

Cadets Deal Lion Netters Convincing 9-0 Whitewash

By KEN DENLINGER

The Cadets of West Point are reputed to be gentlemen of the highest order; however they handed the Nittany Lion tennis team a most ungentlemanly drubbing Saturday to the tune of 9-0.

Led by sophomores Rich Oehrlein and John Leyerzaph, the Black Knight net team swept by all six State opponents in singles, and bested the three Lion doubles teams in convincing fashion.

Oehrlein, one of the most talkative players in eastern tennis circles, beat Lion captain Jim Baker, 6-3, 6-2. He'll talk to himself, his opponent and even the ball if he thinks that will help.

"HE COMES TO WIN." Army coach Leif Nordlie said, "If I had more men with his desire, our team could really go places."

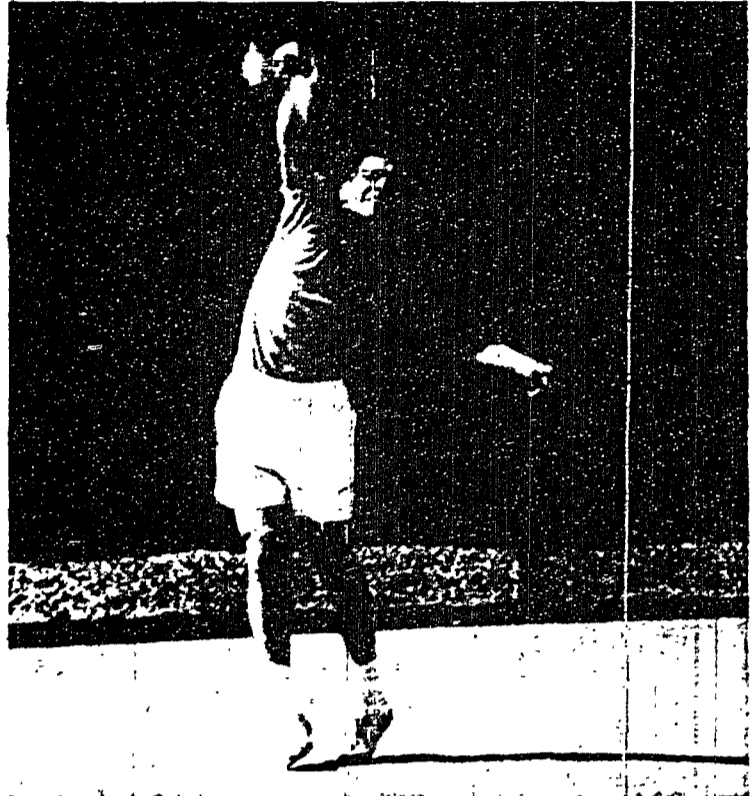

Nordlie was also pleased with the performance of Leyerzaph, who defeated Whit Gray, 6-1, 9-7, in the number two spot.

With the fine play of newcomers Oehrlein and Leyerzaph, Army's only returning letterman, Di Voss and Captain Jim Peterson, played in the number three and four positions.

Voss had a bit of trouble with Alan Isaacman in number three but managed to ease by the Lion sophomore by a 7-5, 6-4 count. Peterson took the measure of another State soph, Csaba Balazs, by a 6-2, 6-1 count.

"WERE IT NOT for Oehrlein and Leyerzaph, Voss and Peterson would be one and two," Nordlie said. "In fact, they'd probably be in the top spot on most other teams."

Matches five and six proved just as grim for State as Mike Cunningham and Dan Hornbarger

LION TENNIS CAPTAIN Jim Baker serves against "talkative" Army opponent Rich Oehrlein. Oehrlein defeated Baker in the opening singles match, 6-3, 6-3 to lead the Cadets to a 9-0 whitewash of the State netters.

bested Steve Seitchik and John Coldren by 6-2, 6-2 and 6-2, 6-3 respectively.

Doubles proved to be State's nemesis against Pitt last Thursday, and in an effort to hit a winning combination coach Sherm Fogg made some switches in the starting array.

