

Syrians Suppress Revolt; Declare Prime Objective

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The military high command followed up its suppression of a rebellion in the north with a declaration yesterday that unity with the liberated Arab powers is its prime objective.

Naming neither President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic nor any other nation, the high command said unity must be established on a thoroughly studied basis ensuring no future errors.

Radio Cairo charged that Damascus authorities were breaking their pledge to abide by the Homs conference resolutions, meaning decisions reached by high command and pro-Nasser negotiators at the city of Homs Sunday. It said Col. Muwaffak Assassa of the high command had undertaken several arrests among pro-Nasser officers.

A merger of Syria and Egypt in the United Arab Republic was shattered last Sept. 28 by a military revolt amid charges that Nasser had turned Syria into a concentration camp.

Restoration of Syria's ties with Cairo was the aim of the Aleppo-based army uprising, which collapsed Tuesday after a 48-hour crisis.

Senate Studies Missile Profits

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators were told yesterday the Douglas Aircraft Co. collected $45.58 million in profits on a series of Nike missile system contracts after turning over much of the work to subcontractors.

Robert E. Dunne, a Senate staff investigator, also told how the government was charged for $11.47 million profit on a fleet of missile base trailers that cost a subcontractor $46.89 million to build.

"It may be legitimate, I don't know," Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said. "There may well be some explanation for it."

High Officials Hit by Walker

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edwin A. Walker, far-right ex-general told a Senate committee yesterday that both he and the American way of life are victims of dark forces in "collusion with the international Communist conspiracy."

From President Kennedy down, Walker raked high officials and even suggested that a onetime ghost writer for former President Dwight D. Eisenhower would bear looking into. He didn't name the writer.

As for the state of the armed forces, he said that with the nation's survival at stake they are "paralyzed by our national policy of 'no win' and retreat from victory."

The big Senate caucus room was crowded with spectators, many of them Walker admirers, as the former major general came to defend himself against charges that he tried to sway votes of his troops in the 1960 elections, in violation of Army regulations.

Kennedy to Visit Brazil This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy accepted an invitation yesterday to visit Brazil some time this year, the White House announced after he concluded two days of talks with Brazilian President Joao Goulart.

Pierre Salinger, presidential press secretary who told newsmen of Goulart's invitation and Kennedy's acceptance, said he could be no more specific about the exact date of the U.S. chief executive's journey.

He added that Mrs. Kennedy planned to accompany the President on his trip.

INTERNATIONAL FILMS COMMITTEE

MR. HULOT'S HOLIDAY

FRANCE, 1952

directed by Jacques Tati

Jacques Tati, in the words of Georges Sadoul (French Film), "unites the best traditions of the pre-war comedies and . . . those of the Chaplin slapsticks." He has never been funnier than in the prize-winning, enormously popular international hit, MR. HULOT'S HOLIDAY. Set in a seaside resort, its series of intimate episodes, almost entirely visual in their humor, need no subtitles. Here is the broadest expression of well-meaning, bumbling and hilarious Tati.

"Tati's style echoes that of the great silent era clown, except that it has overtones of slashing Gallic wit rather than of pathos, in a charming and achingly funny movie." New York Herald Tribune.

AWARDS: Cannes Film Festival (International critics' prize); Edinburgh Film Festival, 1955.
