Shady Guides Sleepers To 17-0 Win Over NC

By BOB YEARICK

The Sleepers trounced New- man Club, 17-0, behind the passing of Joe Shady and the kicking of Jack Kummer in one of the top games in last night's IM action on the Beaver Stadium fields.

Shady passed 15 yards to Bill Murphy for his team's first touch- down. On the second score he tossed to Mike Yanetski who threw 18 yards to Gary Dalton in the end zone. Kummer converted both times and added a 16-yard field goal.

Frank Rutolo's fine all-around play led the Mavericks to a 6-0 win over the Dukes. His 60- yard heave to Irwin Ehrenreich was good for the game's only score. He consistently stopped the Dukes' drives with his inter- ceptions.

Jack Teuteberg's conversion gave the Grim Reapers a 7-6 win over the 409'ers. Andy Lockhart and Norb Albertson combined for the touchdown.

In other action, the Misfits topped Waring A. C., 6-0, the Beethoven Nine beat the Champs, 8-6, the Red Dogs bowed to Ennyl, 7-0, and the Raiders beat the Lucky Lucies, 6-0.

The Chargers forfeited to the Rejects, and the Ducks forfeited to the Untouchables.

In action at the golf course fields, Phi Kappa Sigma downed Phi Kappa Tau, 13-0; Kappa Delta Rho beat Triangle, 7-0; Walnut defeated Cotton Wood, 10-8; Hickory beat Maple, 20-0; Omega Psi Phi topped Theta Chi, 7-6; Sycamore defeated Chestnut, 12-0; Linden beat Juniper, 14-6; Birch topped Cedar 27-0 and Butternut beat Balsam 6-0.

Michigan State Widens Margin Over Second Place Mississippi

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan State pulled away from Mississippi yesterday in the weekly race for the No. 1 spot in The Associated Press' football poll of 48 sports writers and sportscasters. Texas, Alabama and Iowa followed close behind as the big five of unbeaten- untied teams continued to domi- nate the voting.

Apparently Michigan State's 17-7 victory over previously un- beaten Notre Dame in a nation- ally prominent game drew addi- tional support to Coach Duffy Daugh- erty's Spartans. Last week Michi- gan State trailed Mississippi in first place votes but took first place by two points.

Although Mississippi's powerful team ran over Tulane 41-0 in a Saturday night game, Ole Miss trailed Michigan State in the vot- ing by 40 points, 440-404. In first place votes, Michigan State held a 29-11 edge.

Texas rolled over Arkansas 33-7 and picked up three first place votes and 372 points for third place. Alabama, a convincing 34-3 winner over Tennessee, drew four firsts and 331 points for fourth place. Iowa thumped Wisconsin 47-15 but attracted only one first and 327, dropping one peg to fifth place.

The top 10 with points on a

10-9-8-7 etc., basis with first-place votes in parenthesis:

1. Michigan State (29)	444
2. Mississippi (11)	401
3. Texas (3)	373
4. Alabama (4)	331
5. Iowa (1)	327
6. Ohio State	235
7. Louisiana State	129
8. Notre Dame	119
9. Georgia Tech	108
10. Colorado	97

Lions Move Up to Third in Lambert Trophy Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — As the re- sult of its 14-0 upset football vic- tory over Syracuse, Penn State has moved into third place in the weekly Lambert Trophy poll and dumped the Orange from first to fourth.

Navy was voted the top team in the East, Army was second, Villanova dropped to seventh and Pitt fell to ninth.
