

Penn State Ranked 17th

MSU Retains Rating As No. 1 Grid Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the third straight week Michigan State has been voted the No. 1 college football power by the Associated Press' 47-man committee of sports writers and sportscasters.

The Spartans again piled up a wide margin over second-place Mississippi in first-place votes, 31-8. The final total in points on a 10, 9, 8 etc. basis showed Michigan State leading Ole Miss 437-407.

Texas and Alabama followed in third and fourth positions as last week, but Ohio State moved into fifth place when Iowa dropped to ninth after its 9-0 defeat by Purdue. Texas had six first-place votes and Alabama two.

There was a shuffling among the last five teams but the only change saw Notre Dame, beaten by Northwestern 12-10, drop out of the top ten and be replaced by Missouri, a 10-0 winner over Nebraska.

Michigan State strengthened its position by thumping Indiana 35-0 for its fifth straight. The Spartans face a major test at Minnesota Saturday.

Mississippi, which enjoyed a 47-0 romp over Vanderbilt for its sixth straight, gets down to serious business Saturday night at Louisiana State. LSU moved up to the No. 6 position by beating Florida 23-0. The only team to beat LSU was Rice in the season opener 16-3.

Texas smashed Rice 34-7 for its sixth straight and headed toward a Saturday date with Southern Methodist at Dallas. Alabama also ran its winning string to six by beating Houston 17-0 and made ready to entertain Mississippi State.

The top teams, with season records and first-place votes in parentheses, and points:

1. Mich. State (31) 5-0 .... 437
2. Mississippi (8) 6-0 .... 407
3. Texas (6) 6-0 ..... 383

Cal Watches for Short Passes; Hall Throws Two Long Bombs

passing in the opening victory over Navy (20-10) but he appeared to be getting his eye back in the next game at Miami until he suffered a bruised shoulder on the first play of the second half.

State was down by only one touchdown, 7-0, at the end of two periods, but the Hurricanes came back in the final two periods to rout the Lions, 25-8.

Hall returned to the lineup two weeks ago and engineered State to a 14-0 triumph over Syracuse before turning in another masterful job this week.

Hall was named the recipient of the Maxwell Club award for the top college player of the week after the Syracuse win, and he was named to both the UPI and the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Association backfields of the week.

Engle isn't the only one to sing Hall's praises. Homer Smith, an Air Force Academy scout who was supposed to be watching California, couldn't help admiring Hall's heroics. "Hall is a great faking quarterback," Smith said. "It's his fakes that make the Lions go."

Cal coach Marv Levy also had some good words for Hall. He threw very well," Levy said. "We were watching their flat passes and he fooled us completely by faking them and throwing deep."

Cal scored first on a 29-yard field goal by Jim Ferguson after the Lions gambled on fourth down and two deep in their own territory and failed to make it.

State came back to tie it up eight plays later with Don Jonas kicking a 34-yard field goal, but Cal went ahead 10-3 after guard Sam Stassi recovered Junior Powell's fumble on the Penn State 13.

Quarterback Rudy Gold hit end Bob Wills with a four-yard pass and Ferguson, tacked on the extra point to give Cal a seven point margin going into the second quarter.

But State scored twice in that period on a 36-yard pass from Hall to Kochman and a 51-yard aerial from Hall to Powell to put the Lions in front for good.

Hayes scored the Lions' third touchdown at 6:20 of the third period and Jonas kicked a 28-yard field goal near the end of the period to give the Lions a 26-10 lead.

Both teams scored once in the final period, with Cal's TD coming on a three-yard toss from Gold to Rudy Carvajal and Hall scoring for State on a keeper from one yard out.

Mac Sez... You'll Hope For Rain!

With a raincoat by Great Dane in your winter wardrobe, you'll be disappointed if it doesn't rain.

Rain, however, is not a prerequisite for wearing an all-around raincoat. The Great Dane with an orlon pile lining, for example, is made to order for all kinds of weather.

The rich orlon pile lining is just the thing for those cold a.m.'s. After lunch, if it warms up a bit, zip out the lining and you've got a regular raincoat with a smart plaid inner lining.

The orlon pile lined raincoat — in natural only — just $25. Other raincoats by Great Dane, in olive and natural, from $13.95.
