

Koser Restates Changes Spring Week Scoring Revised In Dates for Registration

According to changes made earlier this term, the dates for spring term registration are Tuesday and Wednesday, March 27 and 28. Registration was originally scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, March 26 and 27.

The dates were changed when it was realized that students will need an opportunity to meet with their advisers even under the new registration system.

The alphabetical reporting schedule as published for Monday, March 26, will be in effect starting 8 p.m., Tuesday, March 27, and the listing as published for Tuesday, March 27, will be in effect starting 8 a.m., March 28. Classes will meet for the first time Thursday, March 29.

his schedule has been revised, or a machine copy of spring term schedule received from the student's adviser;

- a valid student identification card or an authorization to enroll card;
- a registration envelope containing a statistical card and a directory card.

Students planning to enroll for the summer term 1962 should also submit an official registration form (No. 2 card) for that term.

Students failing to report at their correct registration time, may have the privilege of late registration by paying a $10 fee. All course assignments which may have been made for them previously will have been cancelled.

Exceptions for late registration will be given in the following cases, according to the registrar: illness of students or death or illness in the student's immediate family, a student who is a regular full-time university employee, a student with a University-connected commitment, or an in-service teacher.

Because of the elimination of the float parade from this year's Spring Week, a revised scoring system has been drawn up to determine the winners of the various events and the winner of the overall Spring Week trophy, Paul Krow, carnival chairman, said last night.

Under the new system, points will be awarded for the carnival; the poster contest; Olympics, which includes the he-man and queen-of-hearts contest; and the Miss Penn State competition.

Points for the carnival will be awarded in three categories — facade, skit and tickets. A maximum of 100 points and a minimum of 35 are possible for the facade and a maximum of 150 and a minimum of 60 are possible for the skit. For each group of 20 tickets sold over the 850 quota, one point will be awarded up to a maximum of 20.

The winner of the poster contest will receive 90 points with the second and third place groups receiving 75 and 50 points respectively. All other groups entering the contest will receive 20 points.

A joint system for the Olympics has not yet been worked out completely, Krow said.

The winner of the Miss Penn State competition will receive 50 points for her group with each of the four finalists receiving 35 points.

Krow also announced that groups participating in the carnival must pay a $25 entrance fee before 5 p.m., Friday, March 30. The fee should be paid at the Hetzel Union desk, he said.

Major changes in the carnival rules this year include the following:

- Booth construction may begin at 12 noon Friday, April 27.
- No public address systems will be permitted outside the booth. Only record machines with one extra speaker will be permitted and the volume will be controlled at the discretion of the committee.

- No professional bands are allowed to work in any show.
- No renting or buying of professional costumes will be permitted.

Two "No Smoking" signs must be prominently displayed in each tent.

- The maximum height of the tent or booth will be 20 feet.
- There will be one facade on all booths. Booths located on a corner will face the main aisle.

Krow said that the carnival committee will obtain tents for groups wishing them. Interested groups should contact Nancy Langsner at UN 5-8700 before March 15, he said. Groups obtaining their own tents should make sure the dimensions are approximately 18 by 20 feet, he added.

REGISTRATION procedures for the spring term will be essentially the same as they were for the winter term, Robert M. Koser, associate registrar, said.

Students have been instructed to report to their advisers at least 24 hours in advance of the time they are scheduled to register in Rec Hall. Some colleges have published special reporting schedules, Koser said, and these should be followed by students enrolled in those colleges.

In order to enter Rec Hall for registration, the student must have:

- either an approved official registration form (No. 2 card) if

ARRANGEMENTS for students in these categories must be made with the registrar as far in advance as possible and in no case later than 5 p.m., Wednesday, March 28, Koser said.

Drop-add forms may be processed starting March 29, 1962, Koser said, and will be processed through the first 10 calendar days of the term (until April 9, 1962).

Opera Stars to Appear Tomorrow

Pierrette Alarie, coloratura soprano, and her husband tenor Leopold Simoneau will present selections from Handel, Haydn, Mozart and Debussy in a joint recital at 8:30 tomorrow night in Schwab.

