

Lion Stickmen Stun Penn, 8-7; Friend Shackles Phillies Hayes Leads Rally for 3rd Win With Five Hit Whitewash

Special to the Collegian Philadelphia, Pa., April 10—Honorable mention All-American midfielder Tom Hayes and his Penn State teammates that don't seem to know the meaning of the word quit, today stunned a previously unbeaten Penn team, 8-7, in a game that had all the earmarks of a fairy tale finish.

Hayes led a four goal last period charge by the Lions that pulled a seeming defeat from the fires and gave State its third straight win of the young season.

It was the Nittany stickmen's second come-from-behind victory in three games. Only last weekend the Lions beat Loyola, 8-7, after being down, 5-1. State also topped Washington & Lee, 10-3.

OF COURSE nearly all of the Lions had a part in the win but it was the junior star Hayes that really put the spark in the attack. Down, 6-4, going into the final period, the Lions fought back on an unassisted goal by Bill Charron at the one minute mark to pull within reaching distance of the surprised Quakers.

Seven minutes later junior attackman Dick Seelig took a pass at the crease and tied the score at 6-6 with a bounce shot into the Penn nets.

Then Hayes took over. Facing off in the center of the field after the score, he dug the ball out of the dirt, raced down the middle of the field and flipped a pass to Seelig. The tall Lion creaseman whirled around and bounced the shot into the goal.

But Penn wasn't through yet. After Hayes had again won the face-off, the Quakers started checking close and it paid off. Ed Curry picked off a stray Lion pass and along with teammate Tom Laughrey headed down the field toward the Lion goal. Curry passed to Laughrey about 20 feet from the cage and watched as Laughrey tied the score, 7-7.

THE TIE WAS SHORT lived though. Exactly 17 seconds later, Hayes had single handedly put the Lions into the lead—a lead that was to stand up through the final three and a half minutes of frantic and rugged play.

Facing off in the middle of the field, Hayes again came up with the ball. With five Penn players desperately trying to stop him, the Lion star charged straight up the field.

About 15 feet from the cage, he let go with a low bullet shot that whizzed by a nearly paralyzed Penn goalie.

The final minutes of play saw a tight State defense of Jim Stoup, Dick Swenson, Dave Finchbaugh and Andy Lockhart take charge.

BUT NONE were as important on the defense as was goalie Vinnie Tedesco. The Lion sophomore had 17 saves throughout the game and cleared shot after shot.

Previously the Quakers had beaten Lafayette, 21-1, Washington, 15-7, and New Hampshire, 18-3.

Lou Meier, Howie Spencer, Dave Ashley and Charron scored single goals for the Lions. Seelig and Hayes tallied twice.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bob Friend of Pittsburgh, with the help of a grand slam home run by Roberto Clemente and a solo homer by Don Hoak shut out Philadelphia 6-0 yesterday in the season's opener at Forbes Field.

Clemente, picking up where he left off last year in winning the National League batting title, connected with a pitch by starter Jim Owens in the third inning. Hoak followed with a sock over the left field wall. The grand slam was Clemente's fourth in the majors.

The Phillies, who blasted Cincinnati, 12-4, with a 15-hit attack Monday, got just five hits off Friend. Except for shaky first and fifth innings, the Pirate righthander was in complete charge.

Tony Taylor's double in the fifth was the lone extra base blow off Friend who struck out five and walked one.

NEW YORK (AP) — Moose Skowron and the M. & M. boys turned on the home run power for the world champion New York Yankees yesterday in a 7-6 opening day victory over Baltimore.

Roger Maris, the "new Babe Ruth" of 1961, had a three-run homer in the fifth and Mickey Mantle tied the score with a home run leading off the eighth. Skowron, whose two-run, inside-the-park homer in the fourth had opened the Yankee scoring, won the game for relief pitcher Ralph Terry with a run-producing single off Hoyt Wilhelm in the eighth.
