

Lions Host Terps In Big LaX Match

By DEAN BILLYCK
Sports Co-Editor

Penn State lacrosse coach Dick Pencek hasn't been sleeping too well the past few nights and it's no wonder. This afternoon at 3:30 on Beaver Field Pencek's unbeaten stickmen will be attempting to accomplish something that no other State team has ever done.

And the task won't be easy. The Lions will be shooting for their fifth victory since the outset of the season against powerful Maryland, a team that State has beaten only twice in 24 tries. No Lion team has ever won its first five games and Pencek's crew would like nothing better than to be the first.

THE CLOSEST the Lions have come to beating the Terps in the last five games was 15 goals. The last time the teams met, which was in 1960, Maryland ran away from State, 17-2.

"If we play one heck of a great game, we could come out on top," Pencek said last night as he put the Lions through their final paces before the clash. "It will take a great game though. If we don't play heads-up ball for 60 minutes we'll be in bad trouble."

Lion players are taking the role of the cautious optimist. Co-captain Lou Meier said he felt the Lions could win because "We'll out hustle them." And State's other co-captain, Andy Lockhart, voiced a similar opinion. "I think we can beat them, but it will take a big effort on everyone's part. It's a real challenge."

The Lions' top scorer, Tom Hayes, was a little more cautious. "I've played against most of the Maryland players and I know they're good," he said. "We'll have to play better than great to beat them. But it can be done."

THE TERPS have a 3-1 record this season and are rated one of the best teams in the country. Pencek rates Maryland the toughest team on State's schedule.

The southern stickmen beat Washington & Lee, 10-3, Penn, Princeton, 17-8, Harvard, 13-10, 8-7, and Lafayette, 20-10. Dick and New Hampshire, 18-3. The Seelig, Howie Spencer and John loss was to rugged Virginia, 8-5. Meisel will be in the attack. All-American midfielder Buddy Hayes, Meier and Bill Charron at Beardmore and attackman Bob Lemkin and Ray Altman lead the Flinchbaugh and Jim Stoup at Terps. Lemkin is an honorable defense. Vinnie Tedesco is the mention All-American.

Last year the Terps were 7-3 to play better than great to beat Army, Navy and Virginia. The four clubs tied for the national championship, but Army was awarded the title on a point system.

PENCEK WILL use the same lineup that beat Loyola, 8-7, Washington & Lee, 10-3, Penn, Princeton, 17-8, Harvard, 13-10, 8-7, and Lafayette, 20-10. Dick and New Hampshire, 18-3. All-American midfielder Buddy Hayes, Meier and Bill Charron at Beardmore and attackman Bob Lemkin and Ray Altman lead the Flinchbaugh and Jim Stoup at Terps. Lemkin is an honorable defense. # Netmen Seek Second; Face Terps Today

By KEN DENLINGER

The Penn State tennis team will try to bounce back from the disastrous 9-0 defeat dealt them by Army last Saturday when they play host to the Maryland net squad this afternoon on the varsity courts in back of the skating rink. Starting time is 2:30.

Last year the Terps defeated State by a 7-1 score. Four of the first six players on Maryland's starting team of a year ago will probably see action today.

John Nogrady will go against captain Jim Baker in the number one position. Nogrady defeated the Lion senior last year by a 6-2, 6-4 count.

THE NUMBER TWO spot could pit Whit Gray, the only State player to win a match in last year's encounter, against Bob Myers. He beat Myers a year ago, 10-8, 4-6, 6-2.

Positions three, four and five for State will be manned by sophomores. Alan Isaacman will face Paul Capazello in number three, Csaba Balazs may go against Chuck Shapiro in number four and Steve Seitchik will handle the number five position.

In coach Fogg's only lineup change, senior Bruce Derman will replace John Coldren in the number six spot.

State has had problems in the doubles matches thus far this season. They've been able to win only one match all year; that being Gray and Balazs' defeat of Pitt's Ralph Mason and Pete Nucum in the season opener.

Fogg could change his mind at the last moment, but will probably go with Baker and Seitchik in number one, Isaacman and Nainuchit Chaturachinda in number two and Gray and Don Benner, number three.

Koufax Fans 18 To Tie Record

CHICAGO (AP) — Sandy Koufax struck out 18 batters to tie the modern major league record he shares with Bob Feller, in hurling the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 10-2 triumph over the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

Cleveland's Feller struck out 18 in a losing day game against Detroit Oct. 2, 1938, and Koufax did the same against San Francisco in a night game Aug. 31, 1959.

Koufax, scattering six hits including a leadoff homer in the ninth by Billy Williams, struck out 12 Cubs in the first five innings.

HE STRUCK out the side in three innings, the first, third and ninth.

The Dodgers accounted for six runs on homers. Tommy Davis slammed a three-run homer in the fifth, Duke Snider smashed a two-run homer in the ninth and Andy Carey had a solo blast in the fourth.

Davis, who also singled across a run in the second, swelled his season RBI total to 20, tops in the National League.

It was Koufax' third triumph in four decisions. The loser was Don Cardwell, who lasted only five innings in suffering his fourth setback without victory.
