 Frank Patrick's 💨 Scouting Report

Syracuse Strong, Sizable

If it weren't for game movies. Lion backfield coach Frank Patrick would see very little Penn State football. While the Lions struggle for fame and glory each Saturday afternoon, Patrick is usually halfway across the country scouting future opponents. So far this year he's watched Miami beat Kentucky and Syracuse against West Virginia, Maryland and Nebraska.

RECORD: Syracuse has defeated Oregon State, 19-8, West Virginia, 29-14, and Nebraska, 28-6. Maryland beat the Orange two weeks ago, 22-21.

COACH: Ben Schwartzwalder, starting his 13th season as head Syracuse coach, has an overall record of 76-37-2, including a 3-1 slate this year. His best season was in 1959 when the Orange won 10 straight games, beat Texas in the Cotton Bowl, and were named the top team in the country.

OFFENSE: Against Nebraska last week Syracuse ditched a lot of the fancy stuff they were fooling around with early in the season and went back to their former power attack. The emphasis was on raw power and Nebraska simply couldn't stop them. They ground out three touchdown marches of more than 90 yards each—and the sight was rather frightening. They're basically a running team and they utilize halfback Ernie Davis to the utmost. Against Nebraska, Syracuse ran 75 plays from scrimmage and Davis carried the ball on 22 of those, or roughly one-third of the time. They don't use Davis much as a decoy, he's too good for that. Quarterback Dave Sarette can complement the running attack with accurate passing.

LINE: Their line is bigger and stronger than ours. John Brown, a 6-2, 240-pound senior, is a very good tackle.

BACKS: Everyone knows about Davis. Last year he was the third top ground gainer in the nation and he's running just as well this year. What some people don't know is that he's also rough on defense. He's a tremendous tackler.

EVALUATION: Syracuse was like a yo-yo before Saturday's game—up and down, up and down. But against Nebraska they played 60 minutes of hard, near-perfect football. They showed plenty of desire after the loss to Maryland the week before and were extremely sharp. They have a big, strong, business-like squad, and if we play like we did against Army they'll throw us right out of the Stadium.

A CONTRACTOR OF THE CONTRACTOR

By JIM KARL
After 13 years of coaching the Orange of Syracuse, Ben Schwartzwalder must be partial to that color, but no one would question him if he's feeling blue today.

Jival yland University's high-flying and high-scoring Terfrom Buenos Aires, Argentina, has started right where he left off. His record of seven goals in three games sounds more impressive if you know he scored six of the seven in one game.

Martin's six goals against N.C. State not only set a school rec-

With less than 48 hours remaining before his squad meets far the Terps have won their first Penn State at Beaver Stadium, Schwartzwalder has no less than eight gridders sidelined with assorted ailments.

The game will be televised in the East by ABC-TV as part of its NCAA television series, and as the saying goes, "to the winner go the spoils,"

According to the latest Lambert Trophy ratings, Syracuse is the overwhelming choice as the top team in the East. A victory for Schwartzwalder's crew would 3—perhaps solidify Syracuse's position even Martin is.

If State, rated anywhere from a one-point underdog to a one-point favorite, could pull out a win, it could move all the way from sixth (behind Villanova and Rutgers) to first.

Syracuse has six players out with broken hands, starting quarterback Dave Sarette sidelined with a bruised shoulder, and guard Dave Meggyesy in the infirmary with an infected

Meggyesy is expected to be ready by tomorrow, but Sarette is a doubtful starter although Schwartzwalder may still use him.

The six players with broken hands—captain and starting half-back Dick Easterly, alternate unit quarterback Bob Lelli, starting tackle John Paglio, starting full-back Bob Schoonover and reserves Jim Gaskins and Dick Bow-man, will definitely not play.

An NCAA rule prevents players from wearing casts on the field. Previously players could wear a cast covered with foam rubber.

State is in top physical shape for the contest. Guard Bob Hart, who has missed al! four of State's games to date because of a preseason knee injury, has showed steady improvement and he'll work with the Reddy Unit.

Light the Fuse For Syracuse

The students of this campus want a Thanksgiving Vacation. The means for providing it exists in our present calendar. This student feels that the administration's arguments for possibly withholding it have been insufficient and that more valid and cogent results must be presented before the students' proposal can be rejected.

Record-Breaking Scorer Leads Maryland Booters

Maryland was last year's sec-ond-ranked NCAA team, and this

Maryland opened with a 3-0

Saturday the Terps gained revenge for last year's only regular season loss by handing Army its first loss, 4-3, in double overtime at West Point. Army had won three straight. won three straight.

3—perhaps the name Juan Carlos Maryland scores, one less than Martin is.

By CRAIG YERKES Martin was last year's outstand-Maryland University's high-ing performer in the NCAA title

State not only set a school record, but broke the all-time Atlantic Coast Conference rec-

If this still would not make a rival coach sit awake nights, add 12 returning lettermen, a fine coach with 15 seasons behind him, win over Virginia, then blasted and a 32-0-1 ACC record for the North Carolina State, 10-0. Last last eight years to the other im-lineup. Most significant of these four is Oyton Tertemis, from Tur-If these statistics aren't enough key. Tertemis plays center for-to scare a coach—17 goals against ward and has accounted for six

STUDENT HELP WANTED

- e can you talk to people?
- will you work 12 hrs. a week?
- are you free Mon., Tues., & Wednes, after 5?
- do you need money?

If you can answer yes to the above qualifications, I can show you a way to put up to $25 per week in your pocket.

Just call AD 8-2526 between 10 & 11 a.m. today.

THREE PIECE SUIT

The VEST is the surest way of telling last year's suit from this year's. Obviously, many of our new natural shoulder suits are vested . . . Shoulders are your own, trousers handsomely tapered.

See them today at KALIN'S.

priced from $65.00

T.G.I.F.

Time for the

WEST HALLS RECORD HOP

8:00 - 12:30 TONIGHT

In Waring Lounge