KEELER'S

In Keeler's self service book department, downstairs, you can select all of your required and optional text books for the winter term. Self-service means easy book selection, because Keeler's "super market" type department eliminates the "mad book rush."

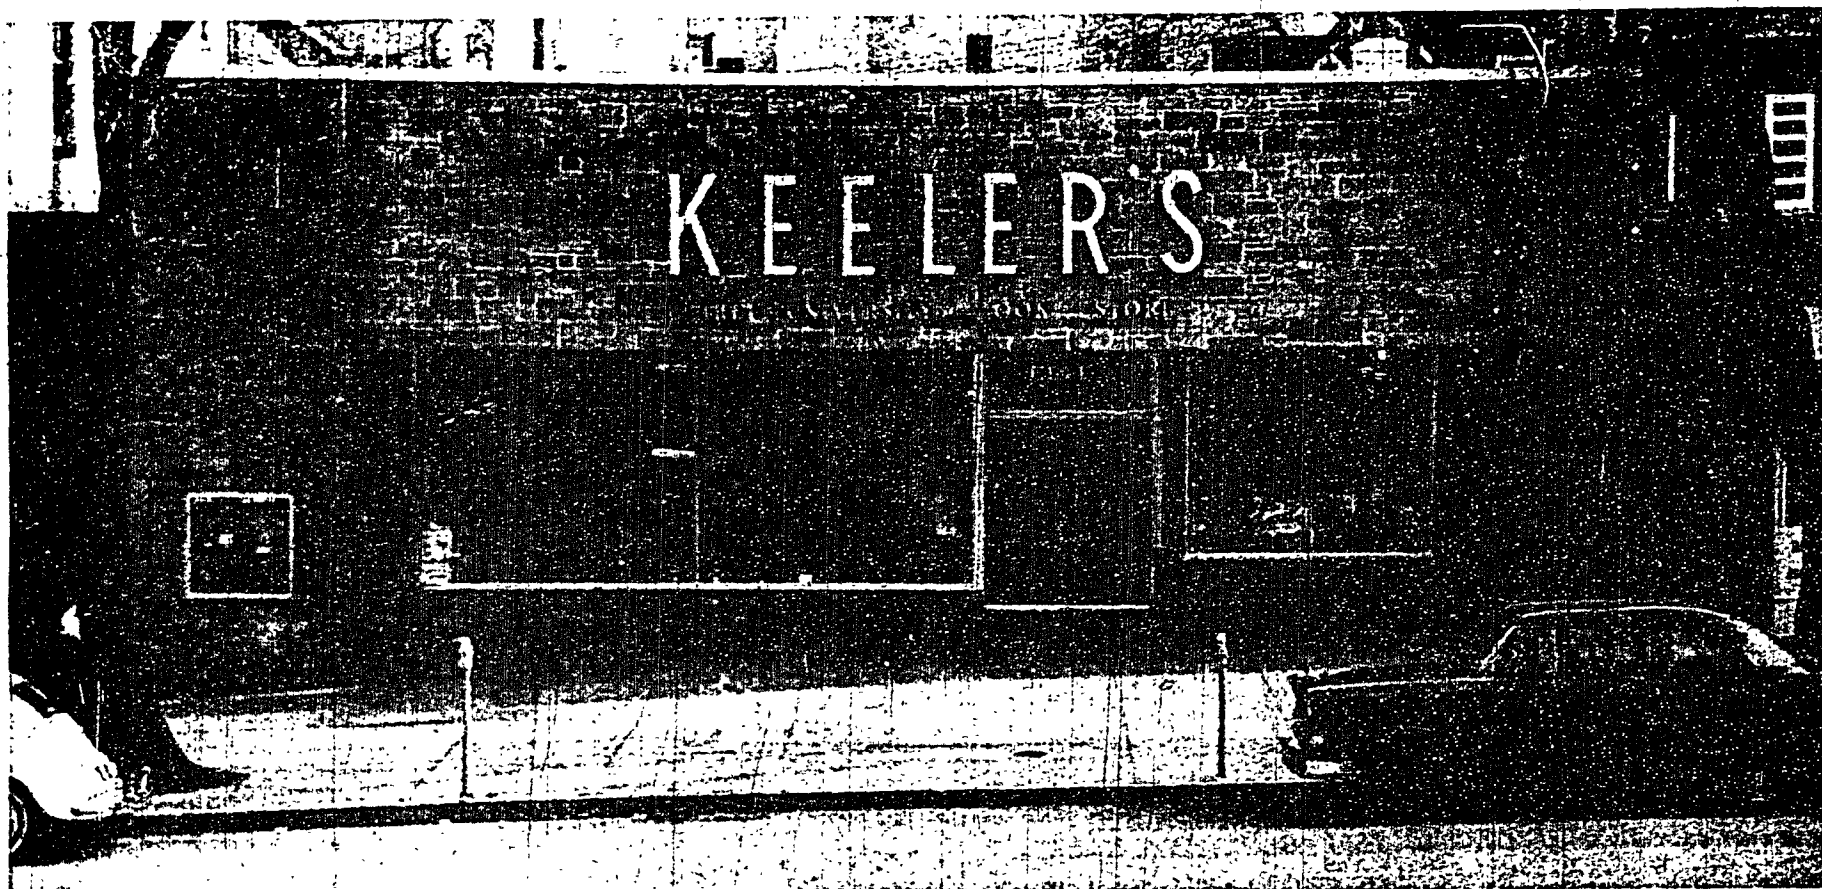

On Keeler's first floor it's easy to find all your school supplies, including slide rules by Post, K&E, and Deitzgen; art and drawing supplies, Barnes and Noble college outlines, and Smith-Corona portable typewriters.

A representative from Barnes and Noble will be at Keeler's today through Tuesday, January 9. He will be buying used text books whether or not used on Campus this semester.
