

In 3:30 Beaver Field Clash

Stickmen Tangle With Engineers

One mark of a good team is its ability to bounce back from defeat. This afternoon Penn State lacrosse fans get an idea how good this year's team really is when the Lions attempt to rebound from last week's thrashing at Syracuse in an important clash with Lehigh at 3:30 on Beaver Field.

"We'll have to redeem ourselves for that showing at Syracuse," State coach Dick Pencek said yesterday. The stickmen dropped a 15-8 decision to the unbeaten Orange Saturday, but the feeling among the players is that the best team lost.

"I think the boys are mad enough from that loss that we should have a pretty good game with Lehigh," Pencek commented.

Earlier this season State showed its ability to bounce back when it whipped a good Rutgers team after losing to Maryland. In the Rutgers clash, State played its best ball of the year to beat the Scarlet for the first time in history, 18-13.

THE LIONS, who are 5-2, need wins in their final three games to set a State winning mark. No State team has won more than seven games in one season, but this year the stickmen appear to have a good shot at capping an 8-2 record.

Lehigh, however, will be no pushover. The Engineers are still smarting from an 11-9 loss they suffered from State last year, one of only three losses en route to a 7-3 chart.

Harry Bush, in his first year as head coach, has guided the Engineers to a 6-2 record so far, scoring wins over Franklin & Marshall, Colgate, Delaware, Lafayette, Drexel and Stevens while losing to Penn and Swarthmore.

Lehigh lost to Penn, 11-2, and the Lions beat the Quakers, 8-7. State also topped Lafayette, 20-10, and so did the Engineers, 13-10.

IN THE SERIES between the two schools that dates back to 1915, Lehigh has been able to win only three times, while losing 12.

Pencek plans to stick with the same lineup that lost to Syracuse. Tom Hayes, the team's leading scorer with 20 goals, heads the midfield along with co-captain Lou Meier and junior Bill Charron. Meier has shown a consistent scoring punch in the last four games, tallying two goals each against Lafayette, Maryland and Rutgers and scoring three times at Syracuse.

Co-captain Andy Lockhart, senior Dick Swensen and sophomore Dave Flinchbaugh form the defense. Sophomore Vinnie Tedesco is the goalie.

Swahn dropped his match but Robinson won his, 5 and 3, while the Nittany linksmen won their seventh match against one loss by defeating the Terps, 5-2.

Nittanies Defeat Maryland, 5-2, In Tuneup for Golf Tourney

By JOE GRATA

On to the Easterns! The Penn State golf team passed what was probably its supreme test in regular match play by downing Maryland, 5-2, on the University course yesterday afternoon. State moved its record to 7-1 by virtue of the victory.

A steady rainfall stopped only minutes before the match began and left the air cold and moist. Few people were aware of a bespectacled old man whose gray hair and wrinkled skin added color to sharp eyes which looked proudly over the wet greens.

The elderly fellow was 81-year-old Robert Rutherford, Sr., Penn State's first golf coach, who tutored the Lions from 1922, when intercollegiate competition started here, until his retirement in 1949.

IT WAS THEN that present State golf coach Joe Boyle captained the '49 edition of the Nittany linksmen.

Sophomore Jim Tabor teed-off far down the middle of No. 1 fairway as number one man against Maryland's Bill Crawford to give Rutherford an eye-opening view of the 1962 squad. Two hours later Tabor came off the 17th green with his eighth victory to stay unbeaten, winning by a 2 and 1 margin.

Lion Roland Gartner followed with another victory, shooting the low score of the day, a 2-over-par 71, and beating Mike Rota, 4 and 2.

Maryland players Bill Schmidt and Ray Horne won the next two matches. Schmidt handed State captain Bob Swahn his second straight loss, 2 and 1. Swahn is now 6-2 this season. Horne defeated sophomore Dave Liebau, 3 and 2.

PAUL HUMMER, Bill Robinson and Joe Baidy accounted for the other Nittany points. Baidy turned in the largest winning margin of the day, beating Ned Pugh, 7 and 6.

Hummer, who turned in the winning match in State's 4-3 win over Navy in their last outing, won his match over Bill Miller, 3 and 2. Robinson defeated Eaton, 5 and 3, after being even on the front nine holes. Both Lion linksmen have identical six win and two loss records for the season.

Before yesterday's loss, the Terrapins had one of the best records in the East at 10-2.

THE LIONS TRAVEL to Cornell (Ithaca, N.Y.) this weekend for the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association championships. Coach Boyle's contingent will leave for the tourney tomorrow afternoon, practice Friday, and begin competition for the three-day event Saturday.
