

Lion Stickmen Romp Over Lehigh, 14-7, for 6th Win

By DEAN BILLYCK
Sports Co-Editor

Penn State's lacrosse team won the Middle Atlantic Conference championship and all but clinched the Penn-Del crown yesterday afternoon by rolling over Lehigh, 14-7, on Beaver Field.

The win gave the Lions a 4-0 chart in the Middle Atlantic Conference and left them one victory short of the Penn-Del crown. That one victory could come Saturday when State meets weak Swarthmore in Beaver Stadium.

The story of yesterday's game was simply one of too much State power and finesse for the Engineers to handle. Tom Hayes and Dick Seelig led the scoring onslaught with four goals each.

After stumbling through a sloppy first quarter, which found Lehigh leading, 2-1, the Lions took control and built up a 14-4 lead before coach Dick Pencek cleared his bench in the last quarter.

THE VICTORY gave the stickmen a 6-2 chart and put them in good shape to set a State record by winning eight games in one season. After the clash with Swarthmore the Lions close their season with a home tilt against Colgate.

Even though State completely dominated the game except for the first quarter, Pencek was not pleased with their performance.

"We just weren't sharp out there," the young mentor said after the game. "We should have had twice as many goals as we did. I'm not sure what was the matter, but I do know we can play better than that."

Lehigh coach Harry Bush, however, was not of the same opinion.

"STATE IS the best team we've played this season," Bush said after the game as he walked slowly to the locker room. "Their stickwork was too much for us, and they also outthrust us."

Lehigh had a 5-1 record before the game, the only loss coming at Penn, 10-3.

Howie Spencer put the Lions into a 1-0 lead when he took an across-cage pass from John Meisel on the tail end of a fast break and dumped in the goal at 4:32. Less than four minutes later Lehigh tied the game with a fast break of its own that also copped a goal.

The Engineers took their only lead at 13:18 when John Dyke slipped a shot past goalie Vinnie Tedesco to make the count, 2-1.

THE SECOND quarter, was a bit different as the Lions tallied five goals and held the Engineers scoreless. Hayes tied the game at 2-all when he caught goalie Tony Arcesi out of the cage and bounced in a 35-foot shot. Arcesi made a desperate dive at the ball, but the shot flicked by him and the Lions were on their way.

Seelig, Lou Meier, Bill Charron and Hayes scored before the period was over to give State a 6-2 halftime lead. Hayes' second goal was the prettiest tally of the contest. With two men guarding him, the Lion midfielder circled right in front of the net then flipped a shot behind his back from about 45-feet out as an amazed Lehigh goalie watched the shot whip into the net.

The Nittanigs built the lead to 10-2 in the third quarter on goals by Seelig, Hayes, Seelig and Andy Pollock before Lehigh cracked the nets at 8:08. State got two more goals by Spencer and Pollock before Bill Pennell made the score 12-4 on a goal for Lehigh with nine seconds remaining in the quarter.

Hayes and Seelig tallied the Lions' final goals. Lehigh scored three times in the final three minutes when Pencek cleared the bench.

Fogg Not Discouraged By Lions' Net Showing

By KEN DENLINGER

Before the tennis season had formally begun, coach Sherm Fogg seemed enthusiastic about the group of netters that would comprise the nucleus of this year's squad.

"Potentially this could be our best squad in a long time," he said. "However due to an unusually large number of sophomore starters, we may have trouble breaking even this year."

THUS FAR Fogg's last comment would seem like somewhat of an understatement. The netmen (2-5) haven't been burning up the courts the past weeks, and a winning season seems as unlikely as a tuition drop.

The only players that have posted respectable records so far are captain Jim Baker and number six man John Coldren, each with three wins and the same number of defeats.

Baker has been the hard luck man of the squad this year missing one match because of the flu and being hampered in two others with a groin injury. However, when healthy, he's compiled a three win, one loss mark, the setback suffered at the hands of Army's Rich Oerlein. "Baker's been the mainstay of this squad," Fogg said. "It's a shame those injuries had to come in his last year of competition."

COLDREN HAS been a consistent man for the Lions all season. Used mainly for doubles last year, he's handled the number six position more than adequately.

"John's played a very steady brand of tennis all year for us," Fogg said.

The rest of the squad has been less than sensational. The combined wins of Whit Gray (2-3) Alan Isaacman (2-5) Csaba Balazs (0-6) and Steve Seitchik (1-6) would win only one match.

Doubles have also been a problem for the netters this season. Fogg has played everyone but the manager in an effort to hit a winning combination. He might even consider playing the manager except for the fact that he doesn't have one.

Still Fogg is confident that his squad will win more matches, if not this year certainly next. "No matter what our record is, I feel that the men have improved tremendously," he said.

The Lions go against two more tough opponents this weekend in Colgate and Syracuse, both on their opponents' home courts.
