

Panhel Judicial Board Named

Pamela Chadwick, conducting her first meeting as Panhellenic Council president, last night announced the members of the Panhellenic Judicial Board for the year.

These women are Elizabeth Skade, Kappa Alpha Theta; Stephanie Silberman, Sigma Delta Tau; Sondra Schade, Alpha Phi; and Tucker Merrill, Chi Omega.

THE DELEGATES were appointed in the order their respective sororities were founded on campus. The delegate of every seventh sorority makes up the board. A new board will function each year.

This system will be in effect for the first time since it was recently inserted into Panhel's constitution.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, Mrs. Edith Dickenson, president of the City Panhellenic Council of State College, spoke to the council about plans for a tea for high school senior women in the area. The tea will be held May 8.

Mrs. Dickenson asked the delegates to send two representatives from the respective groups to act as hostesses at the tea. She explained the tea's purpose as a public relations function to interest potential college freshmen in sorority life.

Susan Whistler, public relations chairman, announced plans for a