His efforts proved fruitless as Oehrlein and Leyerzaph defeated Isaacman and Chaturachinda by 6-0, 6-1 and Mike Horstman and Joe Lake beat Gray and Don Benner 6-2, 7-9, 6-2.

Perhaps one particular play characterized Saturday's defeat. Baker, while attempting a service, had the ball hit the top part of the racket and fly 20 feet over an adjoining fence. Nothing seemed to go right for State all day.

Linksmen Beat Penn; Host Villanova Today

By JOE GRATA

The Easter Bunny came a day early for the Penn State golf team. But instead of leaving the usual jelly beans, colored eggs, and morsels of chocolate, he left a few dozen golf balls and a 6-1 victory over Penn.

Saturday's win over the Quakers was the third straight for coach Joe Boyle's linksmen, who had no trouble finding the range on an ideal day for golf. The Lion golfers will be tested again this afternoon at 1:30 when they entertain Villanova.

Captain Bob Swahn and sophomore Jim Tabor paved the way in the win over Penn. Swahn won his match, 5 and 3, while teammate Tabor downed Vince Coviello, 2 and 1. Their wins gave Swahn and Tabor identical records of 3-0, the only perfect marks on the Lion squad.

PROBABLY THE best performance of the day was recorded by State's Dave Liebau when he defeated Melvin Boren, 6 and 4. Liebau, a sophomore, gained the starting berth by defeating letterman Dick Gilson in an intrasquad "challenge match" last week.

Joe Baidy and Paul Hummer also looked sharp for the Lions. They won by scores of 4-3 and 4-2, respectively. The other winner for the Lions was Bill Robinson who edged Art Wolfe, 1-up, by tapping in a long putt on the 18th hole.

Harlow Prindle of Penn was the only golfer to turn in a victory for the Quakers, now 5-4 on the season. Prindle decided Roland Gartner when the latter blew a six-inch putt on the last hole.

VILLANOVA CAPTAIN Joe Bijder heads a veteran lineup of five seniors into today's match. The Wildcats, who routed the Lions by a 5-2 score last year, now have a 3-2 record.

Boyle will probably go with the same lineup this afternoon.

Koontz Forfeits; Ten Pinned In Quarter-Final Mat Action

By ED CARPENTER

The quarter-final round of intramural wrestling ended last night at Rec Hall, but not before a former champion lost by a forfeit and ten pins were recorded.

Dick Koontz, last year's 150-pound champion who was headed for the 158-pound title this year, weighed in at 158½, a half-pound over the required weight. As a result, the Phi Kappa Psi grappler had to forfeit.

Of the ten falls, two were recorded by last year's champs. They were Tom Pugh, wrestling at 142 for Cedar, who defeated Cliff Cloman of Balsam; and Peter Erber, grappling for Sigma Chi in the 150-pound class, who pinned George Gay of Delta Phi.

WHO'S GOING TO BE THE COUNTRY'S COLLEGE QUEEN FOR '62?
Berkshire Knitting Mills is again sponsoring the NATIONAL COLLEGE QUEEN CONTEST, designed to select and honor the nation's ideal American college girl.
12 finalists representing 12 areas of the United States will be awarded event-filled, all-expense paid trips to New York City, where they will be royally entertained and will participate in the Grand Finals Pageant to select the NATIONAL COLLEGE QUEEN.
The winner of the contest will receive $5,000.00 worth of exciting prizes including a trip to Europe, a ten years supply of Berkshire stockings, and a foreign sportscar. Coast-to-coast television coverage is planned for the coronation, which is the culmination of several full days of gracious living, with personal appearances, competitive Forums, special events, guided tours, and a gala ball.
(Throughout all events, finalists will wear appropriate, fashionable Berkshire hosiery.) The Pageant itself is a feature highlight of the "New York Is A Summer Festival" celebration.
Judging for the contest will be based 50% on scholastic aptitude and 50% on personal attractiveness. Anyone may enter who is a student at an accredited college and is between the ages of 17 and 22.
Application blanks are available at DANKS & Co., where Berkshire stockings are sold, exclusive in State College.
