

Frosh Shoot for First Win Against Unbeaten Panthers

Penn State's freshmen grid-ers make their only home appearance of the season this morning at 10 when they tangle with the unbeaten Pitt frosh on Beaver Field (next to Rec Hall).

Losers to Navy last week by 26-0, Coach Earl Bruce's squad will be out to even its record against a Pitt team that has scored successive wins over Kent State, 34-0, and West Virginia, 29-14.

Leading the Panther squad will be Fred Mazurek and Fran Novak, the double-trouble quarterback twins. In the two games so far these two have had a hand in every one of the Panther touchdowns.

Mazurek was one of the most sought after ball players in high school at Redstone, Pa., where he won an All-American high school first team quarterback as a senior.

In the first two games for the Panther Cubs, he tossed four TD aerials and scored two others on runs, including a 95-yard return of a kickoff against West Virginia.

Novak, Mazurek's understudy, has also been outstanding, heaving two scoring tosses and hitting paydirt himself on a quarterback sneak.

Starting in the backfield with either Mazurek or Novak will be Tom Black and Nick Warino at halfback, and Tom Abele at fullback.

Starting at ends for the Panthers will be Bill Howley and Ron Simantel, a 6-7, 210-pounder who has caught two TD passes.

The interior line will show

Ron Linaburg and Bernie Hynde at tackle, Ron Cimino and Don Sweeney at guard, and Marty Schottenheimer at center.

Bruce is expected to go with the same starting lineup that answered the call against Navy.

Paul Stanek will probably get the call at quarterback, although to see plenty of action. At halfback, it will be George Brome and Gary Klingensmith, and at fullback, Tom Bleehash. All three boys drew praise from Bruce for their fine play against Navy.

Bill Bowes and Jim McLean will start at ends; Noel Sabatino and John Simko at tackle; Frank Dolman and Don Miller at guard, and Glenn Ressler at center.

Barkman Top Scorer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — East Stroudsburg's Toby Barkman, scoring touchdowns on runs of 50, 47 and 11-yards against Cheyney State last Saturday, has regained the lead in the Pennsylvania college football scoring derby, according to the latest Associated Press survey.

NFL to Meet in January

NEW YORK (AP)—The annual meeting of the National Football League will be held the week starting Monday, Jan. 8, at Bal Harbour, Fla., the league office announced yesterday. This will take place two days after the second annual NFL playoff bowl in Miami.
