

Daniels Blanks KC; Pirates Edge Cards

By The Associated Press

Benny Daniels, 29-year-old righthander, virtually clinched Washington's opening day pitching assignment yesterday when he went the distance and shut out Kansas City, 3-0, on three hits.

The exhibition triumph was a big one for Daniels, who became the first Senators' hurler to pitch more than three innings and most likely wrapped up the honor of throwing the first official pitch in the presidential opener at Washington April 9.

In another outstanding one-man show, Bob Allison of Minnesota hit three homers for five RBIs but the Twins still lost to the Chicago White Sox, 6-4.

The Chicago Cubs beat Boston, 10-8; Cincinnati walloped Detroit, 8-1; Pittsburgh edged St. Louis, 5-4; Houston edged San Francisco, 6-5 in 10 innings; the New York Mets outlasted Philadelphia 2-1 in 10 innings; and the Los Angeles Angels defeated Cleveland, 4-3.

CAMILO CARREON drove in the tying run for the White Sox in the ninth then came across with the deciding run on a Minnesota error. Four Boston errors and a 14-hit attack enabled the Cubs to outlast the Red Sox, despite two-run homers by Carl Yastrzemski and Carroll Hardy.

Twins Release Martin

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Billy Martin, an 11-year major league veteran, was handed his unconditional release yesterday by the Minnesota Twins.

The Twins offered the 33-year-old infielder a job as a roving scout of major league clubs. Martin promised a reply today.

Martin came to camp with the second base job virtually clinched but was pushed aside by rookie Bernie Allen, a $50,000 bonus player from Purdue University.

Four homers off Detroit pitching, two by rookie Joe Gaines and one each by Wally Post and rookie Don Pavletich, powered the Reds to their fourth consecutive win.

Bob Clemente's two-run homer was the key blow for the Pirates.

Don Taussig, Al Spangler, Norm Larker and Merritt Ranew accounted for all the Colts runs against the Giants on homers. Ranew hit two.

Phillies ace Art Mahaffey went nine innings and gave up seven hits before the Mets' Gus Bell knocked in the winning run with a double in the 10th.

Lee Thomas and Earl Averill drove in the tying and winning runs in the ninth inning for the Angels after Steve Bilko's homer in the eighth brought them close against the Indians.

Titans Win WPC Crown

GROVE CITY, Pa. (AP)—Westminster College was named yesterday all sports trophy winner in the West Penn Conference with a record-winning tally of 86 points.

Grove City, with 82 points, finished second. Geneva tallied 62, St. Vincent and Carnegie Tech 41 each. Duquesne, Waynesburg and St. Francis followed in that order.

Werner Issues Call for More Track Recruits

By DENNIS KNECHT

Track coach Chick Werner has some fine athletes to oppose Navy in the first outdoor track meet of the season, April 14. But when Werner talks about depth, he's treading on thin ice.

Yesterday Werner issued his annual call for track and field candidates to fill out his short list of manpower. And he said the only prerequisite is desire.

ALMOST EVERY season Werner has sent out the same call with the same negative results. In 1957 he even challenged the student body to produce a 10.2 dashman, but the challenge went unheeded.

Candidates who never have run on high school track or cross country teams should not hesitate because of their inexperience. Werner cites the case of Horace Ashenfelter, who never ran in high school, but as a Penn State athlete won the ICAA two-mile outdoor title in 1948 and the ICAA indoor, outdoor and National Collegiate titles in 1949.

Ashenfelter capped his brilliant career by winning the 1952 Olympic 3000-meter steeplechase in the world record time of 8:45.4. He was given the Sullivan award, the highest award an American amateur athlete can receive.

WERNER SAID positions are available in both track and field competition.

All interested candidates should report to Werner or assistant coach Norm Gordon on Old Beaver Field between 4 and 5 p.m.

Lions To Meet Falcons

Penn State will inaugurate football relations with the Air Force Academy next season. The Falcons will appear at Penn State Sept. 29 in the Lions' second game of the campaign.

NCAA Fencing Championships—Stern Test of Ability, Stamina

Another full day of action is in store today for some 105 fencers from 35 schools in the 18th NCAA fencing championships which conclude tonight at Ohio State. No results of the first day's activities were available at press time last night.

The championships not only test a fencer's ability to attack and parry but also test his stamina.

An out-of-shape fencer can hardly win an NCAA title. He'll find it pretty tough sledding through 34 bouts in two days—the equivalent of 11 dual meets jammed into less than 36 hours. During the regular season Ohio State competed just three times.

so the Lion trio of Chick Poole, Dave Lewis and Joe Bubinak can be excused if they're a little winded at the close of the tourney tonight.

For those impressed by figures, close to 1800 bouts will have been contested by the time the tourney ends late tonight.

One oddity of the tourney is that the home team rarely wins. In 17 years, only two home teams have won—Army (tied with Rutgers) in 1949 and Penn in 1953.

Ohio State and Navy have been host to the most national fencing title meets, three each. The Midlies have won twice and the Buckeyes once, but neither of the schools took the title at home.
