IAWS Delegates, Steering Committee To Hold Evaluation Meeting Sunday

Local delegates and steering committee members of the 1962 Region Four IAWS Conference will have an evaluation meeting Sunday at 1:30 p.m. in the Eisenhower Chapel Lounge.

Janis Somerville, local AWS president, said yesterday that the purpose of the meeting will not be to evaluate the success of the conference from the standpoint of hostess committee, to examine the recommendations of the conference and try to apply them to the local situation.

The first evaluation of the committee will then be considered by the AWS Senate.

Miss Somerville also said that the reports of the steering committee chairman will be accepted at this meeting.

Malik to Open Program

"You and the Communist Challenge," sponsored by the University Christian Association and the Newman Club, will include a series of lectures, forums and films on Communist ideology Sunday through Wednesday.

Dr. Charles Malik, former president of the United Nations General Assembly, will open the series of lectures speaking at 8 p.m. Sunday in Schwab.

The second speaker will be Frank S. Meyer, ex-Communist leader who is now associate editor of "The National Review." He will speak on "Communism and Commitment" at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Schwab.

Myers is an editorial adviser of the conservative quarterly, "Modern Age." He also wrote the book "The Molding of Communists."

Malik and Meyer will participate in the first Communist Challenge program forum on "Social Conditions in which Communism Thrives" at 4 p.m. Monday in the Hetzel Union assembly.

Monday's program will also include a movie, "A Citizen of Zion," which will be shown at 3:30 p.m. in the HUB assembly.

Tuesday's speaker will be Dr. Charles C. West, associate profesor of Christian ethics at Princeton Theology Seminary in Princeton, N.J., speaking on "The Ideology of Communism" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Schwab.

In China, West taught at Peking National University and at Chefoo National University. He also worked as a Presbyterian missionary in China from 1947 to 1950.

The Rev. John F. Cronin, assistant director of the social action department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, an organization which aids Roman Catholics, will be the final speaker for the program. He will speak on "A Program of Action" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Schwab.

In a series of broadcasts on the Catholic Hour Father Cronin discussed current social problems. He also wrote several books.

Forums will be held at 4 p.m. in the HUB assembly on "Religion in Communist-Controlled Lands" Tuesday and "Anti-Communism in America" Wednesday. The speakers for these days will participate.
