

Suspected Exhibitionist Apprehended by Patrol

An unidentified man was apprehended by the Campus Patrol yesterday for alleged exhibitionism in the vicinity of campus parking lots 81 and 46. Parking lot 81 is located near the University Creamery and lot 46 is located behind South Halls.

The suspect has tentatively been charged with disorderly conduct by State College Police. He will be arraigned and prosecuted when the investigation has been completed, police said.

The alleged violations took place after the suspect lured various coeds over to his car to presumably ask directions, police said.

Fall Forestry Field Day Planned for Saturday

The Penn State Forestry Society's annual fall field day will be held Saturday in Hort Woods. Events will begin at 1 p.m. and last until dark. The contests will include log chopping, power sawing and log throwing. The winners of these events will represent the University against West Virginia in the spring.

Replogel Battles Pollock For IM Net Title Today

Dick Replogel and Andy Pollock will battle for the IM tennis independent championship on the Nittany Courts this afternoon at 2.

Replogel moved into the final round by defeating Harvey Scholl, 9-7, 6-2, earlier this week. Pollock defeated Tom Diffenderfer last week to gain a place in the championship match.

In the fraternity division, Bill Polacek of Sigma Nu will meet Bill Stout of Alpha Chi Rho this afternoon at 3:30 in a semi-final match. The winner will meet Steve Seitchik of Zeta Beta Tau for the fraternity championship.

Extra Day Added for Open Houses

(Continued from page one) Compulsory meetings for rush-ees and guides will be held Monday. The guides have set the times and places for their meetings and the rushees were informed of this when they registered, she said.

Open houses and rush in general will be discussed at these meetings.

Since we had about 56 rushees per guide group which is too large for the suites we found it necessary to reduce the number to 48 for open houses and use more guides," she said.

"The additional guides will only be used for open houses and will not participate in the counseling program for rushees." Miss Carlisle said that rushees will be counseled by the guide

HUSBANDS, ANYONE?

It has been alleged that coeds go to college for the sole purpose of finding husbands. This is, of course, an infamous canard, and I give fair warning that, small and spongy as I am, anybody who says such a dastardly thing when I am around had better be prepared for a sound thrashing!

Girls go to college for precisely the same reasons as men do to broaden their horizons, to lengthen their vistas, to drink at the fount of wisdom. But, if, by pure chance, while a girl is engaged in these meritorious pursuits, a likely looking husband should pop into view, why, what's wrong with that? Eh? What's wrong with that?

The question now arises, what should a girl look for in a husband. A great deal has been written on this subject. Some say character is most important, some say background, some say appearance, some say education. All are wrong.

The most important thing—bar none—in a husband is health. Though he be handsome as Apollo and rich as Midas, what good is he if he just lays around all day accumulating bedsores?

The very first thing to do upon meeting a man is to make sure he is sound of wind and limb. Before he has a chance to sweet-talk you, slap a thermometer in his mouth, roll back his eyelids, yank out his tongue, rap his patella, palpate his thorax, ask him to straighten out a horseshoe with his teeth. If he fails these simple tests, phone for an ambulance and go on to the next prospect.

If, however, he turns out to be physically fit, proceed to the second most important requirement in a husband. I refer to a sense of humor.

A man who can't take a joke is a man to be avoided. There are several simple tests to find out whether your prospect can take a joke or not. You can, for example, slash his tires. Or burn his "Mad" comics. Or steal his switchblade. Or turn loose his pet raccoon. Or shave his head.

After each of these good-natured pranks, laugh gaily and shout "April Fool! If he replies, "But this is February nineteenth," or something equally churlish, cross him off your list and give thanks you found out in time.

But if he laughs silverly and calls you "Little Mixx!" put him to the next test. Find out whether he is kindly.

What should a girl look for in a husband?

The quickest way to ascertain his kindness is, of course, to look at the cigarette he smokes. Is it mild? Is it clement? Is it humane? Does it minister tenderly to the psyche? Does it coddle the synapses? Is it a good companion? Is it genial? Is it bright and friendly and filtered and full of dulcet pleasure from cockcrow till the heart of darkness?

Is it, in short, Marlboro?

If Marlboro it be, then clasp the man to your bosom with hoops of steel, for you may be sure that he is kindly as a summer breeze, kindly as a mother's kiss, kindly to his very marrow.

And now, having found a man who is kindly and healthy and blessed with a sense of humor, the only thing that remains is to make sure he will always earn a handsome living. That, fortunately, is easy. Just enroll him in engineering.
