

Events of the Week

The following events are open to all University students this week.

TODAY

Art Exhibition, School of the Arts faculty, HUB gallery.
Newman Club Forum, Dr. John Anderson, department of philosophy. Villanova College, speaking on "The Existence of God," 7 p.m., HUB Assembly Room.
TIM Educational Film Series, "The Twentieth Century," 1 and 6 p.m., HUB Assembly Room.

TOMORROW

French Institute movie, "Nais" (Country Girl) with Fernandel, 8 p.m., 209 Home Economics South.
International Relations Club, Farouk Fawzi, graduate student from Egypt, leading a discussion of "Syria and Its Implications to the United Arab Republic," 7 p.m., Slavic center.

THURSDAY

Chemistry Colloquium, Dr. F. P. Lossing, National Research Council, speaking on "Free Radical Studies Using Mass Spectrometry," 12:40 p.m., 302 Whitmore.
Gallery Talk, Derickson Brinkerhoff, associate professor of art and architectural history, 7 p.m., Hub gallery.
Graduate School Lecture Series, Dr. H. V. Wiseman, Leeds University, "Constitutions: Are They Exportable?" 8 p.m., 121 Sparks.

Hillel Forum, The Reverend Sam Gibson, of the University Christian Association, speaking on "Segregation and the South," 8 p.m., Hillel Foundation.
International Film Committee Presentation, "All the Kings Men," 3, 7 and 9 p.m., HUB Assembly Room.
Physics Colloquium, Dr. D. A. Bromley, physics department, Yale University, speaking on "Nuclear Molecules," 4:15 p.m., 117 Osmond.

FRIDAY

English Colloquium, Dr. Maurice Cramer, professor of English, speaking on "Book and Ring in 'The Ring and the Book,'" 3:30 p.m., HUB Assembly Room.
Freshman Soccer, with Lock Haven, 3:30 p.m., Soccer field.
"The Cave Dwellers" presented by the Players every Friday and Saturday until Dec. 2, 8 p.m. Center Stage.

SATURDAY

Cross Country, P.I.A.A., 11 a.m., golf course.
Cross Country, Manhattan, 1 p.m., golf course.
Soccer, Temple, 11 a.m., Soccer field.

SUNDAY

Artists' Series, Rosalyn Tureck, pianist, 8:30 p.m., Schwab.
Chapel Service, The Honorable Richard Dilworth, mayor of Philadelphia speaker, 10:55 a.m., Schwab.
Student Movie, "Operation Petticoat," 6:30 p.m., HUB Assembly Room.

HONORARY SKULL AND BONES MEMBER, Ernest B. McCoy, dean of the college of physical education, is presented a Skull and Bones certificate of membership by President Eric A. Walker, also an honorary member. The certificate was presented to McCoy at the football game Saturday. McCoy was cited for his service to the University and his work with young athletes. Skull and Bones is a senior men's honorary society for outstanding student leaders.

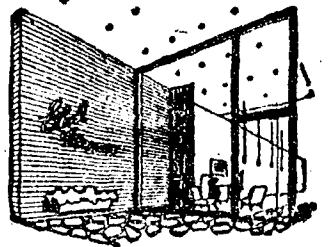

Cwens Suit Sale Money

Any girl who has not yet picked up her money for a gym suit sold by Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, is requested to claim the money by Thursday in 416 Pollock 3, Eleanor Auerbach, treasurer of Owens, said recently.

Girls are asked to come on either Tuesday or Thursday afternoons, Miss Auerbach said.

French Club to Hold Meeting

"Impressions of France," will be the theme of the first meeting of the French Club at 7:30 tonight in the Living Center in Home Economics.

Through the Looking Glass

with Gabbi

It just occurred to me that you — the readers — might be wondering why this little talk about Ethel Meserve's is entitled "Through the Looking Glass." Of course, some of you probably did not even notice that this was the title. These people — do the following. STOP reading immediately (don't peek to see what's ahead! Aha — I caught you!) LOOK at the title and the picture above! O.K., now you can continue reading.

There are so many of you who, while walking along College Avenue, stop in front of Ethel Meserve's, look in the window (the looking glass — symbolism!), and admire all the things. But you never quite get to push open the door (which, for your information, does say push — and not pull. Whether it says push or pull, you think that all the prices are high. But you CAN get beautiful things at moderate prices — and here's the store for that.

