Junior Powell Grinds Out 14 Yards as State Romps Over Pitt 47-26 to Gain a Berth in The Gator Bowl

Lion halfback Junior Powell twists and turns through a small opening in the Pitt defense and goes for 14 yards in the third quarter Saturday. He was finally stopped on the Panther 15 by Fred Cox (28) who waits at the left of the picture. At right, Lion fullback Buddy Torris (32) blocks out a would be tackler. Powell gained 27 yards while State was drubbing the Panthers 47-26 and earning a berth in the Gator Bowl on Dec. 30.

HALL SCAMPERS FOR TD: Quarterback Galen Hall outruns the desperate lunge of Glenn Lehner, (15) Pitt defensive quarterback, for a 15-yard, third period score.

GETS STAR'S AUTOGRAPH: Mack McGuire, a resident of Pittsburgh but a Penn State fan, watches as Bob Mitinger, the Lions' star end, autographs a program in the dressing room following State's 47-26 win Saturday.
