

MAPPING OUT STRATEGY: Lion backfield coach Frank Patrick shows Rip Engle one of West Virginia's pet plays at a blackboard session before practice yesterday. Patrick scouted

-Collegian Photo by John Beause the Mountaineers in their games against Army and George Washington, State will leave by bus this morning for Morgantown.

up job in Hayes' absence against the Terrapins, will fill-in for Hayes, but a badly bruised elbow will keep him from going

Nittanies Wary of W. Va.

West Virginia's upsets over last week. Pitt and Army, some Penn There have been many factors present in the return of big time State players are calling the football to the hill country, but Mountaineers "the best team probably the most evident is the outstanding play of two sophowe'll face all year."

Lion halfback Junior Powell quarterback Fred Colvard. was one of the players impressed by West Virginia.

"I'm sure we'll be up for them," he said yesterday. "We'll have to be if they play Saturday the way they did against Army."

State will be favored by at least a touchdown in the battle at Morganiown tomorrow, but West Virginia has already scored upsets over two teams which the experts picked to win by three touchdowns.

Coach Gene Corum's gridders deflated Pitt, 20-6 four weeks ago,

A second State football player has been nominated to the roster of candidates for the All American team to be selected by the American Football Coaches Association.

Center Jay Huffman was named this week to the squad by the votes of more than 500 coaches. Earlier this season end Bob Mitinger received a nomination. The team has been narrowed to 51 players.

and after a 12-6 defeat at Boston University the next week, West Virginia surprised Army 7-3 at Michie Stadium.

It was the first time an Army team had failed to score a touchdown since the last game of the 1957 season, when Navy won 14-0.

The Mountaineers opened their campaign with losses to Richmond (35-26), Vanderbilt (16-6) and Syracuse (29-14) to run their winless streak to 18.

But they caught fire against Virginia Tech the next week and exploded for a 28-0 win.

Since that long-awaited taste of victory West Virginia's confi-dence and spirit has been growing with each game

After the Pitt win there was a slight letdown at Boston and the Terriers, a team that expected to go places this year but wound up losing its first four games, didn't pass up the chance for an upset.

Rear 129 S. Alien Street Music, Music, Music Kenny Kuhns 9:30 - 12:30 P.M.

By JIM KARL

West Virginia rebounded at Hayes suffered a sprained ankle

Army the next week and then deagainst Maryland. He'll make the feated George Washington 12-6

Vest Virginia's upsets over last week.

West Virginia rebounded at Hayes suffered a sprained ankle against Maryland. He'll make the feated George Washington 12-6

Buddy Torris, who did a bang-

There have been many factors mores, fullback Glenn Holton and at full speed.

Bernie Sabol will back up Torris. Engle also is taking along sophomores Ed Stuckrath and Tom Urbanik and said he will use Four speedy halfbacks, Roger Holdinsky, Tom Woodeshick, Jim Moss and Eli Kosanovich both if necessary.
Four linemen, Gerry Farkas,
Bill Saul, Harrison Rosdahl and supplement Holton and Colvard in the backfield. Together these Dick Wilson, have been slowed by various injuries but should be four have accounted for 929 yards rushing in eight games.

Holdinsky and co-captain Bob ready tomorrow. Timmerman have been sidelined Gary Wydman, a Reddie Unit with injuries but both are expect-halfback, who has been out since ed to be ready by tomorrow. the Syracuse game with a chest ed to be ready by tomorrow. the Syracuse game with a chest Meanwhile, Rip Engle is trying bruise, was pronounced fit yester. to decide what to do about his day by team physician Alfred H. fullback dilemma. Starter Dave Griess.

WOOLRICH POPOVERS

THIS VERY POPULAR PULLOVER is made of 80% wool and 20% mohair in assorted colorful off-beat plaids. Italian style "V" bottom construction and "V" neck with button closure. See them today.

$10.95

STATE COLLEGE

Top NFL Draft Choices To Play in U.S. Bowl

WASHINGTON (P) — The er, commented in Philadelphia:
"We in the National Football U.S. bowl hopped into the League are proud that our playscramble for top college football players yesterday. It an- East and West squads. The connounced a Jan. 7 all-star game matching teams composed of top draft choices of the National Football League.

The game's date puts the U.S. Bowl—to be played in the new um, which opened for business 50,000-seat D.C. Stadium—in direct competition for players with

The National Trophy Bowl plans two other all-star games the same a Dec. 30 game between two col-weekend, the Senior Bowl in lege teams. It announced yester-Mobile, Ala., and the Hula in day it is considering Maryland Honolulu.

"We're going after the top players hot and heavy," said Milton Fenster, U.S. Bowl gen-eral manager. "We're interested in only one thing—getting the best players possible for the

And Fenster said his group hopes to enlist the aid of Congress in recruiting top players by having the congressman from each player's district serve as an informal sponsor to help enter-

The contest will match players drafted for the NFL's Eastern Conference against players draft ed for the Western Conference. Two NFL coaches will direct the 25-man squads.

, Pete Rozelle, NFL commissioner selections are being used as cept of the game is excellent ... we are certainly ready to cooperate with the U.S. Bowl committee in any way possible."

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1961

This is the second bowl game announced for the new D.C. stadi-

The National Trophy Bowl plans day it is considering Maryland and Navy as possible host teams with Alabama, Mississippi, Oregon and Georgia Tech in the running to complete the match.

NATURAL DATA DE LA CONTRACTOR DE LA CONT ACCESSORIES

Western Auto

Satisfaction Guaranteed 200 W. College Ave. AD 7-7992

CAMPUS BARBER SHOP

350 E. COLLEGE AVE.

3 EFFICIENT BARBERS Jerry Norris, Bob Deluccia, Dave Rhoades

> An ULTRA - MODERN SHOP

With That Personalized Service

PLUS

FREE PARKING In The Campus Shopping Center