So next time — have courage and enter Ethel Meserve's and discover all the beautiful things here.

BREAD AND BUTTER gifts, I mean! I'm sure that all of you, at least once, have stayed at someone's home and have brought your hostess a gift. Well, these are "bread and butter" gifts. (See, this column is sooo informative!) Ethel has the cutest ones — like a case with about twelve toothbrushes, each in a separate pocket, for only $2. This is very useful since many people (even you) often forget their toothbrush or decide to stay over on the spur of the moment. Do you remember the date of your parents' anniversary? C'mon now, think! Ethel has beautiful ash trays, fruit bowls, and many other things that will just fit the bill. If you don't know what to get, just walk in and look around — an idea will soon come into your head.

PINS for all you coeds. No, Ethel is not selling fraternity pins. Sorry!! These are the cutest, and also very inexpensive. They'll brighten up your wardrobe. Now I'll tell you what kind they are. Animal pins — mice, cats — with or without fur. Instead of wearing a circle pin all the time, get these. The fuzzy ones, only $1.50 each, and the unfuzzy ones, only $.50 each.

Now that I've told you about some of the things which you can buy here — that are within your budget. So get into the "Ethel habit". Remember, tell them "Gabbi sent you."

So long,
Gabbi

P.S. HAPPY HALLOWEEN!!

Ethel Meserve

112 E. College Ave.

Ancient Tradition Revived- IFC to Hold Chariot Races

Living up to the ancient Greek tradition of outdoor sports, the Greeks at the University will hold chariot races on Friday, November 17.

The races which will begin at 7:30 p.m. will be held at the Intramural field and the golf course; Richard Moyer, IFC vice-president said yesterday.

"The light-weight wooden chariots will be built and pulled by the fraternity men and driven by either fraternity men or sorority women," he said. The judging will be in two categories, all men or men and women.

This will be the first year for chariot races on campus, but they have been very successful at Michigan State, Moyer said.

The number of heats (races) will depend on the number of fraternities that enter, he said.

The half-time activity will be a powder puff football game between Kappa Kappa Gamma and Chi Omega. The judges for the chariot races haven't been chosen yet but a trophy will be presented to the first place winner in each of the categories, Moyer said.

Applications for the Greek Games are available at the Hetzel Union desk. Those fraternities who would like IFC to order wheels and other attachments for their chariots are requested to return their applications by 5 p.m. Friday to the HUB desk, Moyer said.

Fraternities planning to obtain their own parts for their chariots may return their applications any time before Nov. 17.

"Sororities must also fill out applications if they wish to participate, even though they won't be building the chariots, only riding in them," Moyer said.

KDR Wins Trophy For Lawn Display

Kappa Delta Rho received the Alumni Association Homecoming trophy for its lawn display theme "Pour It On, State," featuring an overturned milk bottle pouring milk on the California Bear. The trophy was awarded at the Alumni Association luncheon Saturday afternoon.

Phi Kappa Tau and Pi Kappa Alpha tied for second place in the contest. Phi Kappa Tau's display featured a bear on a spit, and Pi Kappa Alpha depicted the Nittany Lion dynamiting the San Francisco bridge on which the California Bear was standing.

Third place was awarded to Lambda Chi Alpha for its theme of "Here Today, Gone Tomorrow," showing the bear before and after Saturday's football game.

Alpha Chi Rho received honorable mention for its display "The Lion Strikes Gold," depicting a bear with its head split open and gold inside.

Announcing
The First Meeting of
The Penn State Chapter

RHO EPSILON

National Real Estate
Fraternity

Tomorrow Evening 7:30 P.M.
at Beta Sigma Rho Fraternity

Fairmount Avenue and Locust Lane

Speaker: JACK FALK

"Financing Real Estate"

REFRESHMENTS SERVED

PUBLIC INVITED

AWS POLLOCK COUNCIL

Is Sponsoring a "Jack O'Lantern" Contest

Entries Must Be Submitted Between
4-5 at the HUB

Judging at 6:30

Who's Will Be The Great Pumpkin?

FREE

MEAL TICKETS DAILY
Except Friday & Saturday

LISTEN TO WMAJ
10:10
nightly
For Details

Your Student Directory is the key to the
New College Diner Lucky Number.

New College Diner

Downtown Between the Movies