

Weiss Wins 3rd All-Around

Lion Senior Paces Field In 3 Events

Special to the Collegian
WEST POINT, N.Y., March 2 — Penn State's Greg Weiss won the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastics League's all-around championship here tonight, marking the tenth consecutive year a Lion gymnast has won the award.

The smooth-working senior scored 535.5 points in winning the all-around crown for the third straight year. State junior Tommy Seward was second to Weiss with 498 to 489 for Corky Voas of Syracuse.

The all-around champion is decided by totaling the gymnast's scores in each of the six regular EIGL events—the free exercise, side horse, still rings, long horse vault, parallel bars and horizontal bar. The finals of the individual events will be held tomorrow.

TONIGHT'S qualifying scores will be added to tomorrow's final scores to determine the individual eastern champion in each event.

Weiss, turning in one of the greatest one-man shows in EIGL history, leads or is tied for the lead in three of the regular events.

The Lion star paced the qualifiers on the still rings (92.5) and the parallel bars (97) and is tied with Army's Phil Costain for the lead on the horizontal bar (93). Weiss is also second to Ray Grimaldi of Syracuse on the side horse (94.5-90).

Seward is leading the field in the free exercise. The stocky Nittany gymnast scored a 94.5 to a 94 for Earl McConnell of Pitt. Weiss is fourth with an 89. State's Gene Harlacher also qualified for the finals, coming in eighth with an 82.

Weiss is the only Lion gymnast to qualify for the finals of the side horse. The finals shape up as a two-man battle between the Lion captain and Grimaldi.

SURPRISING STATE junior Bud Williams ranks second to Weiss on the still rings. Williams had an 87.5. Seward qualified for the finals with an 80.5, but Larry Yohn broke and failed to make the cutoff.

The Lions placed two men in the finals of the long horse vault — F. P. Storza (87) and Dave Heilbrun (88.75).

Weiss has apparently sewed up his third straight eastern p-bars title. He boasts a ten-point spread on the field with a 97. Army's Ed Hendren is running second with an 87. Seward is third behind Weiss and Costain on the horizontal bar with an 89.5.

In the four special events, Voas is leading the tumbling and trampolines; Jim Sloat of Navy is ahead on the flying rings; and Navy's Bill Pfingstag has climbed the 20-foot rope in 3.7 seconds.

Law Set To Test Arm

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Vernon Law, out of action since last July with a shoulder injury, will pitch tomorrow in a Pittsburgh Pirates' intra-squad contest.

Law will be on the mound for three innings in the nine-inning game between the Logans and the Groats. The other pitchers will be Bob Friend and Elroy Face.

State To Host EIWA Tourney

Penn State will be host for the 58th annual championship tournament of the 16-team Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association next Friday and Saturday.

The championships will climax the season's competition in the EIWA, the nation's oldest collegiate wrestling league, which was formed by Columbia, Pennsylvania, Princeton and Yale in 1905 and held its first tournament the same year.

Twelve teams—Brown, Cornell, F&M, Harvard, Lehigh, Penn State, Pitt, Rutgers, Syracuse, Temple, Army, and Navy—have joined the association since 1905. Pitt was the latest addition, becoming the 16th member in 1954.

Lehigh and Penn State lead in team championships. The Engineers moved in front last year by winning their 14th title. Penn State owns 13 titles outright and shares another with Pitt. Cornell ranks third with 12, followed by Yale with five full titles and two ties. Lehigh and Pitt loom as the favorites in this year's tournament.

PENN STATE LEADS in individual titlists with 78, followed by Lehigh with 75, and Cornell with 74. Penn State and Lehigh

Sonny Shuns Money

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sonny Liston said yesterday he will not let money stand in the way of a heavyweight title fight with champion Floyd Patterson.

But the No. 1 challenger for the crown defended his right to try for as good a financial deal as he can wrangle from Patterson and his advisors. He also conceded the champion's right to try to get the challenger as cheaply as possible.

each produced three champions in last year's tournament at Bethlehem, with the others coming from Pitt and Navy.

Four of last year's champions will return for this year's tournament. They are Penn State's Ron Pifer, who won the 147-pound crown, Lehigh's Kirk Pendleton (157) and Jim Detrixhe (177), and Pitt's Dick Martin, the 123-pound winner.

The team trophy, emblematic of the EIWA championship, will be awarded to the team scoring the highest number of points in the two-day affair. Other awards will include the Coaches' Trophy to the meet's outstanding wrestler, and the John A. Fletcher Memorial Trophy, to the wrestler who has scored the highest number of points in EIWA tournaments. Lehigh's Thad Turner was named the outstanding wrestler last year, and Penn State heavyweight Johnston Oberly received the Fletcher Award. Both have been graduated.

Weir Leads Chi Phi to Win

By KEN DENLINGER

Whenever the Chi Phi swimming team shows up for an IM meet, the chances are excellent that their number one man, Sam Weir, will either break or come close to breaking an IM mark. Last evening was no exception.

The powerfully built young man from Morton, Pa., swam the freestyle in 30.6 seconds to come within .1 of a second of tying the 30.5 mark he set last week. Weir also won the breaststroke in 37.6.

However, it was the fine backstroke performance of Al Hall that saved Chi Phi from utter disaster. Hall, clipping three seconds off his best previous effort, overtook Delta Phi's Bill Wilkens in the last ten yards to earn a tie and pick up four points for Chi Phi.

It didn't seem like much at the time, but after Delta Phi won the relay in 1:04.2 those four points were just enough to enable Chi Phi to tie the meet at 16 all. An extra event, the 90-yard medley relay, was needed to break the tie. Hall, Weir, and Rick Hurford won this event easily, enabling Chi Phi to win the meet.

In other action, Jon Hesch led Navy to a 19-13 win over Fayette, and Balsam's relay team turned in a 1:09.5 clocking to nip Lyons 3 by the same score. Irvin Newby won the freestyle for Lyons 3 in 35.0.

Lucas Named College Basketball Player of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—For the second straight year, Jerry Lucas of Ohio State was named yesterday the 1962 college basketball player of the year by the Associated Press.

The honor followed in the wake of Lucas being named to the college basketball All-America for the third straight year, the first time this has happened since Oscar Robertson played for the University of Cincinnati.

Terry Dischinger of Purdue, Billy McGill of Utah, Chet Walker of Bradley and Len Chappell of Wake Forest were named Lucas teammates on the All-America. All are seniors. Lucas, Dischinger and Walker are repeaters from the 1961 All-America.

Lucas earned player of the year honor on the basis of ballots from 322 sportswriters and radio-TV broadcasters.

On the basis of five points for a first-team vote and two for a second team nod, the 6-8 native of Middletown, Ohio, who has led Ohio State to three straight Big Ten titles, missed a perfect 1,610 by only 21 points. He was omitted from only three ballots, getting 317 firsts and two seconds for a total of 1,589.
