

Egli Will Start Two Sophs Against Maryland Tonight

... veteran Terrapin

By JIM KARL

Penn State's cagers, who probably will have to wage an uphill battle all year to stay above the .500 mark, have nothing to lose and everything to gain tonight when they open the season against a veteran Maryland squad at 8 in Rec Hall.

A win against the Terrapins might give State the confidence needed to carry it through a murderous schedule that includes Ohio State, Duke, West Virginia, Iowa, Army, Navy and Temple.

And a loss to Coach Bud Millikan's seasoned squad would cause no eyebrow lifting. Millikan has seven lettermen returning from last year's team which posted a 14-12 record in the tough Atlantic Coast Conference.

Numbered among the Terps' victories was a 64-47 win over State at College Park, Md.

Lion Coach John Egli has five lettermen returning, but two of them—Jake Trueblood and John

Phillips—won't see any action tonight.

Trueblood will come off academic probation after this term but an NCAA rule prevents him from playing until Jan. 5, the start of the winter term.

Phillips has been student teaching and he hasn't been able to practice with the squad.

Egli will start Captain Gene Harris, Earl Hoffman and John Mitchell, all of whom saw plenty of action last year, and two sophomores—Wayne Lundy and Bobby Donato.

The Lion coach feels that with a few breaks the cagers can improve on last year's 11-13 record, but he thinks that the team needs an even split in its first few ball games to do it.

"If we could score an upset Saturday night it would do us a whale of good," he said at practice this week.

An upset against the Terrapins, however, would be quite a chore. Millikan has two promising sophomores—6-7, 215-pound Joe Barton and 6-8, 215-pound Scott Ferguson—in addition to his seven lettermen.

Ferguson, Barton and 6-7 senior Ted Marshall have been battling for Bob McDonald's old center position.

McDonald, last year's leading scorer (13.4) and top rebounder, is Millikan's only substantial loss. Bob Wilson, the only other graduation casualty, averaged 6.5 points per game.

Millikan indicated that he'll start Barton tonight, along with 6-2 standout senior Bruce Keller and a trio of juniors—6-6

Jerry Greenspan, 6-2 Bob Eicher and 6-3 Bill Stasiulatis.

State may have trouble keeping pace with the taller Terrapins under the boards. At 6-3 Harris is the top rebounder. Egli expects some help from Lundy, (6-6) and Hoffman (6-5), but he has nobody to match Barton and Ferguson.

The Lions take on Lehigh Tuesday at Rec Hall before playing Syracuse and Colgate away Friday and Saturday.

Lion Rifle Team Seeks Third Win at Cornell

The Penn State rifle team will appear in its third match of the year today at Cornell University. The Lion sharpshooters are seeking their third victory, having posted wins over Pitt and Lehigh in previous matches.

After the Cornell match the rifle team will be out of action until after the Christmas vacation.

BULLETIN

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The University of Minnesota yesterday cleared the way for a likely bid for its second-place Big Ten football team to play in the Rose Bowl.

By a 108 to 33 vote in a closed meeting, the Minnesota faculty Senate, which has final authority in such matters, voted to accept a formal bid to play in the Pasadena New Year's Day game.

Ferguson, Barton and 6-7 senior Ted Marshall have been battling for Bob McDonald's old center position.

McDonald, last year's leading scorer (13.4) and top rebounder, is Millikan's only substantial loss. Bob Wilson, the only other graduation casualty, averaged 6.5 points per game.

Millikan indicated that he'll start Barton tonight, along with 6-2 standout senior Bruce Keller and a trio of juniors—6-6
