

Cagers, Matmen Meet Rutgers

Lion Five Aims For 13-10 Log

By JIM KARL
Sports Editor

John Egli's bid for his best record since the 1956-57 season hinges on whether Penn State wins or loses tonight against a sub-par Rutgers quintet at New Brunswick, N.J.

A win against the Scarlet Knights would give the Lions a 13-10 record, which would be Egli's best mark in five years.

The Lions were 15-10 in 1956-57, 8-11 in 1957-58, 11-9 in 1958-59, 12-11 two years ago and 11-13 last year.

Two seniors, captain Gene Harris and John Phillips will be playing their last game for Egli.

HARRIS CAME UP with a long-range jump shot this year to complement his excellent moves underneath the basket and he has developed into a dangerous scorer.

Bulletin

Hershey, Pa. — Wilt Chamberlain scored a record 100 points last night leading the Philadelphia Warriors to a 163-147 win over New York.

The 7-0 center made 36 field goals and 28 foul shots in the game.

Harris made Penn State history against Holy Cross in the Quaker City Tournament this year when he scored 46 points to wipe out Jesse Arnette's single-game scoring record of 44.

In addition to leading the Lions in rebounding for three consecutive years, Harris has poured in points at a better than 19-point per game clip this year.

He has scored 403 points this year in comparison with 369 last year and 218 as a sophomore.

Phillips has been one of Egli's steadiest performers during his three-year varsity career. The balding-Lion has scored 152 points this year for a better than seven-point a game average.

JOHN MITCHELL and Earl Hoffman, who follow Harris in points scored this season, will return along with Bobby Donato, Ulo Kart, Bob Hutchinson and Chuck Marin to form the nucleus of next year's team.

Egli said that he will start

JOEL OSOFSKY
... Rutgers forward

Mitchell, Hoffman and Kart along with Phillips and Harris against the Scarlet Knights.

Rutgers is doomed to another losing season this year, its 12th in 13 years. Tony Kuolt coached the Scarlet Knights to a 12-11 record last year for the school's first winning season in 12 years.

The Scarlet Knights have lost eight of their last 11 games, including an 83-61 decision to Gettysburg, a team State defeated, 60-43.

Kuolt's top players are Al Ammerman and Joel Osofsky. Ammerman is hitting at a better than 15-point per game clip, and Osofsky averages over 12 points per game.

Other Rutgers starters should include Bill Craft, Vince Ciaglia and Cliff Peterson.

Gubner's 63-Foot Toss Captures K of C Shot.

NEW YORK (AP)—Gary Gubner, the 260-pound New York University sophomore, won the shot-put with a toss of 63 feet last night in the Knights of Columbus track meet in Madison Square Garden.

Thus Gubner, who set the indoor record of 64-11 3/4 two weeks ago, failed in his avowed intention of getting off a 65-footer. Only Bill Neider, who has retired, owns a better flip than Gubner—the world outdoor record of 65-10.

Grapplers End Season Tonight

By DEAN BILUCK
Assistant Sports Editor

Penn State's wrestling team closes out its dual meet season tonight at Rutgers, but the Lions may have trouble keeping their thoughts on the match.

Coach Charlie Speidel's grapplers haven't set the mats on fire this season (5-3-1) and the Lions are anxious to make up for the disappointing record by giving a good account of themselves in the EIWA Tournament next weekend in Rec Hall.

Speidel's problem tonight will be to keep State's mind on the match at hand and not the East-erns next week.

If the Lions are looking past Rutgers, there could be a few eyebrows raised when the score is tallied. The Scarlet are one of the stronger eastern schools and could give State a rough night.

RUTGERS HAS wins over Princeton, 28-7; Yale, 20-9; NYU, 30-0; Harvard, 25-5; Colgate, 31-2; Penn, 23-5, and Columbia, 26-2. Coach Dick Voliva's grapplers have lost to national powerhouses Lehigh, 22-8, and Oklahoma, 19-9. State was one of two teams to beat Rutgers last year, 13-8, and the Scarlet didn't exactly appreciate it. The Lions have never lost to a Rutgers grappling team.

Rutgers should start Don Pike at 123, Dick Janish at 130, Mike Leta at 137, Hank Mazzoni at 147, Kevin Leary at 157, Bill MacGrath at 167, Don Cory at 177, Dennis Focht at 191 and Don Skuba at heavyweight.

State, who hasn't won in three weeks, will probably use the same lineup that lost to Pitt, 15-14, last week. Denny Slattery (0-2-2) will attempt to get his first win at 123, Bob Haney (8-1) will start at 130, Dick Campbell (0-2-1) at 137, George Edwards (7-1-1) at 147, Ron Pifer (7-2) at 157, Bill Polacek (0-5-1) at 167, Phil Myer (7-2) at 177, Ed Pohland (5-2) at 191 and Dick Walker (1-2) at heavyweight.

Engle in Select Group

Penn State's Rip Engle is one of 11 major college coaches who have been on the same job for the last 10 years or more. Last year was Engle's 12th at Penn State.

SOPHOMORE GRAPPLER George Edwards tangles with Rutgers' Hank Mazzoni in the 147-pound match tonight. Edwards has been one of the Lions' top wrestlers this season, sporting a record of 7-1-1 going into tonight's last meet of the regular season.

THE PENN STATE JAZZ CLUB

announces that the

HORACE SILVER Quintet

Will Begin to Swing at 7:30 TONIGHT

(Doors open at 7)

In Comfortable Schwab Auditorium

TICKETS ON SALE AT DOOR

New College Diner
Downtown Between the Modes

FEBRUARY ISSUE

OF THE

SPECTRUM

ON SALE

TODAY and MONDAY

AT

HUB Desk, Eng and Chem-Phys Libraries

HERLOCHER'S

- Supper Special (Served Tues, Thur., Sat.)
- Bar-B-Qued Chicken
- Oven-Hot Pizza
- Steaks
- Submarines
- Other Sandwiches

Quick Delivery After 4:30

227 E. Beaver Ave.

AD 8-0518

TRANSATLANTIC BY AIR

New York to London, June 24;
Paris to New York, July 23.

Observe first hand the cultural, political, social, and religious scene in London, Amsterdam, Rome, Berne, Geneva, and Paris.

Hear lectures by leaders of each country visited

$899 all inclusive travel seminar.

A choice (optional) of extension "A" or "B" is available for an additional $150. Extended trips include Nice, Monaco, Basel, Heidelberg, Bonn and Frankfurt.

Contact: Clifford Nelson
Rm. 211 Eisenhower Chapel
Phone UN 5-6548

SPONSORED BY THE COMMITTEE ON INTER-RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS