

Baseballers Host Tough Navy In Important District 2 Battle

By JOHN MORRIS
Sports Co-Editor

The Penn State baseball team begins an important five-game homestand this afternoon, hosting Navy on Beaver Field at 2.

The Lions (6-1) are in the thick of the fight for the National Collegiate Athletic Association's District 2 playoffs and these five home games in a ten-day span should go a long way toward determining how well the Lions will do from here on out.

Lion coach Joe Bedenk has nominated right hander Dave Bergey as his starting pitcher this afternoon. It will be Bergey's first starting assignment of the year, and it figures to be an important one for both Bergey and the Lions.

STATE HAS relied almost completely on the talents of left hander Bob Fenton (5-0), but the Lions will have to develop at least one more competent hurler for the heavy schedule ahead.

Fenton was originally slated to pitch this afternoon, but the Nittany coaching staff decided to save the Lion ace for Tuesday's game against Colgate.

"If we pitch Fenton against Navy," pitching coach Chuck Medlar explained yesterday, "he would only be able to pitch one game next week. This way he will be able to pitch against Colgate and come back in the first game of the double-header with Syracuse next Saturday."

The Nittanics have had games with district contenders Lafayette, Rutgers and Villanova rained out, and a win this afternoon would be a big boost to their chances.

BUT BEATING NAVY is never an easy job and this year should be no exception. The Middies, 10-2 going into yesterday's game with Yale, have one of the top teams in the East.

The Midshipmen hold wins over Lafayette, Rider, Syracuse, Southern Connecticut, American, Maryland, Baltimore, Brown, Dartmouth and Gettysburg. They lost to Villanova, 11-10, and Harvard, 10-3.

The Lions have beaten Gettysburg, Army, Lehigh, Penn, Bucknell and Maryland. Their only loss came at the hands of unbeaten Ithaca, 14-5, last month.

Bergey, a starter the last two years, has pitched only two innings of relief so far this season. The hard-throwing senior was scheduled to pitch in Wednesday's rained-out game at Lafayette.

Navy sophomore Tim Myers will be Bergey's mound opponent this afternoon. He has an 0-0 record on the year.

LION COACH Joe Bedenk will probably start the same lineup that has State riding atop a four-game win streak. The Nittanics have shown definite signs of batting power. Roger Kochman and Dick Anderson have both been hitting the ball with authority in recent appearances.

Second baseman Don Robinson and shortstop John Phillips have been two of the most consistent Lions in reaching base this year.

Navy coach Joe Duff relies on shortstop Chuck Galloway, right fielder Ray Snyder and catcher Harry Cybul to do the bulk of the hitting for the Middies.

Snyder, Cybul and pinch-hitter John Roney are the only Midshipmen who have hit home runs so far this year. Cybul leads the team in RBI with eight.

The Middies boast one of the top fielding shortstops in the East in Galloway. Galloway, Cybul, third baseman Ron Reihel, second baseman Ron Terwilliger and center fielder Bob Foyle were all in the Navy lineup that nipped the Lions, 4-3, last year.

The probable lineups:

Penn State	Navy
Foe, cf	Reihel, 3b
Robinson, 2b	Foyle, lf
Light, 3b	Galloway, ss
Phillips, ss	Snyder, rf
Anderson, rf	Cybul, c

Giants Rip Cubs, 11-6; Twins Win

CHICAGO (AP) — The not-so-sleepy San Francisco Giants, paced by Orlando Cepeda's five RBI on a homer, double and single, slugged out their 10th straight triumph, 11-6, over the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

The first-place Giants, who got to bed about 5 a.m., Chicago time after plane trouble en route, chased a rival starting pitcher for the 24th time in as many games in providing lefty Billy Pierce with his fourth victory without defeat.

However, Pierce was relieved in the seventh by another former Chicago White Sox hurler, Don Larsen, in the Giants' first 1962 Chicago appearance. This broke a skein of seven successive complete games by a Giant pitcher.

