

Spring Drills End Today With Blue-White Game

By JOHN MORRIS
Sports Co-Editor

Today is the day that Penn State football fans get a chance to see just how effective coach Rip Engle has been in finding a quarterback to replace Galen Hall.

The Lions' spring football drills end this afternoon with the annual Blue-White game in Beaver Stadium at 2. There will be an admission charge.

Engle and the Lion coaching staff have had 20 days to find a replacement for Hall, plus someone to fill in for centers Bill Saul and Jay Huffman, ends Jim Schwab and Bob Mitinger and halfback Don Jonas.

LITTLE DON CAUM has had a great spring practice at the quarterback slot and is scheduled to start in the Blue (starting) backfield. Caum saw a minimum of action as a sophomore last year, but showed flashes of outstanding skill when he did play.

Holdover Ron Coates will alternate at the signal-calling spot in the Blue backfield today. The rest of the unit will be made up of halfbacks Frank Sincek and Frank Hershey, and fullback Chris Weber.

Another outstanding quarterback candidate and three of Engle's top halfbacks have passed up the spring drills to compete in spring sports.

Quarterback Pete Liske is a first baseman on the State baseball team, while star left halfback Roger Kochman and Al Gursky are playing outfield for the Lions. The other halfback, Hal "Junior" Powell, is a member of the Nittany Lion track squad.

In addition, Engle has excused Dave Hayes and Buddy Torris, his top two fullbacks, from the spring drills to avoid injury.

HAYES WAS the Lions' starting fullback for the first half of the campaign last season, but Torris filled in more than adequately when Hayes was injured in the Maryland game. As a matter of fact, he filled in so well that Hayes couldn't get his job back when he came off the injured list.

Despite the fact that many of the Lions' best backfield stars will be missing, this afternoon's game promises to be an exciting one. The absence of the established stars has given the younger players a chance to shine.

Among the players who have impressed Engle with their spring work are Weber, moved from halfback to fullback; halfback Bud Yost, and quarterbacks Gary Wydman and Frank Potter.

Engle has switched captain-elect Joe Galardi from left guard to center in a move designed to compensate for the loss of Huffman and Saul, the Lions' regular centers for the last three seasons.

THE LIONS have ends Dave Robinson and Dick Anderson moving up from the Reddie (second) unit to replace Schwab and Mitinger, but the Nittany coaching staff has been concentrating on finding depth at the terminal spots in the spring drills.

Jonas was a consistent place-kicker for the Nittanies last season, continuing his fine foot work in spite of a shoulder injury suffered in the Syracuse game. He may be a hard man to replace.

One of the highlights of today's game will be the presentation of the Red Worrell Award to the player who has shown the most improvement in the spring drills. Galardi won the award last spring.

Lion Relay Chances Killed by Leps' Run

Special to The Collegian

PHILADELPHIA, April 27 — Today, for the second time in a week, a Michigan relay team in general and the Wolverines' star distance runner Ergas Leps in particular, pulled a win away from the Penn State thinclads.

Leps passed the Lions' Steve Moorhead in the last 50 yards of the Four-Mile Relay Championship of America to gain the third straight title for his team in the first day of action here at the Penn Relays.

Michigan tripped up State last Saturday in the distance medley race at the Ohio Relays. Leps made up 35 yards on his anchor mile leg to hit the tape in front of the Lions' Gerry Norman.

Michigan's time for the 16 laps today was 17:12.5, just 1.2 seconds off the meet record. State was second in 17:14. Georgetown, Villanova and Princeton followed the Lions to the tape.

Norman led off the race for State with a 4:18 mile.

Mike Miller, recovering from a pulled leg muscle, ran a 4:21.6 in the second position. Howie Deardorff turned in the fastest time, 4:14, on the third leg, and held a 10-yard lead when he passed the baton to anchorman Moorhead.

THE LION CAPTAIN led Leps until the last 50 yards where the Michigan star turned on his finishing kick. Moorhead turned in a 4:19 clocking for the final leg. State dropped out of the distance medley which was won by Villanova in 10:04.7. The Mainliners also qualified for the 440 and 880 relay finals tomorrow.

Bob Grantham was the only State thinclad to pace in the individual events, taking third in the broad jump with 23' 8 1/2". Grantham failed to qualify in the 120-yard high hurdles with a 14:9 clocking.

Tony Wayne and Steve Popp finished fourth in their respective heats of the 100-yard dash. Both had times of 10 seconds, but failed to qualify for the finals.

THE MEET GETS into the running and the bulk of the field events tomorrow, with only the two-mile relay and 3000-meter steeplechase remaining on State's program. Norman, Tom Mettrick, Miller and Deardorff will probably run the relay, with Moorhead slated to run in the steeplechase.

Shot put, javelin and pole vault trials get underway at 10 a.m. with finals in the afternoon.

Pole vaulters Ron Beard and Ciro Risoldi appear to have the best chances of qualifying for the final round.

Grantham and Jerry Wettstone will be in the hop, step and jump and high jump finals scheduled for tomorrow.

Cowboys, Giants, Vikings Complete 3-Way Trade

DALLAS (AP) — A three-way National Football League trade was completed yesterday.

The Dallas Cowboys some weeks ago obtained Dick Nolan, a defensive back, from the New York Giants for use as a coach and possibly as a player.

The Cowboys sent Allen Green, an extra point specialist, to the Green Bay Packers. The Packers completed the triangular swap by giving the Giants a future draft choice.
