

Harris Nets 21 in 60-43 Win

Cagers Rip Gettysburg

Penn State, playing an aggressive defense that held Gettysburg to nine points over the first 14 minutes, stopped the Bullet's win streak at eight with an easy 60-43 victory before 2500 in Rec Hall last night.

The Lions' hustling zone defense held Gettysburg ace Ron Warner to just two field goals and 10 points, which amounted to the second worst night in his career.

The little senior, averaging over 24 points this year, was held to nine points in an early season loss to Albright.

"WE THREW A heck-of-a-defense at them the first half," Lion coach John Egli said after the game. "I would have hated to play against our defense tonight. Gettysburg just didn't have a chance."

This was the first game for the Lions in 17 days, and marked their fifth win in six starts.

Gene Harris took scoring honors with 21 points, followed by John Phillips with 13 and Earl Hoffman with 12. Warner and Roger Gaeckler were tied for Gettysburg with 10.

HARRIS GETS TWO—Gene Harris leaps high into the air for a two-pointer over the outstretched hands of Bruce Simpson, of Gettysburg. The Lion center was the game's leading scorer with 21 points as the Nittanians downed the Bullets 60-43 in Rec Hall last night.

State opened up a 13-5 lead with eight minutes gone in the first half and widened the gap to 26-9 with six minutes to go.

HARRIS DID most of the damage during that time, getting nine points on three fouls and three field goals.

Gaekler scored five points in two minutes to close the gap to 27-15, but State came back on four points by Hoffman and a long jumper by Harris to take a 33-17 lead to the dressing room at the end of the first half.

The Bullets rallied mildly at the start of the second period, reducing State's margin to 34-23 with 16:30 to go. But the Lions scored nine points in a row to open up a 20 point lead at 43-23.

"WE WERE psychologically ready for this game," Egli said afterward in the dressing room. "Nobody was going to beat us tonight. I could see it in their faces and in how they acted at the start of the game. When this team is right mentally it is tough."

Gettysburg coach Bob Hulton was impressed with State's hustle, but he felt the big factor in the loss was Warner's poor night. The Bullets shot only 23.7 per cent from the field, while State haven't been able to win on the road.

"It was definitely one of Warner's poorer nights," he said, "and Gettysburg is now 11-4."

The Lions are now 10-7 in their next game Tuesday at Buckner's poorer nights," he said, "and Gettysburg is now 11-4."

Buckeyes Again Top Cage Poll

By The Associated Press
Hustling college basketball teams, led by Ohio State, Kentucky and Bowling Green, are holding fast to leading positions in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Meanwhile, Oregon State, winner of its last 15 games, has zoomed into 10th position.

THESE WERE the pivotal results of the voting by a committee of sportswriters and broadcasters in this week's poll based on games through Saturday.

All 41 voters again gave the first-place nod to the Ohio State Buckeyes, who won their 17th in a row Monday night by defeating Iowa 89-62.

Kentucky, which has won its last 15, remained in the runner-up spot after beating Georgia, Georgia Tech and Florida last week. The Wildcats haven't lost since they bowed to Southern California Dec. 4.

OREGON STATE replaced Southern California in the No. 10 position. The Beavers extended their winning streak by sweeping both ends of a home and home series with Oregon last weekend. Southern Cal dropped out after its setback by UCLA.

The top 10 with season records through Saturday, Feb. 3 in parentheses:

Ohio State (17-0)	410
Kentucky (16-1)	352
Cincinnati (17-2)	334
Kansas State (15-2)	279
Duke (14-2)	227
Duquesne (16-2)	171
Bradley (14-3)	140
Bowling Green (15-1)	119
Mississippi St. (16-1)	78
Oregon State (16-1)	58
