

Players' Musical Farce Stars Prince, Princess in Love Affair

An awkward princess who is subjected to a "sensitivity" test before marrying a prince will be seen at 8 p.m. Thursday night in letters from Pittsburgh.

Louisa Marshall, senior in secondary education from Connellsville, will be cast in the role of the Prince's mother, Nancy Alinoff, senior in secondary education from Kingston, and Alan Just, freshman in chemistry and physics from Hicksville, N.Y., will play the two romantic leads.

THE PLAY, based on the fairy tale, "The Princess and the Pea," is directed by Ellis Grove, instructor in theater arts.

Featured in the role of Princess Winifred will be Sandra Hart, senior in arts and letters from Clarion. The object of her affection is Prince Dauntless the Drab, who will be played by David Armbruster, junior in arts and letters from Pittsburgh.

Assembly to Honor Students Sunday

Students outstanding in service and scholarship will be recognized in an Honors Assembly at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Hetzel Union ballroom. Myra Kojundic, publicity chairman said yesterday.

Tickets will be available at the HUB desk for anyone interested in attending, Miss Kojundic said.

MORTAR BOARD, national senior women's honorary society, Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honorary society for juniors and seniors and Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary society will tap at the assembly.

Chimes, junior women's hat society and Scrolls, senior women's hat society will also tap. Cwens, hat society for sophomore women, will recognize new members.

The Mortar Board scholars, women graduating first in the nine colleges, will also be recognized.

Other awards that will be presented at the assembly, are the Phi Beta Kappa awards to outstanding seniors in liberal arts, the Women's Recreation Association award to its outstanding member and the Education Student Council award to the outstanding senior in education.

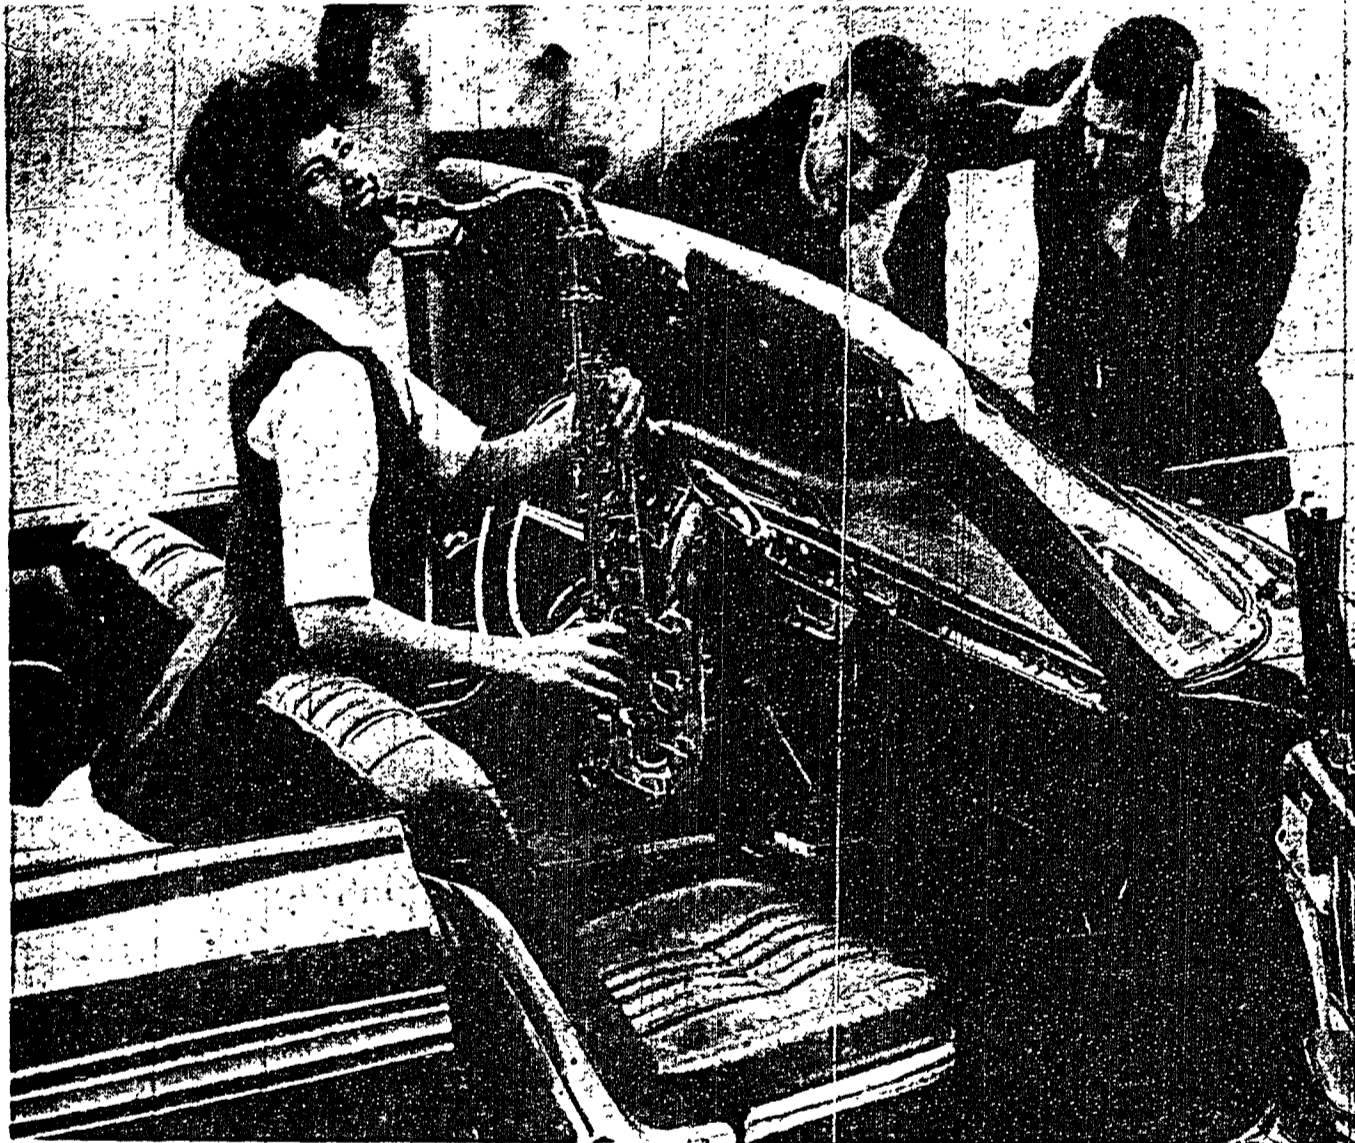

A reception in the HUB lounge will follow the presentations. Students to be honored at the assembly have been invited by letter, Miss Kojundic said, but have not been told which group has chosen them.

The Honors Assembly is part of Women's Week, sponsored by the Association of Women Students.
