

LaXers Visit Unbeaten Orange; Swensen to Start at Defense

By DEAN BILLUCK
Sports Co-Editor

Penn State's lacrosse team plays its last away game of the season today at Syracuse and the Lions will likely find the Orange rather poor hosts. Coach Dick Pencsek's 5-1 stickmen are gunning for the best State record ever, but unbeaten Syracuse poses a big hurdle. The Orange have beaten Oberlin, Ohio Wesleyan, Clarkson, Yale, Colgate and Hobart in addition to winning two exhibition games. "We know we're in for a rugged game," Pencsek said before leaving for Syracuse. "We'll have to play like we did against Rutgers—minus the third quarter — if we expect to win."

CAPTAIN DICK FINLEY leads the Orange offensive attack. The Syracuse senior was the team's leading scorer last year and is a contender for All-America honors this season. Former football full-back Gary Fallon and sophomore Ray Streit are Finley's running mates at the midfield spot.

Veteran Pete DeLeeuw, heads the attack along with junior Steve Cook and sophomore Doug Wasmer.

The defense is the Orange strong-point, however.

"They have an excellent defense and our boys will have to be sharp if they expect to score many goals," Pencsek said earlier this week. "They have those big football players and our attack and midfield must be about the smallest in the country."

DICK SWENSEN
... to start at defense

FOOTBALLERS Bob Ramsdell and Jack Salerno anchor the defense along with senior Jim Stathes. Veteran goalie Pete Coe gives the Orange better than average protection in the nets. The game is scheduled for 10 a.m. because of a Varsity-Alumni football game that will be played in the afternoon. According to Pencsek, some of the lacrosse players will be used in the football game, so the lacrosse game was rescheduled for morning.

Pencsek is making one change in the starting lineup that toppled Rutgers last week, 18-13. Defense-man Dick Swensen will start in place of Jim Stoup. Swensen looked good against the Scarlet and has been alternating with the starting unit the past couple of games.

Other starters will be Dave Flinchbaugh and Andy Lockhart at defense; Howie Spencer, Dick Seelig and John Meisel at attack, and Bill Charron, Tom Hayes and Lou Meier in the midfield. Vinnie Tedesco will start at goal.

HAYES IS the Lions' leading scorer with 19 goals followed by Seelig with 11 and Charron with nine. Against Rutgers, Hayes set a State scoring record for midfielders by tallying eight goals.

A victory today would assure the Lions of their first winning season since 1959. That year State was 5-4-1. A win would also put the stickmen in good shape to chalk up the highest win total for a State lacrosse team. The 1946 and 1955 teams won seven games for the best records to date. The Lions have three home contests remaining after today and could end up with a 9-1 chart. Last year Syracuse humiliated State, 11-4.

Lion Netters to Face Strong Navy Squad

By KEN DENLINGER

If pre-season reports hold true to form, the Penn State tennis team will have its work cut out for it today when it plays the Naval Academy squad at Annapolis, Maryland.

Navy is reputed to have its strongest team since coach Bill Boss took over four years ago. Led by senior Colin Fox, the Middies boast four returning lettermen plus a group of promising sophomores.

Fox, a native of Chile, received appointments from both Army and Navy. Unable to decide which school to attend, he finally resorted to tossing a coin. Navy won.

At press time the results of yesterday's match with Georgetown were not available.

Jim Baker will probably face Fox in the number one singles position. Baker, returning to the lineup following a bout with tonsillitis, has posted a record of three wins and one loss thus far this year.

WHIT GRAY WILL go against senior Lee Pekary in the number two spot. Pekary has been hampered by injuries most of the season but is expected to see action today.

State sophomore Alan Isaacman will handle the number three position. He will probably go against John Quinn.

Caba Balazs will play number four for State and face either Sam Karabasz or Jim Beall. Steve Seitchik and John Coldren will handle positions five and six respectively for State.

THE LION NETMEN have been plagued by a lack of a strong doubles combination since the beginning of the season. However, lately, Balazs and Coldren have shown signs of providing coach Sherm Fogg with a strong entry.

Baker and Seitchik will play in the number one doubles position with Gray and Isaacman in the number two spot. Balazs and Coldren will handle three.

Steers to Remain in KC

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ken Krueger, president of the Kansas City Steers of the American Basketball League, said yesterday he will not move the club "under any circumstances."

"We are here to stay and if we can't make it financially we'll quit," he told the sports committee of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce. "I have never considered any other policy."

The Steers finished as runner-up in their first season, but lost money.

Injury Knocks Sir Gaylord Out of Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —

Fate's lightning struck quickly three times at Churchill Downs yesterday and eliminated a trio of top horses from the 88th Kentucky Derby. But the biggest bolt was the astonishing injury which eliminated the favored Sir Gaylord and left big and tough Ridan the 2-1 favorite.

His owners said Sir Gaylord would be retired to stud.

A HAIRLINE fracture of the sesamoid bone of the right front leg, sustained during an early morning workout, knocked Sir Gaylord out of the $125,000-added roses run today and shattered the hopes of Christopher T. Chenery of Virginia. His champion filly, Cicada, also was withdrawn, as was the California colt Donut King, leaving 15 to battle over the 1 1/4 miles, starting at 4:30 p.m. EST.

Cicada had been entered in the $35,000-added Kentucky Oaks for 3-year-old fillies yesterday afternoon. Hayes also had put her in the Derby as insurance against such a mishap that befell Sir Gaylord. Ridan, owned by Mrs. Moody Jolley, had barely beaten Cicada by a nose in the $100,000 Florida Derby in March 31.

"My first inclination was to run her in the Derby," said the crestfallen Chenery at a hastily summoned barnside press conference.

"But now, my decision is 'No.' Cicada had been prepared for the Oaks this afternoon. Her feeding was adjusted to this and it would have been upsetting now to change this."

DONUT KING, a California-bred colt, owned by Verne W. Winchell Jr. of Los Angeles, also was withdrawn. But this didn't come as such a shock. Donut King has been ailing with an infection in the left hind foot. The abscess was opened Friday and drained and the colt will try to make the Preakness May 19 in Baltimore.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Cicada easily won the $42,800 Kentucky Oaks on a sloppy track yesterday at Churchill Downs.

Willie Shoemaker rode Cicada, who drew away from the field just before turning into the stretch and romped home a winner with three lengths of daylight. A Canadian filly, E. P. Taylor's Flaming Page, finished second and P. L. Grissom's Fortunate Isle was third in the field of six.

"Tareyton's Dual Filter in duas partes divisa est!" says veteran coach Romulus (Uncle) Remus. "We have a saying over at the Coliseum—"Tareyton separates the gladiators from the gladioli". It's a real magnus smoke. Take it from me, Tareyton delivers de gustibus—and the Dual Filter does it!"

DUAL FILTER Tareyton

Product of The American Tobacco Company — Tobacco is our middle name — © 1962