

5 Men, Coed Disciplined By Senate Sub-Committee

Six students were penalized Tuesday by the Senate Sub-committee on Discipline, Leroy S. Austin, associate dean of men, said.

One woman and two male students were given penalties which will remain effective until the end of the spring term for an incident in which the coed was found after hours in a downtown apartment.

THE COED, a sophomore, said that she was attending a party in the apartment, Mrs. Marion Davison, assistant dean of women, said. The student had been reported missing from her residence hall. She was placed on suspended suspension by the sub-committee.

Her escort, a freshman, received disciplinary probation.

The junior student who occupies the apartment claimed that he did not invite the couple for a party, Austin said. The student was placed on office probation for his part in the incident.

In the second case, two freshmen were placed on disciplinary probation until the end of the spring term, Austin said, for sealing a stop sign from the intersection of Park Avenue and Shortridge Road.

A JUNIOR WAS given a deferred suspension which will be effective at the end of this term for giving false reasons for not meeting class requirements.

In several instances, his grades were deferred or he was allowed to take make-up examinations on the basis of excuses found to be invalid upon later investigation by his instructors and college dean, Austin said.

More Snow Predicted for Today—

Today should be cloudy and cold with snow possibly mixed with sleet and rain. The high temperature should be near 30 degrees.

The snow should diminish to flurries tonight, but winds will increase. A low of 20 is expected.

Tomorrow should be mostly cloudy, windy and colder with snow flurries.