Almost 900 student and general admission tickets are still available from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today and tomorrow at the Hetzel Union desk.

THE PROGRAM will include "O Prince, Whose Virtues," from Handel's "Hercules," "She Never Told Her Love" and "The English Sailor's Song", by Haydn, "Welch ein Geschick" by Mozart and "Clair de Lune" and "Pierrot" by Debussy.

Miss Alarie will perform the Debussy selections and two compositions by Poulenc as well as two pieces from Vivaldi's "Il Giustino."

Simoneau will sing the Haydn selections and three songs by Duparc.

THE HUSBAND and wife team will perform in duet selections by Handel, Legrenze, Perez, Mozart, Schubert and Massenet.

Both singers have starred in the Paris Opera, the Opera Comique, the American Opera's production of "Grand Duchess of Gerolstein," the Vancouver Festival's "Don Giovanni" and the Philadelphia Grand Opera's "The Pearl Fishers."

Both Miss Alarie and Simoneau have received critical acclaim for their performances throughout the United States and Canada. Irving Kolodin of the Saturday Review described the soprano as "an artist of high rank and a superior stylist" and the New York Times commended Simoneau's "brilliance of tone and sense of meter."

Area Council Adopts Filipino Girl

A 9-year-old Filipino girl, whose mother supports a family of six children on less than 33 cents a day, will receive a $20 gift for her tenth birthday March 19 from her new foster parents, the Pollock Area Council.

The girl, Josefina I. Maligaya, was adopted by the council in February under the Foster Parents Plan Inc., of New York City.

The idea to adopt a foster child was conceived by the group early in the fall term. Larry Johnson, a member of the council, said. He said the council wrote to the Foster Parents Plan and obtained information about the girl. The notice of her official adoption came through early in February.

UNDER THE PLAN, the council pays $180 a year for her education, food and clothing. The council has adopted her for one year, Johnson said.

Because her birthday is March 19 and her family is so poor, the council decided to send her the gift of $20 in addition to the $180.

According to information received from the Foster Parents Plan, Josefina lives on the outskirts of Manila in Sampaloc, one of the worst slums in Greater Manila.

Since Josefina's father left home, her mother has had to support the entire family for the past few years. She has done this by working at any odd jobs she can obtain and very rarely does she earn more than 33 cents a day.

JOHNSON SAID Josefina is probably in the third or fourth grade and her ambition is to become a nurse.

Although he hasn't heard directly from Josefina yet, Johnson said he has written to her twice. He said he hopes to hear from her sometime before the end of March.

Chess Team Splits Title For Tri-State Honors

The chess team and the team from Carnegie Institute of Technology became co-champions of the Tri-State Collegiate Team Tournament last weekend at the University of Pittsburgh.

The University's team defeated Carnegie Tech 3-2 and was defeated by the University of Pittsburgh players 3-2. In the remaining three games, the University's team won with scores of 5-0 over its opponents. The final score was four wins with one loss, tying Carnegie Tech's score of four to one.

Graduation Invitations Available at HUB Desk

Announcements and invitations for the March 18 graduation are available at the Hetzel Union desk. Those who placed orders for them must present their receipts in order to obtain the announcements.

A limited number of announcements and invitations will be on sale for those who did not order them.

June graduates may place their orders now, but are advised to follow the calendar dates for their respective colleges. The final date for June graduates to place orders is April 6.

Scholarship Established By Central Penn Supply

A scholarship that will aid a freshman enrolling at the University in the fall has been established by the Central Penn Supply Co., Inc., of Lewistown.

It will be known as the Central Pennsylvania Plumbers Scholarship and will provide $300 for each of the student's four academic years if the student initially awarded the scholarship continues to meet the academic requirements.

Casual Dress Okayed for Dinners Next Week

Women students will be allowed to wear bermuda shorts and slacks to evening meals in the dining halls next week, the Association of Women Students Senate decided unanimously at its meeting this week.

This suspension of dress rules will begin Monday. Women may not, however, wear sweat shirts or blue jeans in the dining hall, according to the Senate decision.
