

Weather Forecast:
Cooler,
Showers

The Daily Collegian

A Thorough
NSA Study
—see page 4

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 62, No. 121

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1962

FIVE CENTS

MISS PENN STATE OF 1962, Linda Krumboldt, was crowned by Mrs. Eric A. Walker last night at Awards Night in Recreation Hall. On the left is Allison Woodall, one of the finalists for the contest. Miss Krumboldt was sponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta. She was chosen after being interviewed on stage by Laurence H. Lattman, master of ceremonies for Awards Night.

Theta, Phi Gam Receive Top Spring Week Award

By JOAN HARTMAN

Screams of joy filled Recreation Hall last night as the "natives from the Fiji Islands," Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta, won the overall Spring Week trophy.

They had previously won first place trophies in the Ambassador tour division of the carnival and in the poster contest.

TEARS OF HAPPINESS streamed down the face of Linda Krumboldt as she was crowned Miss Penn State of 1962 by Mrs. Eric A. Walker. Miss Krumboldt was sponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta.

Also winning first place trophies for the carnival were Alpha Omicron Pi and Delta Chi in the Bel Air tour division and Phi Mu and Kappa Delta Rho in the Continental tour division.

Second place carnival trophies went to Delta Gamma and Phi Kappa Psi, Alpha Epsilon Phi and Pi Kappa Phi, and Delta Zeta and Acacia.

PI BETA PHI and Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Delta Tau and Phi Epsilon Pi, and Chi Omega and Beta Theta Pi received third place trophies.

Rosalyn Ewan, sponsored by Simmons and Kappa Sigma, and Eugene Rinkus, sponsored by Phi Mu and Kappa Delta Rho, were named Queen of Hearts and He-Man respectively.

The combined Olympic trophy for first place went to Miss Ewan and her Spring Week partner, David Maize. The second place trophy was presented to Rinkus and his partner, Jenaud Schwartz. Marilyn Sauer and Daniel Ko-lody, sponsored by Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, placed third, and Jane Hoffman and William Coulouris, sponsored by Delta Gamma and Phi Kappa Psi, were the fourth place winners.

THEA GERBER and Robert Cole, sponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta, and Carol Mowers and Charles Hilbish, sponsored by Atherton and

(Continued on page eight)

Cool, Cloudy Weather Interrupts Heat Wave

The heat and humidity that occupied the northwestern states for 10 consecutive days was replaced by cooler air yesterday.

Showers caused lower temperatures last night, and showers or occasional rain may persist this morning.

Today should be mostly cloudy and cooler with a high of 64.

Partly cloudy skies and chilly weather is expected tonight. The low reading will be near 47 degrees.

Tomorrow and Friday should be sunny and pleasantly warm.

Reds Free 2 Soldiers

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two young U.S. Army sergeants were released by Communist guerrillas after 22 days of captivity yesterday. They said they were kept bound the entire time but that their captors fed them rice and showed no brutality.

The men, Francis Quinn of Niagara Falls, N.Y., and George E. Groom of St. Joseph, Mo., looked tired but otherwise healthy and unharmed when they stepped from the plane that brought them to Saigon.

They told debriefing officers they had been held throughout their captivity on a mountain top near where they were caught April 8. They denied rumors that they had been led through villages and exhibited for propaganda purposes.

QUINN AND GROOM were released less than five miles from the spot near the coastal town of Da Nang where they were ambushed with two other American soldiers and 31 Vietnamese trainees.

The other Americans, Sgt. Wayne E. Marchand of Plattsburgh, Neb., and Sgt. James Gabriel of Honolulu, did not survive. They were wounded, and their bodies were later found less than two miles from the scene of the fight.

Both Quinn and Groom were shielded from newsmen, but in relating their ordeal to debriefing officers they told of carrying their wounded comrades for over a mile until the Viet Cong guerrillas ordered them to put them down. Quinn and Groom said they did not witness the final moments of the injured men.

The two men said their captors fed them rice several times a day. Doctors pronounced the two in good condition and said they would be ready for duty after a few days rest.

THE SERGEANTS said the Communists gave no reason for freeing them, causing speculation it may have been done as a May Day gesture.

They said that after their release it took two and a half hours to make their way down the mountain top on which they had been held. They were guided by a mountaineer working for the Viet Cong.

They reached a group of villagers who led them to a local civil guard post, and from there they were evacuated by helicopter to Da Nang, near where the ambush had occurred, and flown to Saigon.

