

HANEY MOVES IN — Bob Haney, State's 130-pounder moves in on Harry Rowland of Penn in a preliminary bout of the EIWA tournament at Rec Hall yesterday. Haney won the match, 7-2, but lost in the evening quarter-finals.

Pifer: Loneliest Lion

HOWEVER, WITH time running out, Merriam scored what looked to be a bout-winning takedown. The spunky Slattery didn't give up though, and with three seconds left dropped for a two-point reversal that sent the match into overtime, 4-4.

Merriam then won the match, 5-1, with a reversal, takedown and riding time while Slattery had an escape.

State's Haney was a victim of the tourney's biggest upset so far when he dropped a 7-3 decision to Navy's Dennis Farrar. Haney, who had an 9-1 dual meet record, couldn't seem to get untracked as Farrar worked for a takedown, reversal, predicament and riding time. Haney managed just two escapes.

FIRST-SEEDED Pat Smartt of Lehigh and third ranked Dick Janish of Rutgers scored easy wins to lead the competition for the 130-pound title.

At 137, State's George Edwards was the second seeded wrestler to be upset. Edwards, ranked fourth, was never in the match with Rutgers' Mike Leta. Leta, the 1960 130-pound eastern champ, swarmed to an 4-0 first period lead and then coasted to an 8-2 victory.

Pitt's John Zolikoff and Mike Harman of Navy appear to have the best chances at 137.

If three losses in the first three matches wasn't enough, the Lions' defending eastern 147-pound champ, Pifer, came within a whisker of being the first top-seeded grappler to taste defeat.

Pifer barely edged-out Pete Frey of F & M, 7-6, on 2:11 riding time. The Lion co-captain, one of the leading contenders for the John Fletcher Memorial Award, led at one time, 4-1, but a reversal and a predicament gave Frey a 5-4 edge.

Pifer quickly scored a reversal but Frey came back with an escape to knot the score at 6-6. His time advantage gave him the win.

Pifer's stiffest competition today should come from the Panthers' Daryl Kelvington and surprising Hank Mazzoni of Rutgers. Kelvington advanced with a pin and a 2-0 decision, while Mazzoni upset third-seeded Slutzky of Syracuse.

Defending champion Kirk Pendleton of Lehigh flattened his first two opponents at 157 and shouldn't have too much trouble defending his crown. His opposition will come from August Arrigone of Pitt, Army's Mike Natvig and Pete Cummings of Cornell.

At 167, top-seeded Al Ruschitz of Army had little trouble, scoring a fall in the prelims and an 8-2 win, in the quarter-finals. Jim Harrison of Pitt also had a fall and a decision and so did Dave Angell of Lehigh.

John Barone, the Lions' entry at 167, found the Engineers' Angell too much to handle and lost, 9-0.

The Lions' Bill Polacek was next to go down the drain. The Lion 177-pound senior lost to top-ranked and defending champion Jim Detrixhe of Lehigh, 5-0. Detrixhe was in complete control throughout the one-sided bout.

State Co-captain Phil Myer and Ray Nickla of Army exchanged points in their 191-pound bout so fast that the official could hardly keep up with them. But Myer did no better than the rest of Speidel's Nittanians, losing, 12-8.

Dennis Focht of Rutgers, Chuck Moore of Lehigh and Pitt's Tom Jefferies also advanced with double victories.

Closing the chapter on one of State's worst showings in recent EIWA quarter-finals history, Lion heavyweight Ed Pohland ran out of gas against Rutgers' Ed Scharer. Pohland went into the final period trailing just 2-1, but couldn't get the necessary escape and the Lions lost their seventh bout of the long night of wrestling.

Bob Asack of Columbia, John Burns of Lehigh and Dale Kuhns of Army were the other advancing heavyweights.

State advanced eight of its nine wrestlers into the quarter-finals. Paul Stegner, who dropped a 7-0 decision to Cummings, was the only Nittany who failed to win.

Slattery stomped Tom Griffith of Army, 12-2; Haney topped Penn's Harry Rowland, 7-2; Edwards handled the Quakers' Zane Tankel, 5-0; Pifer pinned Dave Westfall of Brown at 1:04 with a reverse nelson and double leg grapevine; Barone edged Elmer Romeis of Temple, 6-5; Polacek triped Army's Gyeen Vaughn, 3-1; Myer blanked Mort Fuller of Princeton, 7-0, and Pohland scored State's second fall by throwing Lee Wilkinson of F & M at 1:17 with a cradle.

While State wrestlers all but lost their shirts yesterday, there is a possibility that several of them still could advance in the tourney.

The losers of last night's quarter-finals will get another chance to show their wares today, if their conquerors win in the semi-finals. The highest, however, that a quarter-final loser can attain, is third place.

Rec Hall officials report that there are a number of general admission tickets remaining for the semi-finals and about 1,000 for the finals.

Villanova, St. Joe's Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jim Boyle, 6-foot-4 sophomore operated on for appendicitis 19 days ago, came off the bench last night to score 13 crucial points and lead St. Joseph's College to a 75-65 triumph over Temple for the Middle Atlantic Conference championship and a spot in the NCAA playoffs.

Villanova, another entry in the NCAA playoffs, defeated LaSalle College 76-67 in the opening game of a Palestra doubleheader.
