

Powers' Inquiry Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — An appearance of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers before congressional committees investigating his spy-plane flight over Russia was apparently delayed last night until sometime next week.

The postponement developed when John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, informed the groups he would have to put off a scheduled briefing today on the interrogation of Powers.

McCONE SAID he had not had time to complete his review of a report prepared by the special board of inquiry that questioned Powers.

McCone was to have reported on the investigation to a special Senate watchdog committee on the Powers case at 9 a.m. and the Senate Armed Services committee at 10 a.m.

A decision on whether to summon Powers to appear before the committees is not planned until after McCone has testified.

THE HOUSE Foreign Affairs Committee, which had announced earlier it would call Powers, and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, also interested in the case, were likewise notified of the delay.

Powers was downed May 1, 1960 while on a photo reconnaissance flight over the Soviet Union. He was jailed in Russia on espionage charges, but exchanged Feb. 10 for Soviet master spy Rudolph Abel, who had been convicted in the United States.

Since the trade he had been under government interrogation at a secret location.

Red Leader Jailed French, Algerians To Resume Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — A man described as the organizational secretary of the U.S. Communist party refused to answer a grand jury's questions for the second time yesterday and was ordered jailed by federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff.

But effectiveness of the order was delayed until 4:20 p.m. tomorrow while the ruling is appealed.

The defendant is Philip Bart, a portly, balding, 59-year-old printer from Brooklyn, N.Y. He was released without bond.

PARIS (AP) — French and Algerian rebel spokesmen agreed last night that a final round of negotiations to end the 7 1/2-year-old Algerian nationalist rebellion will open soon, perhaps by the end of the week.

In Tunis, Algerian rebel sources said French and nationalist delegates will meet Saturday or Sunday to put the finishing touches to an agreement ending the conflict.

The agreement would provide for Algeria's self-determination and eventual independence.

Railroad Job Curtailment Proposed by Commission

WASHINGTON (AP)—A White House commission proposed yesterday a drastic overhaul of work and pay practices on the nation's railroads.

The 21-man panel handed President Kennedy an exhaustive report recommending methods for the railroads to cut off many thousands of workmen it said were not needed to operate moving trains—while meeting their income loss temporarily as they are schooled for new jobs.

THE COMMISSION agreed in effect with the carriers that they have for years been saddled with "featherbedding" requirements to keep on unnecessary workers. It said some 35,000 firemen on diesel locomotives in freight and yard service serve no useful purpose, and should be gradually eliminated.

The panel urged that the railroad industry be allowed to adjust to advancing technology to free itself of 19th century methods.

THE INDUSTRY promptly accepted the recommendations, but five unions representing 20,000 workers who operate trains rejected the proposals with "shock and disappointment." The unions foresaw a loss of 80,000 jobs.

The unions set a series of meetings over the next two weeks to consider taking strike votes among their members.

Kennedy called on the industry and unions, however, to enter into immediate collective bargaining on the recommendations, mindful that they have "an overriding responsibility to the national interest to provide the most efficient and safe rail transportation possible."

CAN KENNEDY CLEAR UP THE STATE DEPARTMENT

SNARL?

J.F.K. once tossed a long-winded State Department report right in the wastebasket. It was his reaction to the department's endless red tape. In this week's Post, you'll learn how the State Department is bogged down by paper pushing and committees. What Kennedy is doing to streamline the operation. And why one insider feels the situation is just about hopeless.

Through the Looking Glass

with Gabbi

Yesterday, while I was in Ethel Meserve's, I noticed a little girl standing with her nose flat against the window, peering into the shop. A timid thing was she, afraid to venture into the world of Ethel's. But this world is not just for a select few. It's for everyone. So I went outside and escorted this little one into the store. She just stared at all the beautiful things around her.

But don't let this happen to you. Everyone is welcome at Ethel Meserve's. Why don't you stop in today? To buy or just to browse.

SPRING IS COMING

You probably think I am crazy for saying that, but it is. I just know it. All this snow cannot persuade me the other way. All of a sudden Spring will just hit the campus and don't say that I didn't warn you. Coeds, when this season does come, you'll want to perk up your outfits with a new handbag. Straw is the thing this year. Ethel has a large selection of beautiful and stylish spring and summer bags. Whether you want a straw one or one in a straw and leather combination, you can find it at Ethel Meserve's.

SILVER CHARMS

No, this is not the plural form of charm. Ethel is not selling "charm" to you coeds who want an easy way to catch the man of your dreams. But she is selling silver charms in every shape and kind. Did you say that you don't have a bracelet on which to put charms? Well, Ethel has them too. For as low as $3.00, you can start a charm bracelet, with one charm on it. Then buy a charm to signify every special event in your life.

While speaking of jewelry, Ethel Meserve also received a new selection of silver pins (to match your NEW charm bracelet). Circle pins are still popular, but there are new types. For example, a pin in the shape of a cat is just the cutest. For you abstract ones, Ethel has pins of different shapes which would look just great on your sweater. Come in today and pick out a pin that will spark up your clothes.

Time to run. Don't forget to stop in at Ethel Meserve's today and while you're there, tell them Gabbi sent you.

So long,
Gabbi