QUINN AND Groom were clean shaven when they arrived and wearing the camouflage uniforms and berets of the Army special forces to which they belong.

A team of officers, physicians and a U.S. Army chaplain were on hand to receive them at Saigon's airport.

Intelligence officers declined to say whether the Communists had tried to indoctrinate the two politically or to disclose whether the men may have undergone interrogation.

The two are expected to be present at a news conference today.

Fisher to Head WDFM Staff

The 1962-1963 executive committee of the student-operated radio station WDFM was named yesterday by Dr. Harold D. Nelson, general station manager.

Robert Fisher, junior in elementary and kindergarten education from Pottsville, was named station manager, and Paula Peter-son, junior in journalism from Alexandria, was named program director.

THE NEW business manager will be Jean Kochel, sophomore in secondary education from Pottsville, and Thompson Terry, freshman in chemistry and physics from Philadelphia, will serve as chief engineer.

The appointments will go into effect May 7. The remainder of the staff appointments will be made tomorrow afternoon when the new and old executive committees meet with Nelson.

Fisher will be responsible for the overall operation of the station. He said that he intends "to increase news coverage by establishing more contacts with other campus organizations."

He added that the increased news coverage will be of particular interest to the students since it is expected that this programming will be on the AM part of their broadcasting.

WDFM BROADCASTS on the AM cycle with State College radio station WMAJ from 8 to 10 p.m. during the week.

Senate Adds 3 Faculty Members To Committee on Student Affairs

By MEL AXILBUND

Reorganization of the Senate Committee on Student Affairs was approved yesterday as the University Senate dropped three ex officio members from the committee and added three faculty members to replace them.

Dr. Donald V. Josephson, chairman of the Committee on Committees, proposed the change in the student affairs group.

HE SAID his committee had looked into the composition of the student affairs committee and its functions in deciding on the change. Another consideration of the committee, he said, was a desire to reduce the workload of the student affairs group chairman.

To accomplish this aim, the Senate also approved a proposal to name the chairman of the Subcommittee on Discipline from among the voting members of the student affairs committee. The chairman of the student affairs group presently also serves as subcommittee chairman.

Three changes in the Senate rules were proposed to make the Committee on Student Affairs responsible in chartering student organizations less administrative. Two of the proposals were adopted and the third was referred to the Rules Committee for rewording.

The proposals which were approved deleted the first paragraph of rule Y-11 and restated rule W-13, making student groups responsible for general conduct at their functions. The deleted paragraph gives the student affairs committee authority over the organization of student groups.

THE THIRD proposal limited use of University facilities to groups that have been recognized by the University. The proposal was sent to committee when Dr. William J. Schrader, associate professor of accounting, pointed out that guidelines for the administration to follow in recognizing student groups were not specified.

The Senate also approved a motion to speed the notification of students that their grades are deficient at midterm.

USG Installs Officers Tonight

By WINNIE BOYLE

Following their installation tonight, the new Undergraduate Student Government officers will present to Congress two proposals based on their campaign platform planks.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in 109 Boucke.

DEAN WHARTON, USG president-elect, will present a resolution which would establish an elections code committee, consisting of the Elections Commission chairman, the political party chairman and a representative from The Daily Collegian.

In a report to the Congress during the recent elections, Allen Feingold, Elections Commission chairman, recommended the establishment of an elections code which would serve as a guide to running the elections.

Wharton's resolution states:

"Now is the time to write such a document so that it can be free of any external political influences such as might exist before elections."

The second University party plank which will be presented calls for the establishment of a student opinion bureau to aid Congressmen in gathering opinions of students.

Morris Baker, vice president-elect, will present this resolution which defines the reasons for such an agency:

●The existence of a definite lack of communications between the USG and the student body.

●The need for true student opinion before the University administration will consider USG proposals.

●The impossibility for a Congressman to be in contact with all of his constituents.

The new officers have also said that they will propose a Campus-Liberal campaign plank. The bill, which will be presented by Murray Winderman, West, and Ann Tyson, West, calls for USG approval of affiliation with the United States National Student Association.

The organization is described in the resolution as a confederation of college student governing bodies associated to give consideration to questions of mutual interest.

WINDERMAN SAID yesterday that after a few minutes of discussion on the issue, someone will postpone the motion until next week so that the Congressmen can study NSA's constitution and prepare questions. He said he hopes the bill "will become a real controversy and from that an intelligent decision will be reached."