Gene Harris wasn't his usual self in his final appearance at Rec Hall Saturday night, but Penn State still managed to beat Pitt, 63-55, before 3,000 fans.

The win was number 12 for the Lions and assured them of a better than .500 season. State is now 12-9 with games remaining at Temple tomorrow night and at Rutgers Saturday.

Harris hit only 5 of 15 field goal attempts and two of three fouls for 12 points, but the fans gave him a standing ovation when he fouled out with less than three minutes to go in the game and State ahead by just a point, 54-53.

"I thought we had the game wrapped up when Harris fouled out," Pitt Coach Bobby Timmons said afterwards in the locker room. "It hurts to lose a real fine ballplayer like that, but we just didn't have it tonight."

WITH HARRIS out, Egli went into a 2-1-2 on offense, with Ulo Kart playing the pivot. Kart was responsible for four points to give the Lions some breathing room.

Kart was awarded two points when Pitt sophomore Paul Grieger was called for goal tending when he batted a Kart hook shot away from the basket. That gave State a 56-53 lead with just over two minutes to play.

After Brian Generalovich sunk his second of two foul shots to make it 56-54, Kart was fouled. He made both shots to give State a 58-54 lead.

WITH JUST OVER a minute to play Cal Sheffield made the second of his foul shots to narrow State's margin to 58-55, but that's the closest Pitt got. The Lions scored five points (all fouls) in the final minute to ice the game.

Pitt had trouble making its shots in the first half, hitting on just 9-28 for 32 per cent. State wasn't much better, sinking just 11-28. Those additional two field goals gave the Lions a 29-25 cushion at the end of the first half.

State jumped out to a 4-0 lead on a foul shot by Harris, a 15-foot jumper by John Phillips, and a foul conversion by Phillips.

PITT TIED IT at 4-4, then State moved out in front, 8-4. The Lions were never behind again until midway in the second half.

With 10 minutes remaining in the first half, Pitt had just one field goal and was down 15-10. Harris made it 17-10 with a jumper off a drive, then Pitt came back on jumpers by Sheffield and Ben Jinks to narrow the gap to 17-14.

IN THE NEXT TWO minutes State outscored the Panthers, 8-1 to open up a 10-point lead, 25-15. Pitt whittled away in the last two minutes on a jumper by Generalovich, and two baskets by co-captain Bob Sanky to make it 25-21.

With 35 seconds to go in the half Bobby Donato converted two fouls to give State a 27-21 lead, but Sanky hit a turn-around jump shot and Maloney scored on a steal with 10 seconds left. John Mitchell hit on a hook shot from 10 feet with one second left to give State the 29-25 halftime advantage.

The Lions increased their lead to 38-30 with 16 minutes left in the game, but then ran into a cold spell and Pitt took advantage of it, gaining the lead at 49-39 with 14 minutes to play.

AT THIS POINT Mitchell started to hit and State owned leads of 49-42 and 54-47 before Pitt caught up again at 54-53.

The game was the season finale for Pitt, which turned in a 12-11 record for this year's work, identical with last year's final mark.

Wettstone Sets Mark At Ohio State Meet

By DENNIS KNECHT

High jumper Jerry Wettstone set a new Penn State record and Gerry Norman, Steve Moorhead and Lionel Bassett made a clean sweep of the mile run, but the Lions couldn't match Ohio State's all-around ability and went down to their third straight defeat 81-60, at Columbus, Saturday.

Wettstone set the new mark at 6'6 3/4". The old record of 6'6" was set by Dick Campbell in 1960.

Moorhead, recovering from the flu, could not match his record-breaking 4:13.9 mile time of the Navy meet and finished 1/10 of a second behind teammate Norman. Bassett was clocked in the same time as Moorhead, 4:24.2, but the judges ruled him in third place.

Deardorff shook off the flu bug and recorded winning times of 2:12.5 in the 1000-yard run and 1:54.8 in the 880. Teammates Dick Tuft and Bassett took third places.

Gerry Norman out-classed the field in the two-mile run, finishing in 9:13.6, almost 40 seconds ahead of Ohio State's Bill White. Ted Inswiler came in third for the Lions in 10:01.

The 70-yard high hurdles was the closest race of the day. State's George Barnhill and Bob Grant-ham and Ohio State's Bob Riley all had times of 8.9 seconds. But a judge's decision ruled Barnhill first and Grant-ham third.

In the low hurdles, Grant-ham, placed second and Barnhill third.

MIKE MILLER placed second in the 600 in 1:13.2, less than a second behind the Buckeye's Dave Paige.

In other field events, Tom Urbanik took second place with a shot put of 50'2 1/4". Ciro Risoldi had to settle for a second place at 13'4" in the pole vault, and Grant-ham placed third in the broad jump with a leap of 21'8".

The mile relay team of Barnhill, Miller, Grant-ham and Tom Mettrick finished behind Ohio State in 3:33.6 after dropping the baton.

Maris Inks $72,000 Pact

PORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Home run champion Roger Maris agreed to a one-year $72,000 contract yesterday, nearly a 100 per cent increase over last year's salary, and said he'll settle for a repeat of his 1961 performance — 61 home runs and a .269 batting average.

"They called me the louisiest hitter ever to win the home run title," said the blond New York Yankee slugger. "Well, I wish I could be the louisiest hitter in baseball this year and still hit 61 home runs. As long as I can be good in all the other departments, I'll sacrifice one, my batting average."

Cornell Pins Second Loss On Fencers

By IRA MILLER

Penn State's hopes for a winning fencing season were shattered Saturday when the Lions fell to Cornell, 16-11, before 400 fans in Rec Hall.

The setback closed the books on a 1-2 campaign for coach Dick Klima's swordmen.

Cornell (7-1) dominated the foil competition, 7-2, and that proved the difference in the meet. John Stotsenburg, the Big Red's number one foil man, swept through three bouts, giving up just one touch. He topped Art Fuller, Ron Buzsko and Nainychit Chaturachinta, 5-1, 5-0 and 5-0, respectively. Fuller, State's number one foil man, had been undefeated going into his bout with Stotsenburg.

LARRY CHAMBERLAIN, State's number one sabre man, also tasted defeat for the first time this year. After topping Don Mason, Cornell's top sabre man, 5-4, he fell before Laszlo Szerenyi, 5-4 and Dave Feigenbaum, 5-0.

Chick Poole, the Lions' number two sabre man, won all three of his bouts. Poole defeated Feigenbaum, 5-3, Mason, 5-4, and Szerenyi, 5-4.

JUMPIN' GENE: Gene Harris drives between John Maczurak (L) and Ben Jinks of Pitt to score two points in a 63-55 victory over the Panthers before 3,000 at Rec Hall Saturday night. The fans gave Harris a standing ovation when he fouled out in the final two minutes in his last home appearance.

Shooters End Season With Win

Penn State's rifle team closed out a highly successful season by defeating Carnegie Tech, 1414-1393, Saturday at the Rec Hall rifle range. The win brings the Lions' record to 10-3, their best slate in three years of competition.

The rifle team loses Kipple, Charles Hutchison, Bill Guttererson and Dick Gogolkiewicz by graduation.

The Lion shooters will be idle until March 30-31 when they will appear in the sectional shoot-offs at Grove City, Pa.

Top scorer for State was Bill Schaffer, 286. Other Lion scorers were Dick Taylor, 285; Tom Goff, 283; Bill Kipple, 281; and Dave Kline, 279.
