

DU Enters Semi-Finals

By MAL KLUGMAN

A 50-yard deflected pass from Jack Melchoir to Jim Hahn enabled Delta Upsilon to pull out a last-second victory over Kappa Sigma, 12-7, in IM grid playoff action last night on the golf course fields.

The win moved DU into the semi-finals. Tonight Phi Delta Theta meets Kappa Delta Rho to determine DU's opponent.

DU scored first on a pass from Melchoir to Dick Frick that covered 10 yards. They failed to kick the extra point and led Kappa Sig 6-0 until the final two minutes.

With time running out, Kappa Sig launched a drive that ended with a TD from Dave Maize to Dave Antenucci. Harry Saxer added the extra point to give Kappa Sig a 7-6 lead.

DU then pulled off the winning play as time ran out. The pass from Melchoir was off the mark but an accidental tap from a defender sent the ball towards Jim Hahn, who grabbed it in the end zone for the winning tally.

In another fraternity game for a semi-final berth, Delta Tau Delta defeated Theta Xi, 1-0, in overtime. With their team trailing 2-1 in first downs, the Deltas completed a first down pass with six seconds left in the contest, thereby creating the need for an overtime period.

Two fraternity league playoff games were also contested last night. Delta Sigma Phi defeated Theta Delta Chi, 7-0 and Kappa Delta Rho stopped Omega Psi Phi, 12-0.

By their wins, Delta Sig will play Phi Gamma Delta and Kappa Delta Rho will meet Phi Delta Theta in quarter-final games.

Seven opening-round independent playoff games were completed last night. Nittany 23, the fifteenth team tabbed for the playoffs, drew an opening round bye.

The Untouchables rolled up the highest score of the evening with a 20-0 victory over Poplar. Bill Snyder intercepted a Poplar aerial and returned it 20 yards for a score. Wayne Funk added the extra point to give the Untouchables an early advantage.

Hall 'Lineman of Week'

Tom Hall, Minnesota end, was named lineman of the week by The Associated Press for his role in the Golden Gophers' 13-0 upset of Michigan State's top-ranked college football team last Saturday.

Close behind in the weekly AP poll of sportswriters and broadcasters were two other ends, Gene Sykes of Louisiana State, who helped the Tigers upset the No. 2 team, Mississippi, 10-7, and Maryland's Gary Collins.

Big 10 Powerhouses Expected to Topple

NEW YORK (AP)—College football teams are like a yo-yo—up and down—and the trick is to guess when one is hitting the bottom of the string. Minnesota, up last week, should suffer a letdown and Iowa, after two losses, should be on the rebound.

Pitt is always up for Notre Dame and Michigan State probably will be in the doldrums against Purdue. That's the way it goes—but not always, as last week when the score was 39-16 for 709.

Penn State 29, West Virginia 10: The Nittany Lions haven't lost two games in a row and they aren't about to start now.

Iowa 18, Minnesota 10: Coach Murray Warmath is whistling past the graveyard when he says his Gophers are still high for this one.

Purdue 22, Michigan State 14: It's going to be tough to get much fight out of the Spartans this week.

Pittsburgh 21, Notre Dame 8: Jim Traficant tosses more vinegar into the Fighting Irish's open wounds.

Navy 17, Duke 14: Greg Math-er's errorless field goal kicking may cook the Blue Devil's oyster in the Oyster Bowl.

Texas 31, Baylor 7: The Long-horns have been averaging 31-plus a game, and they're busting new buttons as the nation's No. 1.

Ohio State 28, Indiana 0: If

Iowa can't stop the great Boh Ferguson, what makes the Hoosiers think they can?

Colorado 27, Utah 6: The Buffaloes already are sniffing Miami's orange blossoms.

Georgia Tech 19, Tennessee 7: Tech's Bobby Dodd returns to the scene of his undergraduate triumphs—in triumph.

Louisiana State 14, North Carolina 7: The Tarheels are high after beating Tennessee, but the Tiger still is feasting on raw meat.

Southern California 23, Stanford 7: The Trojans, tied last week, are fit to be tied this week.

California 18, Air Force 0: The "G" stands for ozone for the Air Force fly boys; the Golden Bears are getting more muscle.

AN UNPAID TESTIMONIAL

Richard the Lion-Hearted says:

I would never have surrendered England ... if I'd had Jockey support

C'mon, Rich! You're rationalizing. Jockey support¹ might never have secured you against the Emperor². But it certainly would have provided snug protection against the physical stresses and strains of your active life. Your armor never tailored a coat of mail more knowingly than Jockey tailors a brief—from 13 separate, body-conforming pieces.

1. Other "imitation" briefs (copies of the original Jockey brand) have no more Jockey support than a limp loin cloth.
2. Richard the Lion-Hearted, 1157-99, surrendered England and a huge ransom to secure his release from Henry VI.