Cepeda opened the Giants' second with his eighth homer of the season, matching teammate Willie Mays for the league lead. Cepeda's five RBI also sent him into the league lead with 22.

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Rookie third baseman Rich Rollins slammed a two-run homer with two out in the last of the ninth to give the Minnesota Twins a 4-2 victory over Detroit yesterday.

Rollins hit relief pitcher Ronnie Kline's fast ball and drove it 380 feet into the bleachers in left-center field to score Lennie Green ahead of him. Green had reached base on a fielder's choice.

The triumph was the Twins' fifth in their last six games and 10th in 14 contests.

Tiger right-hander Phil Regan was coasting along with a four-hitter when the Twins erupted for two runs in the seventh after shortstop Dick McAuliffe had erred to let Earl Battey reach first.

Bernie Allen's double to right, pinch hitter Vic Power's looping single and Green's double to left-center scored two runs and chased Regan. Kline came on to retire the side.

Lions Try for 6th Win Against Middie Linksmen

By JOE GRATA

That old adage "Home Sweet Home" may be just the remedy the Penn State golfers need to beat a powerful Navy team when they entertain the Middies at 1:30 this afternoon on the University course.

The Lion linksmen nipped Georgetown, 4-3, in their opener at Washington, then ran their streak of victories to five when they beat Colgate, Penn, Villanova, and Syracuse—all at home. But earlier this week the Lions played West Virginia at Morgantown and fell to defeat, 5-4.

The Lakeview Country Club course was new to all of the Lions and the narrow fairways proved to be most disastrous.

"IT WAS A hot day and the Mountaineers got off to a quick start," said State coach Joe Boyle. "We came back strong on the back nine, but we couldn't quite pull out the victory."

In the final foursome, West Virginia opponents shot par fives on the 615-yard 18th hole to down Lions Paul Hummer and Dave Liebau by identical scores of 1-up. Hummer and Liebau shot bogey sixes and lost in the "best ball" match.

Boyle hopes that things will be different today, however. The advantage of meeting the Navy on the home course may have a definite bearing on the outcome of the match.

Sophomore Joe Baidy replaces letterman Dick Gilison in the regular lineup. Baidy has an individual record of 3-1 for the season.

CAPTAIN BOB SWAHN and Jim Tabor will lead the rest of the lineup. Both sport undefeated marks of six wins against no losses. Bill Robinson (4-2), Roland Gartner (3-3), Liebau (2-2), and Hummer (4-2) will also compete for State.

Navy's linksmen rank as one of the top teams in the East this year. In preliminary outlooks, "guessperts" have predicted them as having a strong chance of ousting defending Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association champion Princeton.

"Season records don't mean that much in golf team play," Boyle said yesterday. "We'll be going all out to do well in the eastern. If we can get four men into good shape, we should do pretty well."

Harvard and Maryland should also prove to be tough contenders. Last year, the Lion linksmen finished ninth in the event.

Warrior Move Refused, Gottlieb Withdraws Plan

NEW YORK (AP) — Owner Eddie Gottlieb failed to get permission from the National Basketball Association yesterday to sell the Philadelphia Warriors to a group that planned to move the team to San Francisco. Gottlieb then withdrew the plan.

The NBA debated the sale and transfer of the club, including superstar Wilt Chamberlain, for two days behind closed doors, before Gottlieb finally gave up.

A league statement said the sale fell through because of "the practical difficulties of such a move at this time."

MIDSHIPMAN COACH Bob Williams rates his 1962 team optimistically.

Last fall, Navy was low in the qualifying round for the ECAC tournament held here. The Middies went to the finals at Farmingdale, N.Y., and finished as runners-up to Syracuse by a single stroke. The Lions finished second in the sectionals, losing to the Midshipmen by three strokes.

Last year, Navy defeated State by a 5-2 margin.
