

State Netmen in First Test Against Tough Pitt Squad

By KEN DENLINGER

Penn State tennis coach Sherm Fogg knows that his Lion net team has their work cut out for it when the Nittanyans face Pitt today on the Panthers' home courts.

"We're opening against possibly the best team we'll face all year," Fogg said. "In fact, this Pitt team is one of the best in the East."

The fact that the Lion netmen had a rather easy time in beating the Panthers, 6-0, last year makes one wonder why Fogg is so worried about his team's chances of winning today.

Closer examination of the situation, however, reveals the reason for Fogg's concern. Pitt faced the same problem last year that State faces today — sophomores dominated the starting lineup. These same Panthers, with a year's experience under their belts, will be out to avenge last year's humiliating defeat against State's crew of untried sophs today.

LION CAPTAIN Jim Baker will be going after his second win in a row over Joe Brown. Baker defeated Brown, 6-4, 6-2, in last year's encounter, but Fogg describes Brown as a "vastly improved player."

Senior Whit Gray, the Lions' number two man, hopes to continue the sharpness he attained during the latter part of last season.

Gray is an example of what constant practice and determination will do for a player. Cut from the squad when he was a freshman because his style seemed too awkward, he proceeded to cop the IM singles title two years in a row.

Coach Fogg decided to give him another try and liked what he saw. When the season ended, Gray had compiled the best record (6-4-1) on the team. Gray will probably face Dave O'Loughlin today.

The remainder of the State lineup will probably be composed of sophomores.

ALAN ISAACMAN should face either Roger Glaser or Peter Nycum in the number three spot. Csaba Balazs or senior Don Benner will handle the number four position with Steve Seitchik and George Coulter playing numbers five and six, respectively. Senior Nainuchit Chaturachinda (Chat), whose home is in Bangkok, Thailand, will be making his varsity debut today when he teams with Baker in doubles. Gray and Balazs, Isaacman and Seitchik compose the Lions' other doubles entrants.

Saturday the netmen return home for the start of a four-match homestand that will have them playing Army, Maryland, West Virginia, and Lehigh. The remainder of the schedule finds them facing Georgetown, Navy, Colgate, Syracuse, Bucknell and Cornell.

Celtics Top LA in Final

BOSTON (AP)—The incomparable Boston Celtics captured an unprecedented fourth consecutive National Basketball Association championship last night, vanquishing the Los Angeles Lakers, 110-107, on the herpicks of Sam Jones and Bill Russell in an overtime battle.

Boston led most of the way in the game played before a sellout crowd of 13,909 in Boston Garden.

But the Celtics had to beat down the tenacious Lakers in a five-minute overtime session after Frank Selvy brought Los Angeles back from the brink of defeat in the final 40 seconds or regulation play.

The Celtics were in trouble late in the game when personal fouls sent Tom Sanders, Jim Loscutoff and Tom Heinsohn to the bench. With 74 seconds remaining, Boston was leading 100-96.

Selvy made it 100-98 with 40 seconds and tied the count 20 seconds later. Selvy barely missed on what would have been the winner with three seconds to go.

But the world champion Celtics made it look easy in the overtime period. Sam Jones scored five of Boston's 10 points in the extra period and Russell added four, Bob Cousy getting the other point.

Grid Schedule Gets Tougher

Penn State's football schedules get tougher and tougher.

Miami and Boston University, opponents in 1961, have been replaced by Rice and Air Force Academy next fall.

In 1963, the Nittany Lions will add UCLA, Oregon, and Ohio State, dropping Navy, Air Force, and California. The other '63 opponents will be Rice, Army, Syracuse, West Virginia, Maryland, Holy Cross, and Pitt.

Navy returns in 1964 — as the opening game opponent — replacing Rice. Otherwise, the '64 lineup will be the same as in 1963.

Ohio State is off the schedule in 1965, but this doesn't mean coach Rip Engle can breathe easy. The Buckeyes will be replaced by Michigan State.

The Lions will play a total of 21 inter-sectional games in the next four seasons.

Reed Pins Sieminski In IM Wrestling Action

By FRANK QUIGLEY

Fine grappling was the byword as another group of hopefuls moved one step closer to the final round of the IM wrestling tournament last night on the mats at Rec Hall.

In the 167-pound class, footballer Junior Powell of Delta Upsilon and Ray Connell of Sigma Chi established themselves as top contenders for the 167-pound crown by scoring convincing wins over their opponents. Connell advanced by pinning John First of Phi Gamma Delta and Powell decisively Mal Borthwick of Alpha Tau Omega, 6-4.

In one of the more surprising matches of the evening Bill Reed of Triangle had little trouble with his much heavier opponent, footballer Chuck Sieminski. Reed needed only 56 seconds to record the pin. Reed weighed in at 190 while Sieminski tipped the scales at 260.

HUGH PAXTON of Delta Upsilon, last year's independent champion at 128, displayed good form in flattening Max Legally of Alpha Chi Rho at the 1:30 mark of their match.

Art Maurer of Delta Theta Sigma established himself as a strong contender for the 150-pound title with a convincing 8-0 win over Frank Cole of Alpha Chi Sigma. Maurer used two takedowns, a reversal and a near fall to account for his scoring.

The highest scoring matches of the night were in the 135-pound class where Vince DiLoreto of Kappa Sigma defeated Phi Delta Theta's Dick Kelly, 11-3, and Duane Norman of Alpha Zeta crushed Tau Phi Delta's Ray Plotts, 12-6.
