

Lion Baseballers Meet Army; Freshman Nine Hosts Behrend

By JOHN MORRIS
Sports Co-Editor

The Penn State baseball team, rained out of yesterday's scheduled contest with Rutgers, takes on Army at West Point this afternoon.

The Lions, eager to get back into action after Tuesday's 14-5 loss to Ithaca, fought a losing battle with the weatherman before moving on to West Point for their fourth game of the young season.

Southpaw Bob Fenton, scheduled to pitch against Rutgers, will probably be on the hill against the Cadets this afternoon. Fenton (1-0) will draw Tom Eccleston as a mound opponent.

ARMY (2-1) has eight returning veterans from its 12-7-1 squad of 1961, but the West Pointers are a little short of outfield talent.

Coach Eric Tipton can call on a strong infield of Gordon Dopsflaff, first base; John Schmidt, second; Mike Vopatek, third; and Bill Boice, shortstop.

Boice and Dopsflaff are two of the Cadets' most powerful hitters. Schmidt, a speedster, is a good man on the hit-and-run.

Lion mentor Joe Bedenk isn't making changes in the State lineup, but the veteran coach is contemplating a switch in the batting order that would put shortstop Johnny Phillips in the clean-up spot.

Phillips, the team's leading hitter with six hits and a .500 average in three games, will probably switch places with catcher Don Jonas. The move would put Jonas in the number eight slot.

The white-haired Lion coach will probably start Dick Pae, centerfield; Don Robinson, second base; Fred Light, third base; Phillips; Roger Kochmar, leftfield; Dick Anderson, rightfield; Pete Liske, first base; Jonas; and Fenton.

Tipton will probably go with

George Kirschenbauer, centerfield; Schmidt; Boice; Ed Haydash, leftfield; Dopsflaff; Bib Lilly, rightfield; Vopatek; Bob Michela, catcher and Eccleston.

Freshman baseball coach Bill Speith isn't afraid of falling objects or looking for enemy airplanes when he takes those furtive glances at the sky.

The frosh mentor is merely looking for the next group of big, grey clouds to roll over the freshman baseball team.

The Lion Cubs will open their season against Behrend Center on Beaver Field this afternoon at 2, if the weather permits, of course.

THE FRESHMEN have had only six days of practice outside since the start of spring training. Six days, according to Speith, is just not long enough to mold a team.

Speith wouldn't name his starting pitcher, but the rest of the lineup seems pretty well set.

The lineup: Fred Swope, first base; Dave Byrard, second; Dave Felak, shortstop; John Harvey, third base; Jim Kromer, leftfield; Paul Rhodes, centerfield; Joe Simoncelli, rightfield and John Gregory, catcher.

Pin's the Thing on IM Mats As 14 Matches End in Falls

By IRA MILLER

Fourteen pins featured the action last night as first-round competition was completed in all fraternity classes and four of the eight independent classes in the IM wrestling tourney in Rec Hall.

The seven remaining first-round independent bouts are scheduled for Monday. Second-round activity is also slated to begin Monday.

Only eight of the 23 bouts contested last night went the full six minutes. There were seven first period pins while six more matches were decided in the second period and one in the third.

Two approaches to the "man's deodorant" problem

If a man doesn't mind shaving under his arms, he will probably find a woman's roll-on satisfactory. Most men, however, find it simpler and surer to use Mennen Spray Deodorant. Mennen Spray was made to get through to the skin, where perspiration starts. And made to work all day. More men use Mennen Spray than any other deodorant. How about you? 64¢ and $1.00 plus tax
