

Odds Favor State Booters

If you are a betting man you might want to lay odds on a Penn State soccer victory over Army this afternoon at West Point.

The reason is simple. It's the Lions turn to win.

Coach Ken Hosterman's booters have followed a pattern of winning one game, losing the next and then coming right back for a victory. The Lions have neither won nor lost two successive games and their last outing was a loss to Gettysburg.

So, relying on past records it would seem safe to predict a victory.

However, the win may not come as easily as it sounds. The Cadets, although just 4-4, have one of the best defensive clubs in the nation. All four of their losses have been by one goal.

"Army will be big and tough," Hosterman said yesterday before leaving for West Point. "They play a rough style of ball just like Navy and we're going to have to be on our toes to win." State lost to the Middies, 3-1.

Hosterman isn't knocking State's chances of a victory, however. "If we play our game, and don't play into their hands, I think we have an excellent chance to beat them," he said. "We're as ready for this game as we've been for any all year."

"To win we'll have to get a few breaks and take advantage of the opportunities. I guess that pretty well puts it in a nutshell," he added.

The Lions will be without the services of center halfback Dieter Heinze, who suffered a shoulder separation earlier this week in practice. The Lion junior has been a steady performer all season.

Hosterman said he expects to start Lou Paulin in Heinze's place. "Paulin has never started a game at center halfback, but I think he can handle the spot," Hosterman said.

"However if he can't, we might be in for trouble. The center halfback is a key spot and that injury might really hurt us."

Hosterman termed the game a "must" victory for the booters. "We want a winning season and to do this we have to beat Army and Pitt," he said. The Lions are 3-4 and meet Pitt Tuesday.

Hosterman said he plans no changes in the starting lineup except at the center halfback spot. Dave Grubbs will be the goalie, John Miller and Harry Kottcamp the fullbacks, Jay Stormer, Wenzel Pisch and Paulin the halfbacks and Tom Flanagan and Ted Jones the wings. Eddie Hinojosa will start at inside left, Ken Link at center forward and Val Djurdjevic at inside right.

Pitt To Face Bowl-Hopeful Trojans

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pitt may be playing the next Rose Bowl champion at Pitt Stadium tomorrow.

Southern California, despite its 4-3-1 record, is still in contention for the host spot in the Pasadena, Calif., football classic.

"We're 2-0-1 in conference play and believe it or not we have a chance to go to the Rose Bowl," Don Simcman, Southern Cal's publicity man told a football writer's luncheon. "We play UCLA next Saturday and that will decide who will represent the West Coast in the game."

The Trojans are the underdog in their clash with the Panthers. Pitt, with a 2-6 record, is a 6½-point favorite. But Pitt Coach John Michelosen is somewhat wary of those odds.

"Southern Cal always has an awful lot of dangerous boys and it is more so this year," Michelosen told the luncheon gathering. "They have a couple of running quarterbacks who also can throw the ball a long way. I only hope we can do more scoring than they do. They're a real fine offensive team."

Texas Suspends Bear Kidnappers

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The nine University of Texas students who took part in last Thursday night's kidnapping and killing of Baylor's mascot bear were suspended until Feb. 1, 1962.

The five-member faculty and student disciplinary committee also ruled that the students must make complete financial restitution to Baylor University.

The decision was reached at a closed session. The committee and university officials refused again to reveal the identity of the nine confessed culprits.

Other restrictions put on the students include a provision that they will be on disciplinary probation for one semester if and when they return to school after the beginning of the new semester next February.

RIP ENGLE ... still friends BEN SCHWARTZWALDER

Orange Rated High; Engle Sees Red

Penn State coach Rip Engle isn't exactly happy with the general reaction to Penn State's 5-3 record so far this year.

"They said we played a lousy game when we only beat Navy 20-10. And when Navy won a few games the same people said: 'Navy wasn't ready for Penn State,'" Engle remarked.

"We've been criticized ever since we beat Syracuse, 14-0. Syracuse has a fine team, this is no discredit to Syracuse — but its a crying shame what has happened to that game."

"Our boys played their hearts out before a television audience. Perhaps Engle feels that State and what happens, everybody says has been slighted by the Association that we won because Syracuse had some first stringers injured, national gridiron polls. State is not mentioned in the top twenty about the game you wouldn't think we showed up."

"Sure, Syracuse was injured, but nobody mentions that two of our top players, Dave Robinson 5-3 and Bob Hart, didn't play and that Don Jonas received a shoulder separation in the first quarter."

"We still won the game by two touchdowns and had another one taken away from us. A controversial pass interference call with State on the Syracuse 3 and time running out in the second period caused some confusion and State couldn't score before the half ended.

in the UPI poll. The Orange have a 6-2 record compared to State's 5-3 seasonal log. Syracuse has been mentioned prominently for a post-season bowl berth this year while the Lions are being ignored by all except the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Texas.—Jim Karl
